

Sigma Xi Speaker

DR. L. H. ADAMS, director of the Geophysical Laboratory, Carnegie Institution of Washington, will be the speaker at the Sigma Xi lecture scheduled for 8 p.m. Tuesday in 119 Osmond Laboratory. His topic will be "Current Status of Knowledge of the Interior of the Earth." The lecture is open to the public.

Students, Prof Attend Conference

Seven students and one faculty member attended the fourth annual New York University-Herald Tribune Careers in Retailing conference yesterday in New York.

They are Lois Nelson, instructor in clothing and textiles, and the following students: Geraldine Ann Lalli, Norma Zehner, Joan Morosini, Rachael Witherow, Nancy Reed, Ruth Tranter, and Byrne Tetley.

More than 150 students and faculty members from fifty Eastern colleges attended the conference, which included a visual presentation of retailing activities, job-hunting techniques discussion, and talks by major New York store executives.

Fifty Students --

(Continued from page one) another strike next week when more students will be in a position to take part.

The event, which is supposed to have originated on the first floor, although none of the organizers wished to reveal their names, was heralded by notes left at every door of Hamilton Hall which said, "They made us wait at noon—let's make them wait for supper. Please go to supper at 6:10 p.m."

Announce Winners In Slide Contest

The winners of the color slide contest sponsored by the Alpha Tau Alpha, agriculture education honorary, are Ronald H. Leaman, Gunnar L. Roos, and Roger M. Smith.

Joseph Omelchuck won two honorable mentions. Charles Harrington and Roger M. Smith were also given honorable mention.

The judges were Dr. George Johnson, professor of Forestry Extension, Robert Beese, assistant of agriculture photography, and John Roy, assistant professor of fine arts.

Winners will receive eight by ten color enlargements of their photographs, and those who received honorable mention, five by seven enlargements.

220 Ballots Cast In Collegian Poll

Approximately 220 ballots were cast in the presidential preference poll conducted yesterday and Thursday by the Daily Collegian. The ballots are now being tabulated and the results will be released in Tuesday's newspaper.

The ballots listed the names of Dwight Eisenhower, Estes Kefauver, Richard Russell, Harold Stassen, Adlai Stevenson, Robert Taft, Harry Truman, and Earl Warren, plus a space for a write-in candidate and a box for those students who are undecided.

A similar poll is planned for later this semester and another for next fall shortly before the November elections.

Van Lennep Visits College On March 26

Dr. D. J. Van Lennep, author of the book "Psychology of Projection Phenomena," which was recently translated from the Dutch language by Dr. Dagobert de Levie, assistant professor of German, will visit the College March 26, 27, and 28 as part of his lecture tour in this country.

Dr. Van Lennep, who is a professor of diagnostic psychology at the University of Utrecht, will confer with Dr. de Levie concerning the translation of the book.

During his visit, Dr. Van Lennep will speak to the Graduate Student and Faculty Seminar in Psychology on "The Philosophy of Projection and Projective Techniques," and will be available for other lectures and seminar discussions.

10th 'People Act' Set for Tomorrow

"The People Act" will hold its tenth nationwide broadcast at 10:05 p.m. tomorrow when it visits the Mt. Adams area in the state of Washington.

The program, which has State College as its national headquarters, deals with the problems faced by individual communities, and the progress made in solving them through the action of an enlightened citizenry.

Sunday's program will show how the citizens of a wasteful lumber region organized to avert the "ghost town" future that threatened their livelihood.

PSC Conducting Membership Drive

The Penn State Club is now conducting its membership drive for the spring semester, Lewis Hoover, president, said yesterday.

The club is a social organization for independent men, offering various athletic and social opportunities, he said. Annual club activities include mixers with women's dormitory units, theater parties, presentation of the All-College Talent Show, participation in intramural sports, and a spring semi-formal dance.

Independent men interested in the club may contact Andrew Jaros in Nittany dorm 33 for further information.

LUCKIES TASTE BETTER!

The difference between "just smoking" and really enjoying your smoke is the taste of a cigarette. You can taste the difference in the smoother, mellower, more enjoyable taste of a Lucky... for two important reasons. First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco... fine, mild tobacco that tastes better. Second, Luckies are made to taste better... proved best-made of all five principal brands. So reach for a Lucky. Enjoy the cigarette that tastes better! Be Happy—Go Lucky! Buy a carton today!

No pain, no strain when smokes are low. No rush to buy a pack - I keep a Lucky carton near, And smokes I never lack!
Hunter S. Seabright, University of North Carolina

I have to study hard each day; I'm not a brain you see - But something that I quickly learned Was L.S./M.F.T.
