

Campaigns Start Next Thursday

Political campaigns for the All-College and senior and junior class elections will begin next Thursday, party leaders said yesterday. Both parties plan to have their candidates visit dormitory dining halls, living units, and fraternities during the 5-day campaign period.

The Lion Party has scheduled candidate appearances in the women's dining halls during the Saturday supper and Sunday dinner meals. The men's dorms will be visited every evening from Thursday through Monday, except Saturday. The Lion candidates will also visit the fraternities at the noon meals and during the evening until the campaign ends.

The State Party will send its candidates to various dining halls at the noon meal Thursday, with additional visits to the living units that evening. Further campaign stops were not announced.

Lion Party Candidates
In addition to the regular campaign appearances the State Party has also scheduled a mixer for Saturday, April 19. The mixer, which will be open to all students, will be held from 8 p.m. to 12 midnight at Chi Phi.

Lion candidates in the elections are Joseph Arnold, All-College president; Joan Lee, All-College vice president; Richard Rostmeyer, All-College secretary treasurer; Franklin Kelly, senior class president; Joseph Haines, senior vice president; Peggy Mayberry, senior secretary treasurer; Theodore Edmunds, junior class president; Robert Carruthers, junior vice president; and Peggy Crooks, junior secretary treasurer.

State Party
State candidates for All-College offices are John Laubach, president; James Plyler, vice president; and William Griffith, secretary treasurer. Theodore Kimmel, William O'Malley, and Margaret Hepler are the candidates for senior class president, vice president, and secretary treasurer, respectively. Richard Lemyre, Gail Shaver, and Ann Quigley are the candidates for junior class president, vice president, and secretary treasurer, respectively.

Ag Engineers To Hold Annual Spring Meeting

The Pennsylvania section of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers will hold its annual spring meeting on Thursday and Friday at the College.

Members of the College agricultural engineering staff, along with experiment station workers from other departments, will present detailed reports on College experimental projects.

Albert S. Mowery, assistant professor of agricultural engineering, is chairman of local arrangements.

A series of talks on irrigation and on pasture renovation and management will be given. Speakers will include Edward A. Silver, of the New Holland machine division of the Sperry Corporation; R. J. Hamilton, of the Hamilton Equipment Company, E. W. Newlin, of the Pennsylvania Farm Bureau Cooperative Association; and Dr. Kenneth Hood, extension agricultural economist.

A tour of the new dairy barns, now being built, and of the experimental poultry house will be included.

4 Debaters To Compete In Virginia

Four members of the women's debate squad will leave today for the Grand National Debate and Forensic Tournament at Mary Washington College in Fredericksburg, Va. The tournament will continue until Saturday.

The women's affirmative team is Mary Jane Kelley and Agnes Porter, with Marian Ungar and Greta Weaver presenting the negative. Miss Ungar and Miss Weaver both attended the tournament last year. Miss Weaver, debating with graduate Lois Pulver, placed second in the Big Ten in debate competition.

The women will also enter 12 forensic contests. Miss Kelley will enter after-dinner speaking and incommium. Miss Porter will compete in situation oratory, response, impromptu speaking, and poetry reading. Miss Weaver will participate in extemporaneous speaking, dramatic reading, and poetry reading contests, while Miss Ungar will be entered in oratory, address reading, and declamation.

Miss Weaver was in the finals last year in dramatic reading, while Miss Ungar will be defending the address and declamation titles which she won last year. She placed second in oratory last year.

Honors Day Set For April 28

Five Distinguished Alumni Awards and several College scholastic awards will be presented at the second annual Honors Day program April 28 in Schwab Auditorium.

All-College officers for next year will be inaugurated at that time.

Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, president of the College, will preside at the program, which is open to the public.

Alumni who will receive awards are George H. Deike and Lewis E. Young, Pittsburgh; John J. Forbes, Washington, D.C.; Miles I. Killmer, New York City; and John M. Spangler, McConnellsburg.

The heaviest snowfall in the history of New York City buried the city with 25.8 inches of snow on Dec. 26-27, 1947.

Easter Vacation Starts Tomorrow at Noon

Classes will be suspended for the spring recess at 12 noon on Wednesday, April 9, and will reopen at 1:10 p.m. April 16.

The Fred Lewis Pattee Library will observe the following Easter holiday schedule: Wednesday, April 9, 7:50 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Thursday through Saturday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Sunday, closed; Monday and Tuesday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; and Wednesday, April 16, 9 a.m. to 10 p.m.

LA Council Nominates Quigley for 'Miss State'

A motion that Ann Quigley, fourth semester student, be named as the Liberal Arts student council's candidate for Miss Penn State was approved last night by the council.

No other business was carried out due to the lack of a quorum.

Room Drawing Dates Named

Women may draw numbers to pick rooms for the fall semester from 8 a.m. to noon and from 1:30 to 5 p.m. April 21 in the Dean of Women's office, according to Mrs. Cordelia L. Hibbs, assistant to the Dean of Women. Coeds who will remain in the rooms they now occupy or who will be living in a sorority suite will not have to draw numbers.

Selection of rooms will begin April 22 in the Dean of Women's office. Women may choose rooms in the order of their semester and then according to the number they draw. Seventh-semester women will be given first choice.

Roommates of the same semester standing may use the lower number. Roommates of different semester standing must use the number of the coed of the lower semester.

I am Industry-1952

Ushered into a new world,
I had a bustling, brawling, bruising youth.
I was a potential giant awakening in a world of giants.
People were hurt when I first stirred in life;
Then I grew and learned;
Then I matured and knew that
Though I work with water and metal and chemicals and fire,
I am more than these things.
I am the people's work!
I am the people's dream!
I am the people!

With maturity, I have grown, too, in social responsibility.
To the people,
To America!
And even to those beyond our shores.
My efforts are not in selfish interest;
Rather, all my brain and brawn strives for the good of the many.
I am the American way!

Now, I have sworn that these things shall be:
I shall deliver ever-better products to those who use my fruits!
I shall offer equal opportunity to those who work at my side
Whatever their race!
Whatever their creed!
Whatever their color!
Whatever their national origin!
I shall forever do my part to keep America great!

And why?
Because only in this way can I remain a healthy force in our free world.
For when I am healthy, America prospers.
And tyrants tremble before my might.

I am America's life-blood!
I am America's strength!
I am the bulwark of the World's freedom!
