

Primrose To Perform In Schwab

William Primrose, viola player engaged by the Community Concert series, will perform at 8:30 p.m. April 16 at the fourth and final program in Schwab Auditorium.

He is appearing here during the course of his first American tour in over a year and a half since his last European tour.

Born in Glasgow, Scotland, Primrose made his first public appearance at the age of ten with the violin, not the viola, in the Mendelssohn violin concerto. Landon Ronald, principal of the Guildhall School of Music, heard Primrose perform at the age of 16, and was sufficiently impressed to arrange for the young violinist's musical education at that school. He made his London debut in 1923 playing with the Royal Albert Hall Orchestra.

Men Raid --

The explosion could be heard as far from campus as Prospect and Hamilton avenues. Fire crackers and bombs thrown from windows and from the upper level of the courtyard exploded in the midst of the milling, chanting students.
