

Georgetown Boxer Drops From Eastern Ring Tourney

The field of entries for the Eastern Intercollegiate Boxing Association championships, to be held tomorrow and Saturday in Rec Hall has been reduced to 39 with the withdrawal of Georgetown's lone contestant, Pat Palumbo.

Palumbo informed officials yesterday that he had sprained his ankle in training and would be forced to withdraw his name.

Five men unbeaten in IBA competition, one a defending champion, will be entered in the tournament.

The lone undefeated champion is Penn State's Johnny Albarano. Though beaten by Wisconsin's Bob Morgan, the Lion captain turned back all his eastern opponents, and is favored to retain the honors in the 147-pound class.

Syracuse Has Two

The Lions boast another undefeated entry in 125-pounder Sammy Marino. Sammy, however, has three draws, with Tom Coulter, Syracuse; Bill Banerdt, Virginia; and Paul Driscoll, Army. He beat Joe Walsh, Catholic U. All five men will compete in the tourney.

The only other team with two unbeaten men is the favorite, Syracuse. Light heavyweight John Mahar and 132-pounder Art Nelson have clean slates. Each however, has one draw, Mahar with State's Adam Kois and Nelson with Bob Rush of Virginia.

2 Unbeaten Heavies

The remaining unbeaten entry is Pete Potter of Virginia at 156 pounds. Potter also has two draws, with Carl Crews of Army, and Dick Trumper of Catholic U. His biggest win came over defending champion Bill Miller of Syracuse.

There are also a pair of unbeaten heavyweights, but both have participated in only one bout. Catholic U's Pete Larson whipped State's Dave Yeakel, and the Lions' Bob Potter scored an upset win over Virginia's Joe Mehalick.

Army's light heavyweight Jim McInerney and State's 165-pounder Lou Koszarek are the other returning champions, and both have suffered one loss. The Army captain lost to Virginia's Bill Roberts, and Koszarek to the Oranges' Miller.

SPS, Sigma Chi Win Cage League Titles

Sigma Phi Sigma and Sigma Chi moved into the IM fraternity cage final round Tuesday night with their seventh consecutive victories in Leagues D and E, respectively.

Beta Theta Pi put its impressive 5-1 mark on the line against Sigma Phi Sigma, but the new League D champs handed the Betas their second loss by a surprising 14-7 score. At halftime, the score was 14-5, and the winners clung desperately to their lead with a second half "freeze."

Sigma Chi clinched the League E crown by downing a good Delta Chi team, 37-31. Dick Christensen's 11 points were high for Sigma Chi. Delta Chi finished the season with a 5-2 mark.

Wins Second

By winning last night, Delta Upsilon could have clinched the League C title and become the sixth fraternity team to wrap up league championships. Phi Delta Theta, Phi Sigma Delta, Sigma Phi Sigma, Sigma Chi, and Pi Kappa Alpha have already won the other five league crowns.

Two games were played in League B Tuesday night. Lambda Chi Alpha hung up its second victory by dropping Sigma Phi Alpha, 31-18, as Clifford Hoch led the way with 10 markers. Kappa Sigma rapped Delta Tau Delta, 27-21, to finish its IM season with a 4-3 record.

KDR Triumphs

John McCall's 12 points led Alpha Tau Omega to its sixth League A victory, a 32-22 conquest of Alpha Sigma Phi.

Kappa Delta Rho, trailing 13-6 at halftime, rallied to defeat Theta Chi, 23-19. Triangle blasted Omega Psi Phi, 54-9, as Jim Babb and Don Brainerd scored 18 and 17 points, respectively. Phi Kappa lost a close 24-22 decision to Theta Xi, while Pi Lambda Phi forfeited to Phi Sigma Kappa.

Sports Briefs

Lopez to Use 9 Hurlers

TUCSON, Ariz., March 5—(AP)—Manager Al Lopez said today he plans to carry nine pitchers on his Cleveland Indians roster this season.

Bob Feller, Bob Lemon, Early Wynn and Mike Garcia—the big four—and Steve Gromek, Lou Brisie, Bob Chakales, Sam Jones and Dick Rozek.

8 PIAA Games Listed

HARRISBURG, March 5—(AP)—Sixteen class A basketball teams meet tomorrow night in PIAA district eliminations that will trim the list of state title eligible quintets down to 42.

