

May Queen Primaries Scheduled for Monday

Primary elections for May Queen, junior and sophomore attendants, and maid of honor will be held from 8:45 a.m. to 5 p.m. and 6:15 to 9:15 p.m. Monday in the corridor outside of the Dean of Women's office, 105 Old Main.

Voting in the primaries will be done according to class. Only seniors will vote for May Queen, and freshmen will cast ballots for the maid of honor.

Final elections will be held Wednesday on the second floor of Old Main near the All-College elections balloting area. The queen and her court will reign over the May Day ceremonies May 10.

Pictures of the 44 nominees will be on display near the voting place and also in the Commerce Club window starting today and lasting until Wednesday.

Patricia Colgan and Elizabeth Duda have been appointed as jesters and Charlotte and Joan Brown as heralds for the May Day ceremonies.

Names of those women who have been chosen for the honor arch will be announced Wednesday.

Yvonne Carter, chairman of the Women's Student Government House of Representatives, has announced that any woman who would like to represent her dormitory in the Pig Derby should contact her by Monday. The Pig Derby will be run next Saturday as part of the Little International Show.

Women who enter the Pig Derby will ride on a float in the Little International Show parade Friday.

Last year Joan Shisler won first prize in the Pig Derby. She will represent McElwain Hall in the event Saturday.

Drawings Scheduled For Monday

Number drawings for coeds to pick rooms for the fall semester will be held from 8 a.m. to noon and 1:30 to 5 p.m. Monday in the Dean of Women's office.

Women who will remain in the rooms they now occupy or who will be living in a sorority suite will not have to draw numbers.

Selection of rooms will begin Wednesday evening in the Dean of Women's office. Women may choose rooms in the order of their semester and then according to the number they draw. Seventh semester women will be given first choice.

Roommates of the same semester standing may use the lower number. Roommates of different semester standing must use the number of the coed of the lower semester.

Thompson Hall and Woman's Building will be reserved for freshmen next year.

TV to Show Tunnel Project

A 30-minute television program, "Weapon of Stealth," that reveals research underway in the Garfield Thomas Water Tunnel at the College, will be telecast at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow by station WJAC-TV, Johnstown.

Produced weekly as the Johns Hopkins Science Review, the program was carried on the DuMont network as a live broadcast from station WAAM-TV in Baltimore and is now being carried by kinescope throughout the country.

The research work is described by Dr. Eric A. Walker, dean of the School of Engineering and director of the Ordnance Research Laboratory, and Dr. James M. Robertson, in charge of the water tunnel. Admiral C. M. Bolster, chief of Naval research, tells of the important work underway at the College for the Navy. Lynn Poole of the Johns Hopkins University is producer of the show.

FFA to Meet

The Future Farmers of America will meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday in 109 Agriculture.

Aquacade Will End Tonight

The final performance of the 12th annual Women's Recreation Association aquacade will begin at 8 tonight in White Hall.

Free tickets for the "Rainbow Rhythms" may be obtained from participants. The show is sponsored by the WRA Swimming Club.

Nine scenes will be depicted, each having a title which refers to color. The narration is based on "The Old Master Painter," the name of the first number.

The other acts are "Green Eyes," "Deep Purple," "Rhapsody in Blue," "Autumn Leaves," "The Moon Was Yellow," "That Old Black Magic," "Flamingo," "Hawaiian War Chant," and "Over the Rainbow."

The show is written and directed by members of the club. "Hawaiian War Chant" is a comedy routine. "That Old Black Magic" and "Flamingo" are the show's duet numbers.

Dry ice plus the lightning effect will supply the rainbow for the finale, "Over the Rainbow."

Frances Bleick, assistant professor of physical education, is faculty adviser for the aquacade. Last year's performance was entitled "Hits and Misses."

Leonides to Hear

Convention Reports

Leonides Council will meet at 6:30 p.m. Monday in the first floor study lounge in McElwain Hall to hear the delegates who attended the National Independent Student Association conference last weekend at the University of Oklahoma.

