

Coed Nominations To Close Thursday

Continuing its program of self-nomination, the Women's Student Government Association and the Women's Recreation Association, will accept applications from any woman student desiring to be a candidate for the spring elections in the Dean of Women's office, 105 Old Main, until 5 p.m. Thursday.

Primary elections will be on March 25 and finals on March 27.

All nominees must have a 1.5 all-College average and no major judicial record, according to Joanne Williams and Nancy Worthington, WSGA and WRA elections chairmen.

Offices open and requirements of each are:

The candidate receiving the second highest number of votes for president becomes the secretary of WSGA. The candidate receiving the second highest number of votes for vice president will be a junior senator.

WRA—president, one year's experience on WRA executive board; vice president, present sophomore; secretary-treasurer, present freshman; intramural chairman, present sophomore; assistant intramural chairman, present freshman.

WSGA candidates will meet in 217 Willard and WRA candidates will meet in 303 Willard Thursday, the elections chairmen said.

Each nominee will be interviewed by the application boards of either WSGA or WRA on Saturday. They will be introduced at house meetings next week.

Informal Rushing Begins March 20

A strict silent period between sorority members and prospective rushees will continue until March 20, when informal rushing begins, according to the Panhellenic rushing code.

Names of coeds who register for informal rushing at the Dean of Women's office will be given to sororities. However, registration is not necessary for informal rushing.

Coke dates may be held in sorority suites from 11 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. beginning March 20, and may then continue for the remainder of the semester.

Bids will be issued through the Dean of Women's office on April 3 or thereafter. After receiving a bid, a rushee is granted one week before returning an acceptance or refusal to the Dean of Women's office. During this time a strict silent period will be observed between the rushee and the sorority issuing the bid, according to the rushing code.

Phi Kappa Sigma Observes 'Dad's Day'

Phi Kappa Sigma entertained the fathers of members at a "Dad's Day" Saturday.

The fraternity purchased a block of tickets for the boxing matches and fathers and sons attended in a body.

A smoker was held for the fathers, and all activities were stag.

The fraternity is endeavoring to make this an annual affair on the national level.

French Boy Adopted By Beta Sigma Rho

The Penn State chapter of Beta Sigma Rho has adopted a nine-year-old French-Jewish child through the Foster Parents' Plan for War Children, Inc.

Through the organization, the fraternity will contribute $15 each month to the care of Claude Faruch, the youngest child of Mahloul and Raymonde El Sair Faruch. The boy was born Dec. 2, 1942, near Marseille in the south of France. Shortly after his birth, the boy's father was seized by the Gestapo and was deported to Germany, where he died March, 1943, in Autzwich.

Food and Clothing

Claude now lives with his mother, brother, and sister in a small flat in a partially bomb-wrecked building where there is little food and no conveniences.

Claude came into the Foster Parents' plan in December and food and clothing go to him regularly. He also has medical care and attends school. A small cash grant given to his mother helps with his home needs.

Correspondence Too

Martin Kahn, a member of Beta Sigma Rho, says that the adoption arrangements were made after he had heard about the Foster Parents' plan on a radio show. "I thought that it would be a good idea to adopt a war child," Kahn explained, "so I brought it up at a house meeting, and it was approved." The fraternity then wrote to the New York headquarters of the group, and the arrangements were completed.

Correspondence with the child will be translated and sent to him through the organization's headquarters, and letters from him will be translated and forwarded in the same manner.

350 Attend Tea Held by Frosh

Approximately 350 freshman and upperclass women attended the Big-Little Sister Tea in Atherton lounge sponsored by freshmen women on Sunday.

The majority attending were members of the freshman class, though the affair was open to all women, whether or not they were big or little sisters.

Pouring for the tea were Pearl O. Weston, dean of women, Mary Brewer, Mrs. Cordelia Hibbs, and Patricia Thompson, assistant deans, and members of the WSGA Senate.

Cookies, mints, and tea were served to those attending. Yellow and white cut flowers provided an early Spring background for the affair.

The large number attending helped to make the tea a success, said Anne Cunningham, co-general chairman of the activity.

IT'S A FACT

Dancing was not permitted on campus until 1890. Since there were few co-eds in Penn State, there were only 3 dances a year to which girls were invited.

The girls of 1890 would have considered themselves much more luckier if their date could have invited them to come down to Vic's. Here is an old-fashioned treat, popular in 1890 and 1952: Vic's lemon blend, only 10c.
