

Final Exam Schedule-See Pages 7, 8

VOL. 52, No. 125

Student Government Politicos Clinic Begins Today

More than 100 students from 25 Pennsylvania colleges are expected to attend the second annual student government clinic sponsored by the National Student Association, to be held today through Sunday at the College, according to Arthur Rosfeld, director.

Delegates will'meet informally at 8 tonight at the Hugh Bever Delegates will'meet informally at 8 tonight at the Hugh Bever room in Old Main and will attend the Association of Independent Reviewing Platform

Men's starlight dance tonight.

The 12 Penn State delegates for the second annual clinic in-clude State party All-College can-didates John Laubach, president; James Plyler, vice president; Wil-liam Griffith, secretary treasurer; and Lion party All-College can-didates Joseph Arnold, president; JoAn Lee, vice president; and Bichard Bostmeyer, secretary The 12 Penn State delegates Richard Rostmeyer, secretary treasurer.

Theodore Kimmel and Richard Lemyre, State party candidates begin reopening the cases of all for senior and junior class presi-youths with educational deferdencies; Franklin Kelly and Theodore Edmunds, Lion party candi-dates for senior and junior class presidencies; Donald Herbein, sopohomore class president; and Robert Smoot, freshman class president, also will represent the president, also will represent the College.

fraternity houses for the three-

present at the clinic. Immediately gory. following the specialists meeting (Continued on page two)

Third Pivot To Be Sold In May

will be published early in May, according to Ruth Abt, secretary treasurer. All contributions for the spring issue will be considered on Sunday night by the staff and Prof. Joseph Grucci, adviser of the publication.

The winner of the Fred Lewis Pattee award of $25 for the best poem or group of poems appear-ing either in the fall issue or in the coming issue will be announced in the May Pivot. Patricia Chandler was elected as editor-in-chief for the coming issue of Pivot. Margot Grossman and Sally Johnson are associate editors, and Helen Jaskol, Bar-bara Silberman, and Yvonne Car-ter are assistant editors. The new business manager is Renee Kluger.

Determents

Local draft boards soon must ments.

Under the draft law, local boards can grant deferments for Visiting women delegates will only one year, with certain ex-stay in the women's dormitories ceptions for high school students. and the men will be housed in Regulations specifically require Regulations specifically require the reopening of cases at the end of the academic year for all youths day regional sessions. A specialists meeting will be granted educational deferments to held tomorrow night for all of the student government officers there were 209,810 in that cate-

A college student not previously granted an educational deferment is entitled to one, upon his re-quest, to finish an academic year, provided he màintains satisfactory class standing. There were 17,287 such defer-ments when the last available totals were compiled, Feb. 29.

Bloodmobile Pivot, campus poetry magazine, To Return On April 30

The Red Cross Bloodmobile, to be sent from the Johnstown regional center, will return to State College on April 30, Theodore Allen. Red Cross representative, announced yesterday.

The goal of the drive has been set at 200 student contributors to time

Pledge forms are now available in preparation for the concert. from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily at the College Placement Service office in 112 Old Main. Students under sical and contemporary music. 21 years of age must have a "Concert in Jazz" (Phillips) will minor's release form signed by their parents. Dr. F. M. Hawk. Chief of Education and Promotion of the Red fessor of music education, is act-Cross Blood Program, opened the ing as host for the festival. Dun-

Dormitory

Collegian

PICTURED above, left to right, are Lion Party candidates, Franklin Kelly, Richard Rostmeyer, Joan Lee, Joseph Arnold, and Joseph Haines looking over their party platform. Shortly after-wards the group went campaigning in the West Dorm area.

Tickets for the concert of the fifth annual Collegiate Band Festival this weekend are now available at the Student Union desk in Old Main or from members of the Blue Band. The tickets are priced at $1.

The concert, which will be presented at 8 p.m. tomorrow, will mark the end of the three-day festival at the College. One hun-dred and twenty-three men and Students Need women from 23 colleges were selected to participate in the festi-val which began with registration yesterday afternoon in Carnegie Hall.

Caps, Gowns Rehearsals began last night under the direction of guest con-ductor Dr. William D. Revelli, follow up the fine response of professor of wind instruments last fall, Allen said. More than and director of bands at the Uni-650 pints were donated at that versity of Michigan. The group

The program for the concert will include 11 selections of clas-

Visits Lion, State Candidates Will Speak

Continue

All Lion Party male candidates and the male senior class candidates of the State Party will visit the Nittany-Pollock area beginning at 7 tonight as the second day of campaigning for the spring elections continues.

The State Party All-College and junior class men candidates will visit the West Dorm area, while the State senior women candidates will talk in Grange and the junior women candidates in Grange and Woman's Building.

The women All-College and senior candidates of the Lion Party will tour McAllister Hall tonight, while the junior candi-dates will visit McElwain Hall.

