

Strikes Hurt
Food Problem—
See Page 4

The Daily Collegian

FOR A BETTER PENN STATE

Women Neglect
Right to Vote—
See Page 4

VOL. 52 No. 103

STATE COLLEGE, PA., TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 11, 1952

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Ag Council to Hear Fee Plan

State and Lion Parties Select Clique Officers

Lippert Named Clique Head Of State Party

Jules Lippert was elected senior class clique chairman of the State Party at its meeting Sunday night, when senior and junior officers of the party were chosen.

Robert Sherman was voted in as vice chairman, Marion Morgan was elected secretary, and Terese Moslak defeated Albert Lucidi for the job of treasurer.

Workshop Chairmen Named

In the junior clique elections, Charles Gibbs defeated Jerome Feinburg for the position of chairman, Ernest Stahl beat out John Moore and David Slep for the vice chairmanship, Jane Larpenteur was elected secretary over Corinne Janssens, and Stanley Hirsch won over Mario Valentino in the treasurer's spot. Anne Quigley, who had been nominated for junior class clique, withdrew from the contest before the elections.

Permanent workshop committee chairmen were announced at the meeting by Thomas Farrell, State Party clique chairman. Ernest Famous was named ward chairman; Rae DelleDonne, membership; Myer Bushman, public relations; Irvin White, campaign; Robert Kritt, publicity; and Melvin Rubin and Joseph Simone, platform. Miss Quigley and Morris Singer were named co-chairman of a party mixer to be held Friday night.

Self-nomination

Farrell said that final votes on new steering committee representatives will be made Thursday night after the workshop meeting. Under the proposed plan for expansion of the steering committee, representatives for each school and for independent men and women, fraternity men, and sorority women will be added to the group.

A student interested in becoming the party representative of his school must nominate himself for the position. Nomination blanks may be obtained from party secretary Beverly Morgan.

Sophomore Dance Tickets Available

Tickets for the sophomore class dance on March 22 are available to all sophomores at the Student Union desk, George Donovan, manager of student activities, said yesterday. Sophomores may pick up their tickets free of charge by presenting their matriculation cards.

The dance will be held in Recreation Hall from 9 p.m. to 12 midnight with Jack Jenkins and his orchestra providing the music.

Ed-its Out Tomorrow

Ed-its, the School of Education publication, will be out tomorrow. It can be obtained at the education office in Burrows Building.

TODAY'S WEATHER

SHOWERS, WINDY, AND MILD

Taylor to Judge Miss Penn State Photo Entries

Photograph entries for the Miss Penn State contest are now open, Janet Herd, Spring Week coronation chairman, announced yesterday.

Don Taylor, 1942 graduate of the College, now in Hollywood on a movie contract, will judge the photographs and narrow the entries to five.

Miss Penn State, who annually reigns over Spring Week activities, will be selected from among the five finalists at a program in Schwab Auditorium.

Photos should be five by seven and may be left at the Student Union desk in Old Main before noon April 5.

All candidates must be undergraduates at the College and must be entered by some organization.

Nine Enter 'Ugly Man' Contest

Nine entrants in the 1952 Ugly Man contest sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, were named yesterday. Contest officials said they will release another list tomorrow.

Entrants in the contest and their sponsors as of noon Saturday were:

Deadline for submitting pictures for the Ugly Man Contest is noon Thursday, according to William Slep, chairman of the contest.

All candidates whose pictures have not been taken will be taken from 6:30 to 9 p.m. Thursday in 411 Old Main.

John Albarano, boxing team captain, Theta Kappa Phi; Milton Bernstein, BX chairman, Phi Sigma Delta; Roger Clinton, editor Interfraternity Council workshop magazine, Kappa Sigma; Peter Fairchok, vice president of Mineral Industries Student Council, Theta Chi; Ralph Griffith, vice president of West Dorm Council, sponsored by the council; William Hockersmith, varsity football, Alpha Chi Sigma; Richard Morman, secretary Pollock Circle Council, sponsored by the council; William Park, Penn State Glee Club president, College Co-op; and Stanley Wengert, IFC president, Panhellenic Council.

Contestants must be eighth semester students sponsored by a College organization.

The Ugly Man contest is a type of popularity contest, William Slep, contest chairman, said last week. He said that for this reason it is desirable that entrants be well-known campus personalities.

Voting for the contest will take place March 26 to 28 on the Mall at Pollock road. Proceeds of the contest will go to the Campus Chest.

Candidates to Meet

Candidates for the Daily Collegian business staff will meet at 7 tonight in 1 Carnegie Hall. Anyone interested in advertising, promotion, circulation, classified advertising, or office work may attend, according to Carolyn Alley, personnel manager.

250 Re-elect Evert Leader Of Lion Party

Ray Evert was re-elected All-College party chairman of the Lion Party by the approximately 250 students who attended the party meeting Sunday night.

William Walters was elected vice party chairman, Judith Callet was elected secretary, and Alan Maloney was elected financial chairman. All four candidates were unopposed.

Walters to Take Over

Nominations for junior and senior class clique officers were opened, but no nominations were made. Next Sunday the party will elect class clique officers and open nominations for All-College, junior, and senior class candidates.

