Pep Rally Sends Off Cagers Game Tomorrow

A crowd of about 500 in front turned out last night to give the Penn State basketball team an enthusiastic send-off for its NCAA clash with Kentucky tomorrow in Raleigh, North Carolina.

Raleigh, North Carolina.

Between songs and school yells led by cheerleaders, Clair George, vice president Hat Society Council, introduced short talks by Coach Elmer Gross and his traveling squad, Louis Bell, director of public information, and James Worth, All-College president.

Gross Lists Qualifications
Coach Gross, captain of the last Nittany team to play in an NCAA tournament in 1942, ran down the lineup of the Kentucky squad which he had "the misfortune to witness" last year while winning the NCAA tourney against Kansas State.

sas State.
Gross, listed the qualifications of each Kentucky player and remarked that Kentucky had lost only one man from the NCAA tourney team. Gross was quick to add that "he was glad" that one loss was saying factor Bill Spiyor. loss was seven-footer Bill Spivey. In addition to the team rundown, Gross reaffirmed what everyone knows, "Kentucky is very good."

Bell Commends Team

Emcee George then introduced
"the guys who are going to beat Kentucky": Co-captains Hardy
Williams and Lay Models In Williams and Jay McMahan, Jim Blocker, Joe Piorkowski, Jack Sherry, Ron Weidenhammer, Herm Sledzik, Jesse Arnelle and

AIM Elects Conference Delegates

The Association of Independent Men voted unanimously last night to send Frank Reese and Weston Tomlinson as delegates to the National Independent Student Association conference at the University of Oklahoma April 10 to 12.

AIM also voted to pay three-fourths of the expense of sending Mary Ann Kitzmiller, independent gueen to the conference Leonides.

queen, to the conference. Leonides will send two delegates and pay the remainder of Miss Kitzmiller's

Miss Kitzmiller was unanimously approved by AIM as its entry in the Spring Week "Miss Penn State" contest. AIM will also sponsor a Starlight dance during Spring Week.

With the unanimous consent of AIM, John Stoudt was appointed temporary treasurer to replace Bay Evert, who is student teach.

Ray Evert, who is student teaching.

The West Dorm Council will sponsor a dance with the music of Lynn Christy and his orchestra from 8 to 11 p.m. Friday in the main lounge. Records will be played from 11 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Appeal campaign being conducted refine the objections of the stuin State College, compares today's mass immigration into the State of Israel with the early pioneer settling of America's western frontier.

Included in the cast are Robert Landesman, Samuel Schnitzer, Cabinet and took no action on the Martin Rogoff, Ernest Schonberger, Joseph Markind, Miriam Bleiberg, and Jerrold Moss. The Fire, candles or tobacco was of Recreation Hall and "1500 in the McKee Hall peanut gallery" Kentucky is Very Good'

ELMER GROSS, Penn State basketball coach and captain of the last Nittany team to compete in an NCAA tourney, speaks to an enthusiastic gathering which turned out at Rec Hall last night to give the Lions a send-off for their opening round NCAA game with Kentucky tomorrow.

Ed Haag. Finally, Bell commended the "unheralded" Penn State team which began the season "not even seeded in Centre County" but which has turned out to be "one of the finest" Penn State has had. The Nittany cagers left State College at 8 this morning.

Nine students were fined beore Tribunal last night for violations of campus parking regula-tions. Two $3 fines, two $2 fines, and five $1 fines were issued.

The five $1 fines were sus-

The $2 and $3 fines were levied on men who had previous park-ing violation records and who cause of mistaken records when the group discovered he had been tried before for the same offense. Another student in the graduate school was reviewed by Tribunal for two parking violations and misuse of a parking permit. Because the group may only rule in undergraduate cases, the violation record will be turned over lation record will be turned over to the Campus Patrol for reference to the student's school dean.

Tribunal accepted the resignation of Richard Lemyre from the Course Rating The Chem-Phys Student Council decided last night to evaluate two courses as an experiment of the course evaluation proposal of Donald Furlong, chairman of the evaluation committees. evaluation committee.

The play, which is being presented in conjunction with the current United Jewish Student uation would be the best way to dents for presentation to the faculty of the school.

to vote for the proposed Ag judg-ing fee and Board of Publications ody issue of Froth, which will amendment before All-College be out April 1.

Eisenhower Supporters To Organize Tonight

An Americans for Eisenhower committee will be formed at 7 tonight in 202 Willard Hall.

Open to all students, undergraduates and graduates, interested in the group, the State Collage chapter is student-organized by Benjamin Sinclair, acting chairman.

The group is the first to be organized on campus to support a presidential candidate in the current campaign.

Ing violation records and who had previously appeared before Tribunal. One student had six parking violations reported to Tribunal by the Campus Patrol. One student was dismissed be-To Broadcast 'The Tunnel'

"The Tunnel," a psychological melodrama recognized as one of the best thrillers to be presented. by the British Broadcasting Corportion in recent years, will be presented by the Radio Guild at 7:45 tonight over WMAJ.

The guild is presenting the program as the third in a group of four shows on the "Thursday at Fight", series in readmitting of Eight" series in recognition of International Theater Month sponsored by the United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization (UNESCO).

Special permission to perform the play, which runs 45 minutes, was given the guild by BBC and the play's authors, Howard Agy and Mabel Constandurous. The

Price Program

The Hillel Hour, sponsored by the Hillel Foundation, will present "Pioneer-1952," a radio play written by Millard Lampell, at 7.30 tonight over WMAJ.

Evaluation committee.

The council will evaluate Chemistry 2 and 4, Bryson Craine, said. On the basis of the results of these evaluations, Craine said, further evaluations can be made, and the evaluations themselves will be judged.

