

Matmen Defeat Princeton To Finish Season Unbeaten

By JAKE HIGHTON

In a final tuneup for this weekend's Eastern Intercollegiate wrestling championships, Penn State's defending EIWA titlists closed an all-victorious dual meet season with a decisive 27-3 win over Princeton Saturday at Princeton.

By winning their ninth straight of the year, Coach Charlie Speidel's Lions accomplished their second successive unbeaten dual meet season, bringing to 12 the total of undefeated mat years at State since the inception of the sport here in 1909; stretched the all-Penn State dual meet winning streak record with their 20th success since the tail end of the 1950 season. Previous high was 16 set once from 1916-1919 and duplicated during the 1924-26 seasons; left the Lions as the only unbeaten squad in the 16-team Eastern circuit.

Two Finish Unbeaten
In defeating the Tigers, State swept seven of the eight bouts, losing only in the heavyweight class.

Lion sophomores Dick Lemyre and Jerry Maurey came through with victories to finish the season without a loss.

Bob Homan, Joe Lemyre, Don Frey, Bud Samson and Doug Frey all contributed triumphs to the winning Lion cause.

Lemyre Gets 4th Fall
Heavyweight Dick Waters, subbing for Lynn Illingworth, ran into too much in NCAA champion Brad Glass to suffer the only Penn State defeat, 8-0.

To gain his ninth of the season, Dick Lemyre did away with Tiger 130 pounder Sam Fullerton in 2:28. The fall was Dick's fourth, highest racked up by any Nittany this season. Dick also gained low-scoring honors by allowing his opponents only three points all season.

Jerry Maurey finished his all-winning season by drubbing Tiger Tom Gordon 15-3. It was Jerry's fifth win since taking over the starting 137 pound assignment for the Lions' at mid-season.

Samson Cops 7th
Freshman Bob Homan wound up the year with the third best seasonal record by notching his eighth 123 pound win at the expense of Tiger Rupert Miller. A loser only once this season, Homan decked Miller at 6:36 for his third pin of the year.

Nittany light heavyweight Bud Samson closed his season books with the next best record, 7-2, by virtue of an 8-7 decision over Tiger football tackle Les Wilson.

Doug Frey Wins
Don Frey, the only undefeated Lion grappler last year, finished this season with his sixth win against one loss. Don needed only 2:15 to pin Princeton's 147 pound Carl Shaifer in a flashy return to action after a two-week layoff due to illness.

Doug Frey hung a 6-0 white-wash defeat on Tiger Pete Frorer to score his sixth win of the season. Doug has only lost two.

State's 167 stalwart Joe Lemyre decided Carl MacDonald 8-5 to bring his season log to 6-2-1. Last year Joe had a 7-1 record.

Final season marks posted by the other Lions are: Lynn Illingworth, 6-1; Dick Waters, 1-1; Bill Krebs, 0-2; Don Maurey, 1-1-1; and Larry Fornicola, 1-0-1.

Lutheran Cops Cage Honors

For the second straight year, the Lutheran Student Association basketball team copped the Inter-Church league crown when it defeated Westminster Fellowship in the best of three games last week at the Lutheran Gym.

The defending LSA cagers finished the regular season with a 6-0 log, while the losers posted a 5-2 record.

Paced by Dick Wendler's 15 tallies, the LSA courtmen managed to stave off a late rally as they scored a 47-44 triumph in last Thursday night's contest.

Friday night's game saw the LSA team eke out a 65-64 thriller over Westminster and win the playoff series. John Kunda hit the cords for 24 points for the victors, while Jim Lappen registered 17 for the losers.

points in the opening quarter against the Bisons' 15. Throughout the contest the visiting Nittanians held a commanding edge which never dropped below ten markers.

Bucknell's highly touted star, Joe Gallagher, was limited to one point. Marty McKibbin, reserve guard, showed surprising scoring strength with 20 tallies.

State Places Third Behind Orange, Army

ale. However, the superb conditioning which was characteristic of all the Army boys, paid off for Crews, and he appeared just as fresh as Miller.

Miller, who falls far short of being a good boxer, was wild throughout the fight, and appeared to be playing for a one punch knockout. Crews on the other hand, boxed well, and connected often and hard.

The Lions' Marino, in winning his first championship, took the measure of Army's Paul Driscoll in a closely-fought battle. Both boys boxed and hit well, but it was Sammy's troublesome left that kept Driscoll at a distance, and was the margin of victory.

Flore Victim
Albarano looked the part of a champion in beating Syracuse's Gus Fiacco. Johnny moved cleverly and hit solidly, while Fiacco, in the manner of all the Syracuse boys, charged and pushed and swung wildly, but also managed to land enough to keep the fight close most of the way. Fiacco tired in the third, however, and Johnny finished strong to wrap up the win.

Flore was another victim of the Syracuse method of pushing and mauling. In his bout with Johnny Granger, Tony was kept pretty much on the defensive, as Granger shoved and mauled to wear Tony down. And he succeeded in doing just that, for the end of the bout found Tony practically out on his feet.

Retains Crown
Syracuse's heavyweight George Kartalian took the shortest amount of time to claim his title. It took the powerful Orange captain only one minute and thirty-one seconds to catch Virginia's Joe Mehalick with an over-hand right and drop the big boy to the canvas. Kartalian has used the same method to stop Army's Mike Helper in the semi's.

