

Church Groups Plan Easter Celebrations

Special Easter programs will be presented by four student religious organizations—Lutheran Student Association, Wesley Foundation, Interchurch Fellowship, and Westminster Foundation—tomorrow and Monday.

The Lutheran Student Association will present scenes from the play "Family Portrait" at 6:45 p.m. tomorrow in the Little Theater. The student choir, featuring Robert Diefenderfer, baritone soloist, will sing.

Holy Communion at 6:30 a.m. Monday in the Grace Lutheran Church, followed by breakfast at the Lutheran Student Center, will close the Easter activities.

To Have Easter Dinner

The play, part of a traditional Palm Sunday program sponsored by LSA, is under the direction of Ruth Devlin, a graduate student in dramatics and speech, and James Broad. Included in the cast are Arlen Borgeson, Mary Kozelnicky, Eleanor Swartz, George Kurtz, Richard Haynes, and Roger Staub.

Wesley Foundation's Easter observances this weekend include a Palm Sunday worship service at 9:30 a.m. followed by the three regular classes. An Easter dinner will be served at 5:15 p.m. tomorrow followed by a special candlelight worship service at 6:30 p.m. Jane Montgomery, Mary Pielmeier, William Valentine, Charles Gauntt, and Charles Manwiller will participate in the service, which has dedication as its theme.

This afternoon students will go to the Woodcrest playground to complete the cleaning and painting begun there last week as a Wesley project.

To Serve Breakfast

Interchurch Student Fellowship will sponsor the annual Palm Sunday sunrise service at 7 a.m. in front of Old Main. The service will be conducted with the participants standing on the steps of Old Main facing Mount Nittany. Special musical selections will be given by members of ICSE, and devotions will be led by the officers.

Westminster Foundation will have a breakfast at 8 a.m. tomorrow following the ICSE sunrise service. The foundation's student department service will be held at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow. The Westminster Fellowship will have a special Palm Sunday service at 6:30 p.m.

dorsed any anti-Semitic views Close may hold. Clayton Schug, committee chairman, could not be reached yesterday for comment on the Hillel action.

The Hillel statement lauded the forum series generally as having rendered "substantial" service, but said, "We, as representatives of the Jewish student body of Penn State and the Jewish community of State College, wish to state publicly that we disassociate ourselves from the Community Forum sponsorship of Upton Close."

The Hillel representative was one of the three committee members voting against retaining him at the reconsideration meeting. Thirteen were present at that meeting.

The speaker has been charged with anti-Semitism by B'nai B'rith and other groups. He has been removed from the air at least three times, according to The New York Times and "A Measure of Freedom," 1950 Anti-Defamation League report. NBC dropped him in 1944, with the statement that a "balanced presentation of news is the obligation and responsibility of the network." WIBG in Philadelphia, dropped him in 1946, and the Mutual Broadcasting System in 1948.

Close had charged government interference in the NBC dismissal, but a Federal Communications Commission statement to the Daily Collegian said, "The termination of Mr. Close's broadcasts was not the result of any action or rulings by this commission . . . The commission has no power to direct a station to carry or to refrain from carrying any particular program, or to prescribe the content of any program."

The ADL report charges that "whenever possible (Close) incorporates thinly veiled attacks against Jews, seldom missing an opportunity to inject a defamatory innuendo or a phrase calculated to reflect unfavorably upon 'minority groups.'"

An ADL analysis of Close's "Close-Ups" newspaper column states that he "reiterates the racist theory of communism being primarily a 'racial' movement aiming at 'dictatorship by racial minorities.' These minorities are defined as 'the old New Deal Zionist-Communist crowd.'" cloudy. Tonight students will be attending fraternity house parties and open houses. Fraternities will be featuring everything from French apaches to the western cowboys.

Commenting on Close's repeated denials of anti-Semitism, ADL calls him "the kind of bigot who always finds it necessary to deny his anti-Semitism."

Dramatic performances today include the third and fourth showings of "A Connecticut Yankee," and the final showing of "Hedda Gabler." Curtain time for the Thespians' "Yankee" will be at 2 p.m. and at 7:30 tonight in Schwab Auditorium. The Players' "Hedda" will get underway at 8 tonight at Center Stage. A limited number of tickets for all these performances are still available at the Student Union desk in Old Main.

Tonight's fraternity parties and open houses will officially close Greek Week activities. Greek Week was arranged by the IFC and Panhel to improve Greek-community relations.

Objective tests—true, false and such—
They really make me squirm;
But one thing's true—those Lucky Strikes
Are fully packed and firm!
