

Marino, Maurey Take 2ds in Tourneys

Sammy Marino, Eastern boxing champion lost to an old NCAA nemesis and Jerry Maurey, Eastern wrestling runnerup, was defeated by the NAAU's outstanding wrestler as both Penn State stars had their efforts for national titles thwarted over the weekend.

Slugging Sam, captain-elect of the 1952 boxers, dropped a decision to Frank Echavarría, Idaho, in the finals of the 119 pound class and had to settle for a second place in the NCAA championship tourney held in Madison, Wis., Saturday night.

The Idaho boxer, 10-0-1 on the season, was Sammy's downfall in the 125 pound class in the nationals last year.

Maurey Finishes 2d

Wisconsin, with heavyweight Bob Ranck and welterweight Bob Morgan leading the way, snared the team title. Morgan eliminated State's other entry, EIBA champion John Albarano.

Sophomore Jerry Maurey, who finished the season with a 5-0 record, was decided in his opening round match by Joe Henson, Armed Forces, and although he pinned three straight grapplers and decided two more following his defeat, he had to settle for runnerup honors in the NAAU meet in Ithaca, N.Y.

Clark Wins Title

Henson, 136.5 pounder selected as the meet's best, is a former Naval Academy captain where he was under present Olympic Coach Ray Swartz.

It was the second loss of Jerry's life, he having previously been beaten by three-time EIWA champ George Feuerbach who finished fourth Saturday in the NAAU.

Dick Clark, the Cornellian who snapped Homer Barr's 20-match win streak last year, won the unlimited class title.

Cindermen Run First Time Trials

Amid ideal fall football weather, Penn State's outdoor track team was given its first time trial session on the Beaver Field oval yesterday afternoon.

In the 120 yard high hurdles, Ron Younkens posted the fastest clocking (15.6) of the two heats. Fred Singer finished a close second, with John Milsom third.

Veteran Bill Polito paced the contestants in the 100 yard dash with a 10.3 timing. Skip Slocum and Captain John Lauer finished second and third, respectively.

With 11 men racing in the mile, Jim Blood lead at the end of the first lap, running a 62 flat. On the second and third laps, Jack Horner and Bob Gehman exchanged leads, only to have frosh Lamont Smith spurt ahead in the final lap to win the event with a 4:37 timing. About five yards behind Smithy were Horner, Gehman, and Blood in that order, respectively.

Lacrossemen Open At Navy Thursday

Penn State will seek revenge for two of its three lacrosse defeats last year when it travels to Loyola of Baltimore Thursday and Navy Saturday.

Coach Nick Thiel's men last year lost to Loyola, 14-12, here and dropped a 10-1 decision to Navy at Annapolis.

Of the two teams, State will probably have more trouble with the Middies even though Navy has lost honorable mention All-Americans Bill Earl, Charlie McDonough, and Larry Treadwell. Earl was a midfielder while McDonough and Treadwell were attackmen.

Four Wrestlers Enter Olympic Mat Trials

Four members of Penn State's EIWA championship mat squad will compete in the Olympic trials Friday and Saturday at Amityville, Long Island. First and second place winners will earn a shot at the final Olympic tryouts in Ames, Ia., April 18 and 19.

The Lions who will be bidding to represent the United States in Helsinki this summer are NCAA and EIWA champ Joe Lemyre at 174.5; EIWA champ Dick Lemyre at 125.5; Jerry Maurey at 136.5; and Doug Frey, 147.5.

Krumrine to Pitch Opener

Coach Joe Bedenk yesterday named Jack Krumrine as his starting pitcher for the baseball team's opening game with American University Friday at Washington. Krumrine, a tall right-hand junior hurler, received the call over Bill Everson and Keith Vesling, who will twirl in Saturday's doubleheader with Georgetown.

The Lions' infield will be strong with Huber Kline at third base, Carmen Troisi at shortstop, Bill Mihalich at second, and freshman Mike Hunchar at first base. Hunchar won the first base position after a stiff battle with Alex Shalkey.

Chris Tonery will open in left field for State with Sil Cerchie
