

Lion and State Parties Will Select Candidates

The candidates for All-College, and senior and junior class officers will be selected by the Lion and State parties at clique meetings scheduled for 7 p.m., Sunday. The State group will meet in 119 Osmond, the Lion Party in 10 Sparks.

Students must have attended one previous party meeting in order to be eligible for admission to the Sunday meetings. This is a ruling of the All-College elections code.

PSCA Project Calls for 100 Sales Workers

Sales personnel for the Penn State Christian Association's College Sportswear project will still be recruited today and tomorrow, Doris Price, personnel chairman, said yesterday.

In all, approximately 100 people will be needed to work as clerks in the store during some of their free hours, Miss Price said.

The PSCA is taking over College Sportswear, Inc., corner of S. Allen street and E. Beaver avenue, next week to raise money for the PSCA treasury. Students volunteering their service will replace the regular sales personnel.

This is the second year PSCA has undertaken this project.

Students may volunteer their services by signing one of the lists in the TUB, Student Union, or PSCA office, 304 Old Main and indicating the hours during which they will be able to work.

A work schedule, showing the hours when volunteers will work, will be posted at the SU Sunday, Miss Price said. Schedules will also be placed in the PSCA office and at College Sportswear.

Reese Named To Group Office

Frank Reese was elected vice president of the Town Council last night. William Shifflet was elected secretary treasurer of the group.

Four men were elected to the AIM board of governors as representatives at large. They were Walter Supina, John Chappell, Howard Mason and Carl F. Wagner.

Thomas Taylor was appointed as social chairman of the council. Other committee appointments were publicity, Mason; publications, Robert Young; constitution, Mason.

The council allotted $10 to AIM for delegates to the National Independent Student Association convention at Oklahoma A&M April 10.

A temporary committee was appointed to study housing conditions pertaining to safety precautions. Reese was appointed chairman of the committee.

Player's Production Begins Fifth Weekend

"Hedda Gabler," Players' International Theater Month production, begins its fifth weekend at Center Stage, S. Allen street and Hamilton avenue, at 8 tonight.

Tickets for the Ibsen drama, which bares the motives and actions of a cold woman, are on sale at the Student Union desk in Old Main. They are 90 cents for tonight's and $1.25 for tomorrow night's performance.

Democrats Choose Six Organizers

Six co-ordinators for living districts were chosen by the Young Democrats Tuesday night at their first meeting.

Other co-ordinators and officers will be chosen at the next meeting which will be held before Easter, according to Joseph Stratos and Kenneth Doverspike, temporary chairmen.

The co-ordinators are David Kresge and John Moore, fraternities; Paul Hoffman and Lewis Shatz, Nittany-Pollock; and Norman Duffy and Ronald Spangler, West Dorms.

Stratos, said the major aims of the group, which is affiliated with state and national Young Democrats organizations, is to get students interested in politics.

The group plans to sponsor political rallies. Stratos said there was a possibility of having Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee as a speaker. The Young Democrats will join with townspeople in sponsoring Richardson Dilworth, Philadelphia district attorney, as speaker for a Jackson-Jefferson Day dinner early in May.

Princeton Man to Speak

Fred Keefe, a student at the Princeton Theological Seminary, will speak at 7:30 tonight in 405 Old Main at the meeting of the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship. His topic will be "The Gibraltar of the Christian Faith."

Although the Lion Party opened nominations for the same offices, no nominations were made.

The Lion group will also close nominations for sophomore and freshman class clique posts. Thomas Umholtz was the only nominee for the sophomore clique chairmanship, while Norman Levin was the sole nominee for the freshman clique chairman position.

Nominating speeches are also on the agenda for the State Party meeting.

League to Hold Music, Speech Contests Today

The district contests of the Pennsylvania Music and Forensic League, a statewide organization of high schools which sponsor contests in music and speaking, will be held today at the College.

Joseph F. O'Brien, professor of public speaking, is chairman of the advisory committee for the district speech contests. Harold J. O'Brien, speech instructor, and Edward Gilkey, graduate student in speech, are also members of the committee.

Judges for the speech division will be drawn from the men's debate squad, women's debate squad, classes in oral interpretation, and classes in radio. Headquarters for the speech contests will be 309 Sparks.

Woodwind Concert Postponed Until May

The Philadelphia Woodwind Quintet concert, sponsored by the State College Choral Society, and scheduled for Monday has been postponed, Mrs. E. C. Henry, concert chairman, announced yesterday.

The quintet will appear instead at 8 p.m. May 12 in the high school auditorium.

The grape was first used by the Egyptians, and then by the Lake Dwellers of the Bronze Age in Italy. It was first taken into China in 120 BC.

Vegetation Coated With Oil Spray To Kill Insects

A mixture of oil and water is being sprayed on the 5328 trees, 17,258 shrubs, 14,350 linear feet of hedges, and one and one-third acres of ground cover plants on the campus, according to Walter W. Trainer, supervisor of landscape construction and maintenance.

One part of a commercial oil is used to 25 parts of water in the spray, Trainer said. The liquid, when sprayed on trees and shrubs, serves the two-fold purpose of killing both insect eggs and dormant scale insects. The eggs and scales are destroyed by a burning caused by the acid-like residue left when the water evaporates.

The first annual state convention of the Future Business Leaders of America will be held Saturday at the College with representatives from 17 high school chapters expected to attend.

Registration for the delegates will be at 9 a.m. Saturday in 405 Old Main where the first general session will be held. F.B.L.A. state officers will be elected at this time.