McInerney retained his 178-pound crown, scoring a decision over Mahar. The fight was pretty even most of the way with both boys hitting hard. The Army captain got the best of a flurry midway in the second to build up a point margin.

Nelson Wins
Following the bouts, McInerney was awarded the trophy given annually to the outstanding boxer, from the viewpoint of skill and sportsmanship, in the tournament.

Syracuse's Art Nelson took the 132-pound crown in a rather slow bout with Army's Jim McGee. Though McGee was the harder puncher, Nelson was the better boxer, in a battle marked by too many clinches.

In the 165-pound class, the weakest of the tournament, Army's Jeryl Hughes scored a TKO over Nichols when the Virginia boy injured his arm after 59 seconds of the second round.

Cronstedt Captures 2 Gymnastic Titles

Penn State's "Flying Finn," Jan Cronstedt, provided the Lions with their only top places in the Eastern gymnastics championships at Syracuse Saturday.

Cronstedt won the horizontal bar title and was top man in the all-around competition.

Bob Lawrence, sidehorse specialist, saw his five meet winning streak go by the boards, finishing second to Army's Bob Wheeler, even though two of the judges favored Lawrence.

Three Lions Named Week's Top Athletes

Three Penn State athletes who won four individual titles at Eastern tournaments over the weekend have been named "Athletes of the Week" by the Daily Collegian sports staff.

Winners were boxers John Albarano and Sam Marino and gymnast Jan Cronstedt.

Albarano won the 147 pound EIBA crown with a convincing 89-83 decision over Gus Fiacco, Syracuse. In the semi-finals that same afternoon, Albarano knocked off Rod Koch, Army, 89-74. Fiacco, meanwhile, was deciding Grice Whitely, Virginia, 90-73.

Marino, boxing at 125 pounds, defeated Paul Driscoll, Army, 90-84 in the finals. In the semi-finals, he edged Tom Coulter, Syracuse, 88-86. Driscoll had scored a TKO over Bill Banerdt, Virginia, to advance to the final round with Marino.

Cronstedt, on the other hand, took first places in the all-round competition and in the horizontal bar event in the 25th EIGA's Saturday at Syracuse.

In winning the horizontal bar speciality, Cronstedt finished ahead of his Temple opponent, John Jengo, the man who inflicted the lone setback on the "Flying Finn" this season.

In the all-round, which includes the horizontal bar, parallel bars, sidehorse, and flying rings events, Cronstedt upset highly favored Johnny Barkal of Syracuse.

Lawrence, unbeaten in matches with North Carolina, Army, Navy, Syracuse and Temple had already beaten Wheeler at West Point, 260-249, while the Cadets were taking the meet. The Nittanians' Al Wick placed fourth in the sidehorse event.

Army, ranked first in the east, completely dominated the tournament, pulling in three titles, while Syracuse and Navy gained one each.

Sebbo Wins Tumbling
Navy's lone first place was garnered by Al Quarterero who finished ahead of State's Bill Sabo in the parallel bar event.

To on one's surprise, Jim Sebbo, Syracuse's sensational freshman, took the tumbling crown. Sebbo's 256 score took the title from Fred Graf of Navy, last year's champion. The Lions' Bob Kenyon finished fifth.

Army swept the other two events — flying rings and rope climbing. Jack Kleberg won the rings for the Cadets while John Ballantyne and John Claybrook tied for first in the rope climb. The time was 3.6. Jim Hazen finished fifth on the rings.

No Team Title
In the all-around competition, besides Cronstedt's top performance, Karl Schwenzfeier placed fourth for the Nittany Lions. The other State entry, Tony Procopio, broke on the side-horse and finished down the list.

There was no team title. Army won that on the basis of its dual meet record. The Cadets defeated Navy, Syracuse, Temple, and Penn State for the title. Penn State, loser only to Army, was second.

Okay Joe?

Miss Marcia Phillips
Something new . . . whenever we come across one of our sittings who is not only immensely appealing in pulchritude but in personality as well, then we feel behooved to entitle her our "OKAY JOE?" Girl.
To meet the high standards necessary for an "OKAY JOE?" girl, it won't be easy, to predict how often she may appear. There may not be any for 10 or 15 days and then again, there may be 3 in one week. Marcia comes up to the standards beautifully.

INTERESTED IN YOURSELF?

WE HOPE YOU ARE, because it takes an engineer with self-interest to meet challenging problems and we have engineering problems as tough as any you'll find.

WE LOOK FOR MEN interested in themselves because healthy self-esteem makes a man want to show what he can do. People who merely want a job won't give us the fresh ideas that are the life's blood of our industrial instrumentation business. Its the ambitious, driving engineers that are solving today's complex industrial process problems through automatic controls and systems. Why don't YOU put your self interest to work solving tomorrow's problems in this varied, challenging, interesting field?

IF YOU ARE AN ENGINEER—Electrical, Mechanical, Industrial—or a Physicist, ask your college placement office for more information about BROWN INSTRUMENTS DIVISION, MINNEAPOLIS-HONEYWELL REGULATOR COMPANY, then be sure to see our representative who will visit your campus very soon
