Charm Editor To Speak at Matrix Table

Mrs. Charlotte Adams, house-keeping editor of Charm magazine, will speak at the annual Matrix Table March 31 at the University Club.

Mrs. Adams has worked for PM, been food editor for the Associated Press and Look and Collier's magazines, and had a half-hour daily radio show on WQXR, the New York Times station. She has written two books, "The Run of the House" and "You'll Eat It Up."

Sponsored by Theta Sigma Phi, professional women's journalism fraternity, the dinner will honor outstanding coeds. Three senior women will receive the titles of Quill, Cap, and Matrix Girls.

All women are eligible to vote for the Quill Girl, who will be selected from the presidents of the Women's Student Government Association, the Women's Recreation Association, and Mortar Board. Last year Barbara Sprenkle, WSGA president, received the award.

Theta Sigma Phi selects a Cap Girl, who is the woman with the most varied activities, and a Matrix Girl, who has served the College without being a member of a hat society. Last year Gay Brunner was Cap Girl, and Sue Halperin was Matrix Girl.

5 O'clock Theater To Present 'Trina'

Five O'clock Theater will present "Trina," a one-act play by Lee Stern at 5 p.m. today in the Little Theater, basement of Old Main. The public is admitted free.

According to Stern, it is a "mood play" which will show the relationship between a cynical young newspaper reporter and a 13 year-old girl.

Helen Jaskol will direct the play, and alternate with John Pakkanen as director in following weeks. Frances Stridinger is technical director.

The cast includes Myron Cole, Seymour Rubinfeld, Leanne Golden, Frank Baxter, and Charles Gauntt.