Speakers will be Betty Johnson, Vivian Peterson, Frank Reese, and Weston Tomlinson. The meeting is open to all independent women.

Delta Theta Sigma Plans Anniversary Celebration

Delta Theta Sigma will celebrate its 25th anniversary tonight at a banquet and dance at the Nittany Lion Inn.

Main event of the evening will be the burning of the mortgage. Miles Horst, Pennsylvania secretary of agriculture will be the guest speaker. Music will be furnished by Sergeant Campbell and his orchestra.

The dance, which begins at 9, will be closed.

WSGA Convention To Open Wednesday

More than 200 delegates from 29 Eastern colleges will attend the Eastern Intercollegiate Association of Women Students convention Wednesday through Saturday at the College.

Virginia Miller and Joan Lee are co-chairman of the conference. Officers of the local Women's Student Government Association will be regional officers for the convention. WSGA officers are Mary Jane Woodrow, president; Virginia Miller, secretary; and Carolyn Pelczar treasurer.

Joan Hutcheon, president-elect, and Barbara Wertz, vice president-elect, will be the College's delegates to the convention.

Opening Meeting

A picnic, an informal party where the movie "This Is Penn State" will be shown, and an orientation meeting for discussion leaders are scheduled for Wednesday.

Miss Woodrow will preside at the opening meeting Thursday morning at which Miss Miller, Dean of Women Pearl O. Weston, Mrs. Betty Patty Lowman of Ohio State University, and Charmion Bolles, regional representative of EIAWS, will speak.

President Milton S. Eisenhower will speak and Miss Lee will preside at a luncheon Thursday afternoon. After the luncheon the delegates will tour the campus. In the evening Mrs. Christine Y. Conaway, dean of women at Ohio State University, will speak, and delegates will attend Players' presentation of "Biography."

To Attend Tryouts

Miss Miller will preside at the general session Friday morning which will be followed by workshops. Miss Woodrow will lead a discussion on the war emergency Friday afternoon. Mrs. Joseph Farrington, president of the National Federation of Women's Republican Clubs, will discuss "Women in Government" Friday night.

Miss Miller will preside at the final business session Saturday morning. Saturday evening the delegates will attend the Olympic gymnastic tryouts in Recreation Hall.

Alpha Chi Omega To Hold Luncheon

Active and alumnae members of Alpha Chi Omega will attend a state day luncheon at the Nittany Lion Inn today.

Mrs. Freda D. Restenberger, executive director of the United Cerebral Palsy Association, will be the speaker.

A round table discussion will conclude the program.

Injured Coed Back to Campus

Rhea White, fifth semester student in arts and letters, who was injured in an accident near Syracuse, N.Y., last month, will return to classes Monday.

Miss White had been in Crouse-Irving hospital in Syracuse since the accident. She returned to campus Wednesday.

The accident took place during a snowstorm. Miss White's car crashed into a trailer truck loaded with 14 tons of coal. Miss White's escort, Stuart Stevens, a student at Syracuse, was killed in the crash. She had driven to Syracuse to bring Stevens back to Penn State for the Phi Mu pledge dance that weekend.

Members of Phi Mu sorority said yesterday Miss White had not suffered any permanent injuries, but it would be a while before she will be completely recovered.

Chessmen Seek 2d Championship At Gettysburg

Penn State's chess team will be trying for its second straight state championship title when it meets Gettysburg College, at 3:30 p.m. today in 3 Sparks.

Three members of last year's championship team are on the team again this year. They are David Keller, Peter Betley, and Carl Stegner.

Playing with them will be newcomers Howard Kalodner and Donald Averbach.

Each man will play two games, with one point per game being awarded the winner. The points will then be totaled to determine the team winner.

If the Penn State team wins the match, it will go to Harrisburg to meet the eastern and western champions of Pennsylvania.
