

Miss Penn State Entries Extended

The deadline for entries in the Miss Penn State contest has been extended from 12 noon Saturday until 12 noon Tuesday, James Geffert, chairman of the Spring Week committee, announced yesterday.

Final 'Hedda' Shows

Henrik Ibsen's 'Hedda Gabler' will go into its final weekend at Center Stage tonight. Tickets may be purchased at the Student Union desk in Old Main. They are 90 cents for tonight and $1.25 for tomorrow night.

Wylie Chosen Dairy Queen For 1952 Show

Anne Wylie was chosen Dairy Queen last night by members of the Dairy Science Club and will reign at the Dairy Exposition to be held at the College May 10. Miss Wylie, sponsored by Alpha Zeta, was one of three finalists in the contest. Other finalists were Ann Chandler, sponsored by Delta Delta Delta, and Edna Grabiak, sponsored by the Block and Bridle club.

The brown-eyed brunette is a freshman in secondary education. This is her second beauty title. She was crowned Snow Queen at an annual Snow Dance held in Summit Hill last December. Her main interests are music, dancing, and swimming.

Miss Wylie will be crowned at the dairy show by Charles Brosious, manager of the show. She will present the prizes at the show and will reign at a banquet that evening.

3 Teams Win WRA Bridge

Alpha Epsilon Phi was the winning team on the east-west side in WRA bridge and Leonides and Chi Omega tied for first place on the north-south side.

All three teams emerged with 31 points. Joan New and Judy Dessen were representatives of Alpha Epsilon Phi. Alison Morley and Clara Thiesson played on the Leonides team and Carol Warner and Mary Elliot represented Chi Omega.

Robert Baer, president of the Penn State bridge club, supervised the playing. Duplicate hands were used for the second week.

Scores do not actually mean anything when these hands are used, Baer explained. They are merely comparative since all the teams are playing the same hands. The hands are a test of skill rather than luck.

Kalson Elected President Of Journalism Honorary

New officers of Theta Sigma Phi, women's professional journalism fraternity, are Phyllis Kalson, president; Julia Ibbotson, vice president; Joanne Williams, recording secretary; Alison Morley, corresponding secretary; LaVonne Althouse, treasurer; Constance Matlavage, matrix milestone chairman; and Rita Armenis, keeper of the archives.

The TAVERN
MENU
Friday, April 4
FRENCH FRIED SHRIMP AND SCALLOPS
LOBSTER TAIL
SWISS STEAK
PRIME STEAKS
DINNER 5 - 7:30 p.m.
Reservations after 6:30

Band Day Tickets Available

Tickets for the fifth annual Pennsylvania Collegiate Band Festival to be held April 19 in Recreation Hall are now on sale at the Student Union desk in Old Main. The tickets are $1 apiece.

Twenty-three members of the Penn State Blue Band will be among the 123 students from 23 colleges who will participate in the festival. A four-man board of collegiate band directors selected the participants from entries submitted by each college. Experience, type of instrument, and ability rating given by each college band director were used as the basis for selection.

James W. Dunlop, associate professor of music education, will act as host for this year's festival. Dunlop, a member of the Pennsylvania College Band Masters Association, which sponsors the festival, was secretary-treasurer of the association two years ago.

Registration for the festival will be from 4 to 7:30 p.m. April 17 in the first floor lobby of Carnegie Hall. The first rehearsal will follow that night. Additional rehearsals are scheduled for Friday and Saturday, preceding the concert Saturday night.

The first Intercollegiate Band Festival was held in 1948 at Lock Haven State Teachers' College. Since that time the festivals have been at Indiana State Teachers' College, Carnegie Institute of Technology, and Lehigh University.

Kennard Resigns To Do Research

William C. Kennard, instructor in pomology, has resigned from the staff of the College to accept a position as horticulturist for the United States Department of Agriculture at the federal experiment station at Mayaguez, Puerto Rico.

Kennard received his master's degree at the College in 1948 and has been on the staff since that time.

He will leave early in April to assume his new duties which include research in tropical and sub-tropical plants.

Eads to Address Lutheran Meeting

The Rev. Robert H. Eads will talk on the philosophy and teachings of Roger Williams in the last of a series of great religious philosophers at 8:15 tonight at the Lutheran Student Association, 412 W. College avenue.