Evert, a senior, has been chairman of the party since the fall elections. Walters, a junior, will take over the party for the fall campaign.

On March 4 the Lion Party approved a constitution written by Clair George and Maloney.

The constitution cuts the power of the party chairman, making him responsible for many of his actions to the executive committee, which is composed of the four party officers and the heads of each class.

Must Attend 2 Meetings

Under the constitution any party member may belong to the platform committee. The steering committee nominations shall be given no different reception than others from the floor and shall not be stated as having the approval of the steering committee.

Evert urged all members and all those interested in joining the party to attend Sunday's meeting. A student must attend two party meetings in order to become a party member. Only members may vote for candidates.

'Ike' Takes First Place, Taft Is Second in Poll

If the Presidential preference poll conducted among students at Penn State is any criterion, (but from the results of a similar poll in 1948 it seems it may not be) Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will be the next President of the United States.

General Eisenhower received 86 of the 223 votes cast in the poll conducted last week by the Daily Collegian. He had almost three times as many votes as his nearest Republican rival, Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, who received only 30 votes.

Percentage wise, Eisenhower got only 38.6 per cent of the total votes cast, but received a larger number of votes in each party, including independents, than any other candidate. Of the 91 Republican ballots cast, Eisenhower got 42 (46.2 per cent), while he took 25 of the 74 independent ballots (35.2 per cent), and 18 of the 51 Democratic ballots (35.3 per cent), beating President Truman by one vote.

Senator Taft placed second in the poll with 30 votes. Twenty of these were Republican ballots, and ten independent. He received no Democratic votes.

Third place went to President Truman, who received 25 votes. Seventeen of these were Democratic ballots, three were Republican, and his closest Democratic rival, Sen. (Continued on page eight)

10 Cent Raise Proposed As Aid to Judging Teams

The School of Agriculture Student Council will hear a proposal tonight to raise student fees ten cents a semester to help pay the expenses of Penn State's nine judging teams.

If approved by the council, the proposal will be presented to All-College Cabinet at its next meeting. Cabinet approval of the fee increase would come in the form of a recommendation to the College Board of Trustees. The trustees would have the final say.

The council will meet at 8 tonight in 103 Agriculture Building.

The proposal to raise all student fees ten cents a semester will come in the form of a report to be presented by James Gallagher, chairman of a special committee which has been studying the problem. Included on the committee is All-College Secretary Treasurer Thomas Jurchak.

High Personal Cost

Students enrolled in the School of Agriculture, the report will point out, are now paying 75 cents a semester to support nine judging teams which represent Penn State in intercollegiate competition. The increase would raise the fees ag students are paying to support the teams to 85 cents a semester.

According to figures compiled by the committee, members of the judging teams are now spending almost $1700 per year out of their own pockets in order to meet travelling, food, and insurance costs incurred on trips.

$3000 a Year

"Often many students who are eligible for membership on these teams," the report says, "cannot compete because of the high personal cost which averages $44.80 per member and is as high as $87.20 on some teams."

According to figures the committee (Continued on page eight)

Notre Dame Edges Out Debaters

By a slim 11-point margin the Penn State men's debate foursome dropped the Brooklyn College Invitational Tournament this weekend to Notre Dame.

Although both teams won eight and lost two debates, the Notre Dame speakers racked up 1012 points to Penn State's 1001. Each speaker was rated numerically by the judges, according to Clair George, manager.

Gene Kolber and Mark Unger, the affirmative team, won over the University of Vermont, Navy, Johns Hopkins University, and Kings Point Merchant Marine Academy. They lost to St. Peter's College.

Negative speakers Thomas Durek and George beat New York University, New Haven College, University of Pittsburgh, and Massachusetts Institute of Technology and dropped their bout with Georgetown University.

The topic was the national intercollegiate question, "Resolved: That the federal government should adopt a permanent program of wage and price control."

WD Council Gets Apology From Baker

Mildred Baker, director of food service, has apologized to the West Dorm Council for the delay at Friday's lunch that brought a storm of protest from students living in Hamilton Hall and ended at Friday's supper with a "food strike."

At Friday's evening meal, about 50 students did not enter the Hamilton dining hall until 6:10 p.m. The dining halls are scheduled to close at 6:15 p.m., but as a result of the strike, the doors did not close until shortly after 6:30 p.m.

The apology was made in the form of a letter read by Richard Mills, council president, at last night's council meeting.

The living units of the area split a proposal brought before the council two weeks ago that would have the council banquet and keys for council members financed through the council treasury. Constituents decided that only the keys should be paid for from council funds.

McGinnis Elected To Council Post

James McGinnis was elected treasurer of the Nittany Council at a meeting last night by a 10 to 4 vote. He succeeds Milton Erb.

It was proposed at the meeting that the council sponsor a booth for the Spring Weekend party. Weston Thomlison, council president, named Charles Berryhill, chairman, Dennis Donovan, and James Shultz to work on the project.

Thomlison also named Daniel Fagan chairman of the athletic committee.

Cabinet, Prexy to Meet

All-College Cabinet will have a social meeting at the home of President Milton S. Eisenhower at 8 tonight.

Current campus problems will be discussed, All-College President James Worth said yesterday.

Worth also announced that there will be no meeting of cabinet Thursday night.

First in Poll

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower