No matter how clever they appear, trayel irons are effective only in keeping one inside working when one would prefer to be outside playing. Many of the smartest fashions for spring and summer need no ironing after washing. The trend toward styles of this type promises to make the traveling iron as extinct as the washboard.

Daisy Mae's Charms Overcome Li'l Abner

By CHUCK OBERTANCE

Li'l Abner got married.

This came as surprising and shocking news to millions of comicstrip readers. The 'ideel' American youth married.

If you have ever followed the adventures of this hulking youth through the somewhat satirical comic-strip by Al Capp, you know of his many close shaves in the past with matrimony. With the words of "I do" on his lips, Li'l Abner was always saved by some sudden change in circumstance or twist of fate.

But all this is ended now; Daisy
Mae Scragg is the new bride.
After pursuing Capp's hero since the strip began 18 years ago, she finally reached her goal, Mrs. Li'l
