Advanced ROTC Applications Due

Today is the deadline for advanced Army ROTC applications, Col. Lucien E. Bolduc, professor of military science and tactics, announced.

To qualify for advanced ROTC, a student must have a 1.00 All-College average and a 2.00 average in military science, although exceptions will be made in certain cases, Bolduc said. After application, all candidates will be screened, he said.

2 Naval ROTC Men Honored

Two Naval ROTC students have received honorable mention for the scores they shot in the William Randolph Hearst Navy ROTC rifle team competition held at the College.

Nelson Brevard and Harold DuBois both were awarded for shooting a score of 190 in the competition, Captain Oscar J. Morel, team coach, announced yesterday. Only 20 riflemen out of 470 contestants shot 190 or better in the competition, Morel said. Two hundred was top score.

Both of the midshipmen have also received letters of commendation from Captain John L. Woodbury, professor of naval science, for their work with the rifle, Morel said.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 38...THE WOLF

Sharp character on campus — he's not easily duped by deceptive devices! From the onset of the tricky cigarette tests, he knew there was one true test of mildness. Millions of smokers throughout America have learned, too!

It's the sensible test . . . the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke, on a pack-after-pack, day-after-day basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camels in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why...

After all the Mildness Tests . . .
