

May Queen Finals Scheduled for Today

Hemlock Chain Participants Will Register

Final voting on the four candidates for May Queen and the three for maid of honor will take place from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 to 5 p.m. today in the second floor lounge of Old Main.

Finalists for May Queen are Robin Brunner, Marion Gray, Norma Lee McCormick, and Gaynell Wagner. Candidates for maid of honor are Gwen Price, Nancy Scofield, and Maud Strawn. Pictures of all candidates will be on posters at the polls.

Hemlock Chain

All women will vote for both titles. Senior women also will sign up to participate in the hemlock chain. The first 50 to sign the list will be in the May Day ceremonies on May 10.

The queen will be crowned as part of the celebration beginning at 3:30 p.m. on the plaza of Old Main. Other events are a may pole dance, processions of the honor arch and members of the hemlock chain, and a dance by the concert modern dance group.

The Prep Band will play. In case of rain, the ceremonies will be moved to Recreation Hall.

Jesters Named

Junior attendants elected in Monday's primaries are Jean Mastin and Marion Morgan. Marilyn Buzby and Joan O'Connor are sophomore attendants.

Jane Strawn, whose name was omitted from the list in yesterday's Daily Collegian, will be in the honor arch.

Jesters named are Patricia Colgan and Elizabeth Duda. Charlotte and Joan Brown will be heralds.

Yvonne Carter, secretary of the Women's Student Government Association, is general-chairman of the affair.

Hotel Delegates Schedule Talks

Representatives of the Pennsylvania Hotels Association will conduct seminars explaining the various duties and qualifications for work in resorts at 3 and 4 p.m. today in 3 Carnegie. John J. Huber, supervisor of part-time student employment, said yesterday.

John Crandall, chairman of the resort-hotels committee of the association, will lead the seminars, which are for students seeking summer employment in resorts. Huber explained that many students apply for resort jobs before they know the specific duties involved. Forty-five resorts have sent job information to the Student Employment office, Huber said.

Leonides Hears 2 Proposals

The sponsoring of more joint affairs between the Association of Independent Men and Leonides and the holding of an Independent week were recommended Monday night to Leonides Council by delegates to the recent National Independent Students Association convention at the University of Oklahoma.

Betty Johnson, Vivian Peterson, Frank Reese, and Weston Tomlinson represented the College. Over 325 delegates from 37 colleges attended the convention.

The Independent Week would include dormitory displays, exchange dinners, and a dance with a name orchestra.

Leonides will send representatives to the district regional NISA convention Saturday at the University of Pennsylvania.

The Eastern Regional NISA convention will be held at the College in November.

500 to Attend High School Press Conclave

Approximately 500 students and faculty advisers from about 300 Pennsylvania high schools are expected to attend the State High School Press Conference to be held at the College Saturday, Franklin C. Banner, head of the Department of Journalism, said yesterday.

The opening meeting will be at 11 a.m. in 121 Sparks where Adrian O. Moore, provost, will discuss "The Value of a College Education." Philip G. Reed, managing editor of International News Service, will talk about "My Experiences on the Street of Ink" at the same meeting.

Registration for the convention will be held from 9:50 to 10:50 a.m. in the Daily Collegian office. The registration fee will be 25 cents for each delegate.

Welcoming talks will be given by the presidents of the three journalism fraternities, Theta Sigma Phi, Sigma Delta Chi, and Alpha Delta Sigma.

Panhel Installs New Officers, Gives Awards

Presentation of awards and installation of officers were held at the Panhellenic Council banquet last night at the Eutaw House.

Marilyn Levitt, Sigma Delta Tau, retiring president presented Patricia Acosta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, with a service key for serving as co-chairman of Greek Week. Janet Bludge, Alpha Gamma Delta, received a service key for editing the Panhel section of the IFC-Panhel Newsletter.

Miss Levitt presented the outgoing officers with keys. Retiring officers are Byrne Tetley, Gamma Phi Beta, treasurer; Josephine Waterhouse, Chi Omega, recording secretary; June Leighty, Alpha Omicron Pi, corresponding secretary; and Jane Stieber, Delta Gamma, parliamentarian.

Miss Levitt installed Marlene Heyman, Phi Sigma Sigma, as president. Miss Heyman was vice president this year.

Prexy Receives Alger Award

President Milton S. Eisenhower was one of seven who received Horatio Alger Awards yesterday at Rockefeller Center in New York City.

Charles E. Wilson, president of the General Electric Corp and former director of the Office of Defense Mobilization, made the awards. Wilson was honorary chairman of the awards committee and made the presentation before a buffet luncheon.

The awards are given annually to the men who have risen from humble beginnings to the most outstanding achievements in service.

Bids to Open in East Dorms

Applications for group assignments in Nittany and Pollock dormitories for the fall semester will be honored beginning tomorrow, Russel E. Clark, director of housing, announced yesterday.

According to regulations set up by the department of housing, 12 students may apply in a body for rooms in each of the 24 Nittany dorms and 16 may apply for residence in each of the 13 Pollock dorms.

Authorized representatives of each group should obtain application contracts from the department of housing in either 108 Old Main or in Dorm 20, Clark said. Priorities will be assigned in order of the receipt of completed contracts.

Under the assignment plan, the ratio of freshmen to upperclassmen will be the same in the East dorm area as is now applied in the West Dorms. The West Dorms have one upperclassman for every three freshmen.
