

Blue Gridders Favored To Win Bucket Bowl

With New Year's Day still eight months away, Penn State gridgers will get off to an early start in the parade of bowl games when they clash in the second annual Bucket Bowl intrasquad scrimmage at 2 p.m. tomorrow on Beaver Field.

Coach Rip Engle's prospects for the fall season, divided into Blue and White teams, will battle in a "live" football game to wind up their 20-day spring practice session.

Superior reserve strength and a rugged line weigh heavy in the favor of the Blues and justifies their one touchdown favorite rating over the Whites.

Blues Seek to Repeat

Sever Toretti, White coach along with Joe Paterno and Al Michaels, admits a shortage of material but expects this deficiency to be made up by the superior fight and spirit of the Whites.

Blue coaches, Earl Bruce, Jim O'Hara and Frank Patrick, are confident their team will repeat the 7-0 victory ground out by the Blues last spring in the first Bucket Bowl.

Short on reserves, the Whites will rely largely on one platoon for both offense and defense whereas the Blues will have separate squads, with few exceptions, for both offense and defense.

Starting Lineups

However, the Blues have been hard hit at the ends with John Knox, Bob Rohland and Jesse Arnelle all unavailable for further duty this spring. On the other side, the Whites will be without the services of guard Don Barney who has left school.

Probable starting lineup for the Whites on offense is Don Malinak and Joe Yukica, ends; Joe Gratson (captain) and Gene Danser, tackles; Orv Haldeman and Sam Green, guards; Bob Smith, center; Buddy Rowell, left half; Pete Shopa, fullback; Bob Szajna, quarterback; and Don Eyer, right half.

State's Best Outfield

Heavy hitting Bill Hopper, Sil Cerchie, and Chris Toney comprise what Coach Joe Bedenk regards as potentially one of the best outfield units ever to represent Penn State on the baseball diamond. Hopper and Toney are seniors.

Lion Batsmen Face Trouble in Lafayette

Penn State's unbeaten baseballers will attempt to move one step closer to NCAA District 2 honors when they tangle with the Lafayette Leopards at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow at New Beaver Field.

The Lions are currently running neck and neck with St. John's of Brooklyn for District 2 consideration. Coach Joe Bedenk's nine has won seven games in a row while the Redmen have scored six straight victories.

Tennis Squad Faces First Test Today

Junior Dick Gross, a returnee from last year's tennis squad, has been named by varsity coach Sperm Fogg to the number four singles slot for the opening match with Western Maryland today at Westminster, Md.

Last season's team won nine of 13 starts, including a 6-3 triumph over Western Maryland.

Inclement weather stepped in yesterday and washed out the final elimination tennis match between Gross and Dez Long.

Fogg, in his sixth year as Lion tennis mentor, is starting a delicate, rebuilding process and will field a young squad with two of its top three performers seeing varsity intercollegiate competition for the first time. Bruz Ray, sophomore IM fraternity doubles champ, and Bill Ziegler, a freshman, have won the first and third singles jobs for the Terrier match and are slated for their initial taste of varsity action.

Two seniors and two juniors round out the first six singles men. The seniors are Captain Ed Davis and Gus Bigott; the juniors, Bill Forrey and Gross. Bill Ray, a junior, is the seventh man making the trip.

After the Western Maryland match, the State netmen will journey on Saturday to College Park, Md., to meet the powerful, undefeated Terrapins of Maryland. Match time is 2:30 p.m.

Anniversary Year

Charles (Chick) Werner, already named to the Olympic staff, is in his 20th year as Penn State track and field coach.

State has not beaten Lafayette since 1949, and is faced with another strong Leopard team this year. Led by outfielder and clean-up man, Gordon Leslie, the Leopards have piled up a 5-2-2 record this spring.

Lafayette has won over Moravian, Swarthmore, LaSalle, Princeton, and Fort Eustis (Va.), dropping games to Fort Eustis and Colgate. The Leopards played a 1-1, nine-inning tie with Navy, and tied Muhlenberg, 5-5, in an eight-inning contest Wednesday.

Leslie, before the Muhlenberg game, was hitting at a .485 clip. Lafayette came up with a real prize this year in southpaw Ronald Owen, a freshman hurler who had allowed just one unearned run in 19 innings prior to Wednesday's encounter. It is quite possible that, due to the Lions' impressive record, Owen may get the call in tomorrow's crucial battle.

Bedenk has used just four pitchers in the first seven games this season, and three of these hurled 57 of the 59 innings played. Righthander Bill Everson has appeared in four games, and come up with a 3-0 slate.

Manhattan Defends Two Titles

Michigan's distance medley, which just last weekend ran a 9:56.3 world record mark. With such high-g geared Canadian runners as Jack Carroll (440 in 0:46.1), Captain Don McEwen (4:09.2 mile), and John Ross (3:02 three quarter), the chances are that a new Carnival mark will be set and possibly another world record.

Probably State's best chances will rest with frosh Smith in the two-mile race. Smitty probably won't take first, second, or third, but stands an outside chance of finishing in the top five.

Competition is keen in this event, and before Smitty accomplishes such a feat, he'll have to battle with three of the seven fastest college two-milers in the business. They are Army's Dick Shea (9:05.8), IC4A champ; Mc-

Ewen (9:14.6) of Michigan; and Johnny Joe Barry, Villanova's '51 IC4A titleholder who has a (9:17.9) timing to his credit.

Four Frosh Survive

Four freshmen survived the early season roster cut as Coach Bob Rutherford, Jr., pushed preparations for Penn State's opening golf match against Gettysburg Wednesday. The frosh are Warren Gittlen, George Kreidler, Jim Mayes, and Don Thomas.

Graduate Student

Southern Cal's Ara Hairabedian, National AAU calisthenics champion in 1950 and 1951, is currently engaged in graduate study at Penn State. Physical education is his specialty.