Following the general session a luncheon will be held at 1 p.m. at the Allencrest Tearoom. The F.B.L.A. delegates will then be taken on a tour of the campus.

College to Host FBLA Group

The first annual state convention of the Future Business Leaders of America will be held Saturday at the College with representatives from 17 high school chapters expected to attend.

Registration for the delegates will be at 9 a.m. Saturday in 405 Old Main where the first general session will be held. F.B.L.A. state officers will be elected at this time.

Following the general session a luncheon will be held at 1 p.m. at the Allencrest Tearoom. The F.B.L.A. delegates will then be taken on a tour of the campus.

Chapel to Hear Prexy On 'Spiritual Security'

President Milton S. Eisenhower will speak on "Spiritual Security" in Chapel at 10:55 a.m. Sunday in Schwab Auditorium.

The service is a part of the Greek Week program, and will be attended by groups of fraternity men and sorority women.

Stanley Wengert, president of Interfraternity Council, will read the Old Testament lesson for the service.

The Chapel choir, under the direction of Mrs. Willa Taylor, will sing "Herzliebster Jesu" (Cruger); "O Heart Subdued with Grieving" (Brahms), and "Cast Thy Burden Upon the Lord" (Mendelssohn).

Organ music by George Ceiga will include "Hear, Oh God the Holy Ghost" (Bach) as prelude, "In Peace and Joy I Now Depart" (Bach) as offertory, and "We All Believe in One God, The Creator" (Bach) as postlude.

United Jewish Appeal Collection Totals $2600

Approximately $2600 in pledges and cash has been received to date by the United Jewish Appeal fund, Sara Bassel, co-chairman, said yesterday.

Miss Bassel said money may be turned into captains or at the Hill-ell Foundation any time. The goal on campus this year is $4200.

CLASS OF '52 WELL-PAID JOBS FOR ENGINEERS AT LINK AVIATION!

Engineering majors - there's a fine career for you at LINK AVIATION. Excellent wages, liberal health and life insurance coverage, bonus and vacation plans. Moderately priced on-the-job meals, attractive homes and new apartments within minutes of the LINK plant.

Mr. Robert Coyner of Link Aviation will be on your campus on APRIL 8th

LINK AVIATION BINGHAMTON, N. Y.

Two ROTC Cadets Visit West Point

Raymond Johnson and Edward Hartnett, senior Army ROTC cadets at the College, left last night for West Point N.Y. where they will represent Penn State in a special program which is part of the 150th anniversary of West Point.

The two will join 112 other ROTC students from other colleges and universities in the United States, and will live as cadets in cadet barracks while at West Point. Each ROTC student will have a cadet as an escort. The escorts will take their guests to classes and meals.

This is one of several visits which will be made by over 400 ROTC students to the academy on various weekends. The program is designed to promote mutual understanding of civilian and regular officer training programs in coordination with the anniversary observance.

Johnson, a cadet lieutenant colonel, and Hartnett, cadet colonel and student regiment commander, were chosen by President Milton S. Eisenhower and Colonel Lucien E. Bolduc, professor of Military Science and Tactics.

Johnson was recently named as the outstanding Army ROTC cadet student in the United States to be recommended for a regular U.S. Army commission.

Twelve Named To Community Concert Group

Twelve new members, representing the College faculty, staff and the community, have been elected to the Board of Directors of the State College Community Concert Association.

The regulations adopted by the present Board of Directors specify that six directors will be chosen each year for a two-year term. Six of the 12 chosen this year, however, will serve for one year. They will all take office May 1.

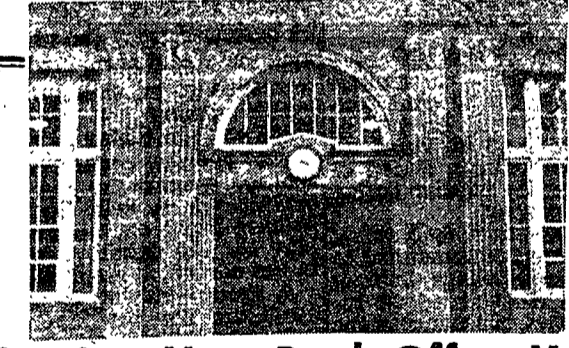

Those elected for two-year terms are Leland Rhodes, Hummel Fishburn, Dr. Frederick Matson, Mrs. Willa Taylor, Mrs. J. C. Hess, and Mrs. Lyman Jackson. The new directors for one-year terms are Dr. Henry Brunner, Dean of Women Pearl O. Weston, Dr. Henry Yeagley, Dr. Robert Weber, Mrs. Elizabeth Reynolds, and Mrs. E. S. Roscoe.

Dr. Matson was re-elected as president of the association, while Rhodes was named vice president. Other elected officers are Wilmer Kenworthy, secretary; George Donovan, treasurer; and Woodrow Bierly, publicity director.

Chapel Speaker

Milton S. Eisenhower

Services Your Bank Offers You

- Checking accounts
- Savings accounts
- Safe deposit vault
- Trust department

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

State College - Pennsylvania

BRIGHTER SHINES 1/2 THE RUBBING WITH KIWI SHOE POLISH

MARINES PREFER KIWI 38 to 1

Covers Scuff Marks! Gives Shoes Richer Color!

KIWI Shoe Polish

BLACK - TAN - BROWN - BLUE - DARK TAN - MID-TAN - OXBLOOD - MAHOGANY - CORDOVAN - NEUTRAL

Ask any Serviceman