The Rev. Eads is minister to the local University Baptist Church.

After the discussion, Lutheran students will prepare food for their cabin party at Watts Lodge.

Weekending With the Greeks

Want to go to Greenwich Village? Or maybe you would like to go back to the days of the Buccaneers. Still another possibility would be a jaunt to a cute cafe.

Three fraternities will be decorated tonight to set moods to suit such a variety of tastes.

Scenes in the Village will be depicted at the Alpha Epsilon Pi party. Jack Jenkins and his orchestra will supply the music.

Cafe tables and the music of Freddy Evans will add atmosphere to the Pi Lambda Phi semi-formal dance.

A pirate ship will anchor at the Phi Sigma Delta house. All hearty souls may attend the open affair.

4 Ex-Students Now in Army

Four former Penn State students are now serving with the armed forces.

Cpl. Frederick E. Holly, a former Daily Collegian sports writer, is now an assistant to the battalion historian of the 321st Signal Battalion in Germany.

Pvt. George B. Hafer of Easton has completed processing at Fort Meade, Maryland. He has been assigned to the Third Armored Division at Fort Knox for basic training.

Pvt. James W. Rooney is participating in Exercise Long Horn in Texas, the largest maneuver to be held in the United States since World War II.

Pvt. Gene S. Weeber, 25, former student from Berks Co., Pa., has completed processing at the 2053d Reception Center at Fort Meade, Md., and is assigned to the 5th Infantry Division, Indian-town Gap Military Reservation for Army basic training.

Lt. Cmdr. Bigelow To Leave Active Duty

Lt. Cmdr. Richard L. Bigelow, USNR, assistant professor of naval science, will be released from active duty in June, the Department of Naval Science has announced.

Bigelow, the only reserve officer on the staff at the present time, will return to his law practice in Hazelton.

You can't wear a diploma around your neck, but you can wear a CLASS RING
Balfour's at the 'A' Store

Elections For PSCA Start Today

Voting in the Penn State Christian Association elections begins today and will continue until Tuesday.

Jane Ifft and Allen Marshall are vying for the presidency of the organization. Only members of the PSCA are eligible to vote and must present their membership cards to do so. Voting takes place in PSCA headquarters between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. today, Monday and Tuesday, and between 9 a.m. and 12 noon tomorrow.

Nominees for the vice presidency are Robert James and Robert Keener; for secretary, Patricia Jones and Elizabeth Bortz; and for treasurer, Charles Douds, Richard Smith, and Warren Hommas.

Committee chairman nominees are LaVonne Althouse and Shirley Pritchard, program; David Howell and Merritt Dinnage, finance; Kirk Garber, Ruth Freed, and Joyce Gardiner, membership; Nancy Barth, LaVerne Applegate, and David Bain, new students, and Elizabeth Byrum and Dorothy Osterhout, public relations.

Members of the board of directors will be selected on a separate ballot. Five will be chosen for three-year terms and four for one-year terms. Three local ministers will be elected to board membership and two students will be chosen to represent student interests.

Mineral Ec Group Will Hear Schanz

John J. Schanz, instructor of mineral economics, will speak at a discussion on economics of petroleum marketing at 4 p.m. today in 213 Mineral Sciences building.

The discussion is the 10th in a series sponsored by the mineral economics division of the School of Mineral Industries as part of its spring seminar. The basic topic of the seminar is "Petroleum and Related Technologies."

Both faculty and students of all divisions of the school are invited to attend the discussion.

New!
Superior!
Glamorous!
Helena Rubinstein's
Silk-Film
make-up foundation
blended with real silk!

SILK-FILM... the fabulous new silk-in-cream foundation that's make-up news! Gives your skin the look of silk! The feel of silk! No coarseness to cake... it smooths on more quickly... evenly... easily! Lighter feeling, too. Marvel at the magnetic way powder clings hours longer. In brilliantly designed palm fitting disc to carry in your purse. 1.25 plus tax

In six skin-glorifying shades.

McLanahan's

Treat Your Folks

At Home

with
Easter Candies
from

Goss

Eggs Named Free

We Mail Candy Any Where

Goss Candy Shop 143 South Allen Street