IM Team Meeting

A meeting of all captains or managers of IM cage teams which will appear in the final playoffs next week will be held at 8 tonight in the intramural office, Clarence M. "Dutch" Sykes, assistant IM director, said yesterday. A drawing for opponents in the finals will take place at this time.

Lion Gymnasts Will Compete In Tournament

Penn State's gymnastics team will leave tomorrow morning for Syracuse where the Lions will compete in the 25th annual EIGA tournament on Saturday.

The tournament, held at Syracuse for the first time, will feature all-around and individual competition. No team title will be at stake; they have already been decided on the basis of dual meets. Army, unbeaten for the third successive season, captured the title while State finished in the runner-up spot.

Will Use 10 Men

Either Navy or Syracuse will take third place, depending on the outcome of that dual meet. Temple, loser to both the service schools and to Penn State, finished last.

Coach Gene Wettstone said yesterday that State will not carry its full team. State will use ten men — two on every event except tumbling and the flying rings. Wettstone will use one man in tumbling and three on the flying rings.

In addition, Wettstone will use Karl Schwenzfeier, Jan Cronstedt, and Tony Procopio in the all-around competition.

Fournies Probable Entry

Syracuse and Temple are expected to give the Nittany Lions the most trouble in the all-around events, which will include four specialties — sidehorse, parallel bars, horizontal bars, and the flying rings.

The Orange will probably enter Ferdie Fournies, Milan Trnka, and Johnny Barkal while the Owls will probably use John Galente and John Jengo.

Barkal will probably give the State men the most trouble. In the dual meet with State, he grabbed second places in the sidehorse, parallel bars, and horizontal bar events. Trnka, on the other hand, didn't fare so well. He broke on the parallel bars and the horizontal bars.

Fournies will be at his best on the sidehorse, rope climbing, and flying rings.

Princeton Mat Year Brightened by Glass

A young and largely inexperienced Princeton wrestling team provides the unbeaten Lion matmen with their final dual meet opposition of the season at Princeton Saturday.

With little recommendation other than its Eastern and national collegiate heavyweight champion Brad Glass, the Tigers have only won once all year while dropping six decisions.

Princeton opened the season with a 29-3 victory over Pennsylvania, coached by Charlie Speidel's former assistant coach and three-time EIWA champ, Charlie Ridenour.

Lost to F & M

Since that initial win over inept Penn, the Tigers have made every match close but failed to win another.

The New Jersey wrestlers lost to Franklin & Marshall, 19-9; had their measure taken by New York AC, 20-10; were beaten by Rutgers, Columbia and Lehigh, 17-11; and were licked by Yale, 14-11.

Champion Glass shines through an otherwise gloomy Princeton wrestling picture. Glass, a six foot 200 pound bundle of muscle, is the first Princetonian ever to hold a NCAA wrestling title and captains the Tiger squad even though only a junior.

Glass Unbeaten

Labeled by Princeton's public information department as "one of the outstanding Princeton athletes of the past decade," Glass was a standout defensive guard on the Tigers' football team. During his last two seasons of play Princeton has won 22 straight and held opponents to an average of 70 yards rushing yards per game.

Unbeaten in seven mat matches this year, Glass has failed to win only once in his career. Hunt of Navy held the 21-year-old grappler to a draw in February 1951.

Glass, an Illinois State heavyweight champ for two years, defeated the Lions' heavyweight star Homer Barr 2-1 to win the EIWA title and received a referee's and judges' decision to win the NCAA title last March.

Fine Sophomores

Three other letterwinners are listed on the Princeton roster, two of whom have not been starting regularly this season.

Numeral winners Bob Leach and Walt Ramsay have been thrown out of jobs by two sophomores coming up to the varsity after unbeaten freshman seasons. Don Rumsfield, a native of Glass' New Trier, Illinois high school has been taking over for Ramsay at 157 pounds.

Four Independent Playoffs Scheduled

With the IM cage playoffs scheduled to begin Monday night, four independent league tie playoffs must be played tonight to determine the champions of Leagues A, C, H, and J.

At 8:45, the Epars tangle with the Sea Hawks for the League A crown, and Dorm 36 plays the winner of last night's game between Dorm 23 and the Sinkers. The Wildcats and Terrapins, tied for the League G crown, meet at 9:25, as do the Dinks and Dorm 14 of League H.