A fear was expressed in the council's discussion of the proposal that the evaluation would be no more than a "Gallop Poll."

The cast includes Marion Whitely as the nurse; John Citron, the doctor; Mary Honess, the maid; Elizabeth Morgan, Myra; John Price, Dennis; Barbara Klopp, Alice; Patricia Hughes, the wait-ress; Anthony Kibelbek, the conductor; Norman Alpert, a doctor; Lael Meixsell, a minister; and Phyllis Brenckman, Thyrza. Jay Murphy will announce the proposal that the evaluation would be no more than a "Gallop Poll." The cast includes Marion White-

Staff Will Meet

Froth circulation staff will meet The council instructed Craine at 7 tonight in 3 Carnegie Hall to

All board members, candidates, and those interested in joining ger, Joseph Markind Miriam Bleiberg, and Jerrold Moss. The program is produced and directed by Lillian Cassover and Sheldon Vilensky.

Fire, candles or tobacco was according to Myron Enelow, circulation staff member. An additional the original capital building in colonial Williamsburg, Virginia.

Spring Week Group Sets Booster Meeting

The Spring Week committee will hold a booster meeting for presidents or the representatives of all campus organizatives of an campus organiza-tions, except fraternities and sororities, at 7:30 tonight in 418 Old Main, according to James Geffert, committee chairman.

James Schulte will be in charge of the meeting. There will be a later meeting held for fraternity and sorority presidents.

Students Plan Pan-American Day Festivities

Nine members of the over-al! committee for Pan-American Day voted yesterday to hold at least a small celebration to honor the a small celebration to honor the day even though it comes during Easter Vacation.

The meeting was called by William H. Gray, professor of history, and chairman of the student-faculty committee on international understanding.

Suggestions of programs in

Suggestions of programs included a movie at the Nittany theater, movies in Sparks, a Pan-American banquet, an open meeting of El Circulo Espanol, the Spanish Club, and display in the Chamber of Commerce window in town which already has been offered for use.

Virginia Opoczenski and Frank Follmer were elected co-chairmen. Richard Morman was appointed chairman of the display committee, and Richard Hauck was named chairman of the advertising committee. Miss Onc. vertising committee. Miss Opo-czenski will have a report on the estimated cost of the banquet at

Other meeting.
Other members are Charles
Brouse, Wayne Homan, Werner
Joseph, William Stockdale, and Joseph, Will Eliza Newell.

Clique Membership Chances Limited

Students who wish to become clique members of the State Party have only three more chan-ces to attend the two meetings necessary to gain clique membership, Thomas Farrell, clique chairman, announced yesterday.

The three meetings remaining are a workshop meeting at 7 to-

ROTC Men Assigned To Cruise

Commander Richard L. Billings, associate professor of Naval Science, yesterday announced the names of 72 regular Navy ROTC students who have been assigned to the annual summer European cruise for NROTC students.

They will sail on a light cruiser July 18 from Norfolk, Virginia and will return September 5, after stops at two ports in Europe and maneauvers in the Guantamo Bay area, Billings said.

The students on the cruise, Billings said, are those who will be senior and sophomore midship-men next fall.

men next fall.

The seniors are Otis Barnes, Clifford Bascom, David Bennett, Ralph Body, Harvey Bolan, Paul Bourdeau, John Carney, George Carter, Richard Clark, Edgar Cole, Richard Erb, Carl, Erickson, Richard Evans, Robert Gehman, Paul Harmeier, Lloyd Hartsough Jr., Andrew Harvey, Ernest Howard, Thomas Irving, Ronald Kinsey, Peter Lunde, James Martin, James MoNamara, Edward. Micheals, Frank Nikischer, Richard Rostmeyer, Harold Roush, Malcolm Skove, William Tabar, Robert Walsh, Michael West, Richard Wise, Richard Zimmerman.

The sopohomores are Joseph Barnett, Alfred Birk, Edward Birkenshaw Jr., Merle Brubaker, Richard Brubaker, Frederick Carothers, Robert Carr, David Carvey, Robert Conquest, Joseph Cooper Jr., Stanley Davis, John Else, William Exley, George Fitting, Thomas Fleming, Howard Hallett, Richard Haynes, George Jonovich, John Kaufman, Robert Kendra, Arthur Kessler, Marlin Klinger, Gene Laughlin, James Martin, Merice Nelles, Richard Niedbala, Fred Owlett, Robert Piper, John Shulick, Vincent Skrinak, Karl Smith, Robert Smott, Robert Solomon, Terry Stuver, William Thomas Jr., George Tice Jr., Mario Valentini, Anthony Venetti and Lewis Wade.

Future Teachers To Conduct Panel

The Future Teachers of America will conduct a panel of high school students on "The Kind of Teachers We Need in Our Public Schools" at 7:30 tonight in 1 and 2 Carnegie Hall.

The students will give their or pinions about the type of teach-opinions about the type of teach-opinions about the type of teachers they consider best.

High school students representing Altoona, Bellefonte, State College, and Tyrone have been invited to participate.
Rosalie Maiorana, a freshman at the College will be the moderator

The old Arabic name for Madrid night in Sparks, a party meeting was taken from a root word. Sunday night, and the final workshop meeting next Thursday. so say some scholars.

March 15th to 31st

Contact Prints Jumbo Prints

from the same negative:

1 Print for 5c 3 Prints for 13c 6 Prints for 29c

1 Prints for 6c 3 Prints for 15c 6 Prints for 29c .25 Prints for $1.25

25 Prints for $1.00

24-Hour Service

Centre County Film Lab

122 W. Beaver Avenue