

WSGA, WRA Blanks For Nomination Due

Applications are being accepted today and tomorrow from self-nominated candidates who are entering the Women's Student Government Association and Women's Recreation Association spring elections.

Blanks can be procured in the Dean of Women's office, 105 Old Main, before 5 p.m. tomorrow, according to Joanne Williams and Nancy Worthington, election chairmen.

Primary elections are scheduled for March 25 and finals for March 27.

The six WSGA positions open are president, vice president, senior senator, junior senator, sophomore senator, and town senator.

Five Offices Open

The candidate receiving the second highest number of votes for president will be secretary of WSGA, and the candidate receiving the second highest number of votes for vice president will be junior senator.

WRA officers to be elected are president, vice president, secretary-treasurer, intramural chairman, and assistant intramural chairman.

Nominees will be interviewed and screened by the election board of the organization in which they seek office.

Besides presiding over WSGA Senate meetings, the president of WSGA is a member of All-College Cabinet. The vice president presides over the house of representatives.

Senior senator is chairman of the coed coordinating committee. The elected junior senator is in charge of all publicity for WSGA, and the other junior senator is chairman of the May Day Dance.

WRA Duties

Sophomore senator is chairman of freshman council and town senator is chairman of the Big-Little Sister Tea.

The president of WRA also serves on All-College Cabinet and the vice president is chairman of the social board. WRA secretary-treasurer is responsible for all correspondence and finances of the organization.

The intramural chairman organizes all coed competitive sports, and the assistant intramural chairman secures umpires and referees for all events.

April 15 Deadline Set For WAC Applications

April 15 is the deadline for qualified women college graduates and prospective 1952 graduates to file applications for commissions in the Women's Army Corps, according to the Pennsylvania military district headquarters.

Applications may be submitted through Col. Lucien E. Bolduc, professor of military science and tactics, or may be mailed to the WAC staff adviser, headquarters, Second Army, Fort Meade, Md.

FFA Chooses Soper President

The Future Farmers of America elected Joseph Soper president at a recent meeting.

Other officers elected were Lawrence Lindstrom, vice president; Thomas Inter, secretary; Floyd Rough, treasurer; Dominic Spezial, reporter, and Robert Hobbes, sentinel. Appointed to the Agriculture Student Council were Wesley Hare, Wilmer Wise, and Michael Babco. The organization also initiated seven new members.

3 Finalists Selected For Ball

Three finalists to vie for the queen of the Forestry Ball have been selected by Tony Vargas, artist now associated with True Magazine, from the 12 original entries.

The finalists are Ann Wylie, second semester Education student from Summit Hill, Suzanne Strom, second semester Home Economics student from Haverstown, and Shirley Cummings, Altoona.

The queen will be named Saturday night during the intermission of the Forestry Ball by a panel of four judges. The judging panel includes Victor A. Beede, head of the Department of Forestry, Russell B. Dickerson, assistant dean of the School of Agriculture, William L. Henning, professor of animal husbandry, and bandleader Bill LeRoy.

All profits from the annual semi-formal dance, sponsored by the Forestry Society, will go to the American Heart Society.

The dance committee has requested that no corsages be worn to the dance. Dancing is from 9 p.m. to midnight in Recreation Hall. Tickets are $2 per couple and can be purchased from any member of the Forestry Society or at the Student Union desk in Old Main.

Bill LeRoy and his "Band in Demand" will furnish the music, with Jimmy Glenn in the featured vocalist slot. LeRoy's orchestra comes from Pittsburgh.

Hammond Named Air Force Aide

Dr. Harry P. Hammond, former dean of the School of Engineering, has been appointed a special consultant of the Air University.

Hammond will assist the commandant of the U.S. Air Force Institute of Technology at Dayton, Ohio, for the next four months, where an analysis is being conducted of the Wright-Patterson Air Force Base to improve its operational effectiveness.

Lowenfeld Adds Material to Book

"Creative and Mental Growth," a book by Viktor Lowenfeld, professor of art education, has been published in an expanded edition by the MacMillan Co.

The new part of the book was originally planned as a separate volume, but has been incorporated into the previous publication.

The custom of wearing engagement and wedding rings on the third finger of the left hand originated in an ancient belief that a very delicate nerve runs directly from the finger to the heart.

Panhel Favors Mothers Day For Sing Date

Panhellenic Council last night unanimously voted to favor holding the IFC-Panhel sing on Mothers Day.

Scheduled for March 30, the sing was postponed because all possible judges will be attending a music festival in Philadelphia on that date, Marlene Heyman, co-chairman for the IFC-Panhel Ball, said.

Patricia Rowland, social chairman, announced the Panhel banquet will be held April 22 at the Eutaw House. This year's and next year's rush chairmen from each sorority may attend.

To Discuss Rushing

Agnas Barth was appointed Panhel scholastic chairman.

Marilyn Levitt, president, asked each representative to discuss rushing with her sorority. Revisions in the rushing code will be discussed at the next Panhel meeting on March 25. Miss Levitt also announced that nominations for Panhel officers will be held at the next meeting.

Mary Brewer, assistant to the Dean of Women, recommended that sororities cut more rushees before the parties. Marian Whiteley, Panhel rush chairman, recommended holding a Panhel tea before the next rushing period.

Miss Levitt reported Panhel has entered Stanley Wengert, Interfraternity Council president, in the Ugly Man contest.

Barry to Play For Press Ball

Don Barry and his orchestra will provide music for the first annual Press Ball to be held in the ballroom of the State College Hotel March 22.

Bettie Loux and Moylan Mills, co-chairmen for the dance, have announced that individual invitations will be issued to all journalism majors; members of Sigma Delta Chi, Alpha Delta Sigma, and Theta Sigma Phi, journalistic fraternities; and members of the junior and senior boards of the Daily Collegian, La Vie, and Froth.

The co-chairmen said that blanket invitations will be sent to editors of other campus publications, inviting them and their staffs to the affair.

Members of the committee planning the dance are Robert Fraser, Charles Coffman, Joanne Williams, William Prokoff, and Ernest Moore.

Hebrew Class to Meet

The one hour weekly beginners Hebrew class sponsored by the Hillel Foundation will meet at 7 tonight at the foundation. Students who were unable to attend the first session last week and who are interested, may join tonight.
