

Reynaud Attempts To Form Cabinet

PARIS, March 1 —(AP)— Paul Reynaud, the financial wizard who led France in her fall before the Germans, got off to a quick start today in his first attempt to head a new kind of French post-war government.

There were indications that if he can win office he will set up a strong cabinet of technicians and start a thorough-going shake-up of the unstable French political system.

TUB Jam Session

Today's jam session at the TUB will be a Dixieland jazz program, featuring vocals by Isabella Cooper, seventh semester student. Music will begin at 2 p.m.
