Lion Wrestlers Oppose Navy Today

State Seeks 18th Straight At Annapolis

By JAKE HIGHTON

With every successive victory setting a new all-time Penn State winning streak mark, the Lion wrestlers take on a tough Navy team today in Annapolis in an attempt for their 18th straight dual meet win and seventh in a Against the EIWA champion Against the EIWA champion

Against the EIWA champion Lions, Navy has a formidable squad with a 4-1 record to date. The well-conditioned, come-from-behind Middles boast victories behind Middies boast victories over Duke, Maryland, Illinois, and Lehigh. Navy's lone loss, 15-11. All the others were draws, so was dealt by Cornell. Compara-tively, State defeated Lehigh 20-5 and Navy's winning score was 18-10. 18-10.

Even though weakened by the loss of Don Frey and Lynn Illingworth for today's scrap, the Lions' tremendous depth isn't likely to make their loss felt too badly. Waters at Heavyweight

With Frey out, State's three-brother, six-man act still will push five of the Frey, Lemyre, and Maurey combine into action. Gerry Maurey moves up to 147 and Don Maurey returns at 137. Dick Lemyre goes at 130 and Joe Lemyre at 167. Doug Frey at 157

Revenge keeps his family name in action. In heavyweight Illingworth's place, Bill Waters will make his first State varsity start. Strong but lacking polish, inexperience will be to Waters' disadvantage against his Middle foe, Evan Par-ker, Last week Parker beat Le-Penn State when they host the Lions in Syracuse at 8 tonight. Tonight's contest will be State's last on the current three-game trip. high's Joe Comly, 5-1. Illingworth has licked Comly 9-4.

Dick Lemyre, the only unbeat-en Lion regular in the lineup, is not expected to have too much difficulty in bringing home his seventh straight varsity win in the 130 pound class. His Navy foe, Herb Crane was decisioned 11-4 last week by Lehigh's Jim Mahoney, whom State's soph took 6-1.

Samson Meets Blair

The only other Nittany without loss, Gerry Maurey, wrestles at 147 today after two highly successful ventures one weight low-er. Gerry can expect trouble from Middie opponent Dick Wise. Last week Wise was tied at 7-7 with Lehigh's EIWA champ George Feuerbach until the final seconds when he was taken down to lose, The following is a list of the Swimming will end next Thurs-day night. 9-7.
