Fire Fund Group To Meet Today

The Gentzel fire fund committee will meet at 1:30 p.m. today to discuss the distribution of donations to the fire victims, Marvin Krasnansky, head of the committee, said yesterday.

The committee will decide how many of the applicants for the money are to receive funds and how much money will be distributed to each student.

Cash funds of $396.66 and $90 in merchandise from two downtown stores will be distributed.

Stole Red Radio?

LONDON, Feb. 27—(AP)—Moscow radio today said again that a Russian named Popov really invented the radio and that "the despicable" Italian Guglielmo Marconi stole the idea from him.

Life of Salomon To Be Broadcast

A dramatic script based on the story of Haym Salomon will be presented on the Hillel Hour at 7:30 tonight over WMAJ.

Salomon was an American financier and patriot who helped to raise much of the money needed by Washington's army during the American Revolution.

Included in tonight's cast are Samuel Schnitzer, Sandra Marks, Robert Landesman, Joseph Mar-kind, Martin Rogoff, Martin Primack, Ernest Schoenberger, Ezra Berkowitz, Samuel Glick, and James Moss. The script was produced and directed by Lillian Cassover and Sheldon Vilensky.

Cabinet Announces Enrollment Drive

Openings for students interested in working on the All-College Cabinet enrollment committee are still available.

Edward Shanken and John Allison, co-chairmen of the committee, may be contacted at Pi Kappa Alpha and Phi Kappa Psi fraternities respectively.

Committee members visit their home town high schools to hold discussion groups and distribute literature on the College.

Shanken said that he feels the committee can help to offset possible drops in enrollment and that it did help this problem last semester.