All the candidates of both parties will be introduced tonight at a dance being sponsored by the Association of Independent Men in the West Dorm lounge.

In addition to visiting the dormitory areas, each party will send candidates to talk at several fra-ternities during the noon and evening meals until the last day of campaigning. Yesterday's campaign addresses were termed "very successful" by representatives of each party. In the junior class presidency race, both candidates have missed early portions of the campaign-ing. Theodore Edmunds, Lion Party candidate, could not par-ticipate in the campaigning yesterday because of illness. Richard Lemyre, State Party nominee, is absent because of the Olympic wrestling tryouts.

A mixer to be open to all students will be sponsored by the State Party at Chi Phi from 9 p.m. to midnight tomorrow. The mixer is designed to give stu-(Continued on page eight) and gown, according to George Donovan, Student Union manager. "Concert in Jazz" (Phillips) will feature a piano solo part by Max Pfaff, senior in music education. James W. Dunlop, associate pro-ing as host for the festival. Dun-lop is a member of the Dun-No details on the new system

Art Exhibit Blanks Now Available

Application blanks for the May student art exhibit, to be spon-sored by Pi Lambda Alpha, art honorary, 'are available, a contest official said yesterday. The exhibit will be judged in three classes, he/said. A $10 prize will be given for the best sculp-ture work and a $5 prize for the best line drawing. Three honor-able mention awards will be given.

Non-Sectarian to Speak

the Non-Sectarian Church, Lim- than 100 college presidents, colerick, will speak to the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship at lege public relations directors, 7:30 tonight in 405 Old Main.

The Rev. Didden's topic will be "The Resurrection Life of Christ and His Life Becoming our Life."

current drive on campus with an lop is a member of the Penn-address to the Health education sylvania Band Masters Associa-classes last night.

100 College Presidents Attend TV Meeting

The Educational Television

The Rev. Clarence Didden of he Non-Sectarian Church, Lim-rrick, will speak to the Inter-varsity Christian Fellowship at '30 tonight in 405 Old Main. The Rev. Didden's topic will be Nittany Lion Inn, beginning at 6 p.m. Video recordings produced by Lynn Poole of Johns Hopkins University will be exhibited following a buffet supper at the inn at 6 p.m.

Discussion on the science pro-duction will be led by Robert Fenwick, associate producer with Poole of the program, "The Johns Hopkins Science Review." Beginning at 9:30 a.m. Monday, sessions will move to the Air Na-

Program, which opens at the Col- held. Buses will transport regis-a.m. Monday. President Milton S. Eisenhower will welcome the group. Dr. Ar-thur S. Adams, president of the American Council on Education, will speak on "Is Seeing Believ-ing?" The institute will continue through Thursday, with many of Members of the Women's Stu-the sessions in the form of small dent Government Association Sentional Guard Armory, recently and invited guests in order to en-vacated by the 112th Aircraft able members and participants playroom, Virginia Miller, con-control and Warning Squadron, to benefit from the advantages of where the daily meetings will be small discussion groups.

te jan and status to us the area of the second state of the ture, today; chemistry and physics and mineral industries seniors, Monday and Tuesday; liberal arts seniors. Wadnesday; maked arts advisers have been

Deposit to Get

29, and 50, and physical educa-tion seniors, May 1, 2, and 3. Invitations and announcements trar, nor Wilson A. Stewart, aswill cost 10 cents each and may sistant registrar, were available be obtained at the Student Union vesterday for comment on the desk in Old Main.

Graduating seniors will receive three tickets for the graduation services when they get their caps and gowns. These tickets will be good until ten minutes before the designated starting time, at which time the doors will be open to all.

If the weather permits, services will be held in Beaver Field rather than in Recreation Hall. In this event, no tickets will be needed.

WSGA Convention

discussion groups. The council, in ate, House, and convention complanning the conference, decided mittees will meet for a final to restrict attendance to members briefing on convention plans at

Monday and Tuesday; Interal arts seniors, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. Encionation of the students prepare schedules by May 15 with the assistance of department heads. Engineering seniors, April 28, Assistance of department meads. Engineering seniors, April 28, However, these schedules will 29, and 30; and education, home economics, and physical educa-tion seniors, May 1, 2, and 3. Neither C. O. Williams, regis-Wilcon A. Stewart, asregistration change.

WD Applications Due Next Week

Juniors who wish to live in the West Dorm area as seniors next year may apply for ac-commodations from 7 to 9 p.m. Monday in 108 Old Main. Sophomores may apply during the same hours Tuesday and freshmen on Wednesday. The area will house 120 seniors, 60 juniors, and 60 sophomores next year, according to plans released recently by Russell E. Clark, director of hous-

Juniors who apply for rooms College average. Sophomores must have a 1.5 and freshmen must have a 2.0, Clark said.