Marriages

Chamberlain-Smith

Miss Sally Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Smith of Williamsport, and Harold Chamberlain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Chamberlain, were married April 12 in the Redeemer Lutheran Church, Williamsport.

Miss Smith, a graduate of the Montoursville High School, class of 1951, is employed by Lycoming-Spencer division of Avco Manufacturing Corp.

Mr. Chamberlain is a junior in dairy husbandry and is a member of Alpha Gamma Rho.

The couple will live in Montgomery.

Cwens Plan Benefit Fete For Saturday

Cwens, sophomore women's activities honorary, will sponsor a strawberry festival for the State College school system Saturday to raise money to support a Dutch war orphan. The festival will take place from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the State College High School, Frazier street.

Members of Cwens are working in conjunction with senior high school students. The main feature of the festival is the crowning of a king and a queen. High school students will nominate candidates, and the two receiving the greatest number of penny votes will be crowned strawberry festival king and queen.

Another event will be the novelty cake walk. Strawberries and ice cream will be sold at the festival.

Committees handling arrangements are made up of active members of Cwens and members of the senior class of the State College High School.

Nancy White, member of Cwens and general chairman for the event, said that the festival has a two-fold purpose. It will contribute to the support of a war orphan and will mark an effort at closer integration of State College school groups and campus organizations.

Eng Council to Meet

The old and new members of the Engineering Student Council will meet at 8 tonight in 107 Main Engineering. New council officers will be elected.

Room Selection To Continue

Sophomore and freshman women will continue to pick rooms for the fall semester Thursday night in the Dean of Women's office.

Mrs. Cordelia L. Hibbs, assistant to the dean of women, asked all women to keep the number slips they drew last Monday. Numbers and times for room selection will be announced in the Daily Collegian Thursday.

Rooms are available in Atherton Hall and a few vacancies remain in Simmons Hall, according to Mrs. Hibbs. McAllister and Thompson halls and Woman's Building will house freshmen next fall.

2 Students Receive Journalism Awards

Freshman journalism scholarships were awarded to two high school seniors Saturday at the annual high school press conference held at the College. Franklin Banner, head of the Department of Journalism, made the awards.

Roy Williams, Pittsburgh, received the $300 scholarship established by Howard J. Lamade, of the Grit Publishing Co., Williamsport. Larry Shenk, Carlisle, was awarded the George E. Graff Scholarship of $100 which was established by Mrs. George E. Graff of Williamsport in memory of her husband. Delegates from more than 300 Pennsylvania schools attended the conference.

Instructor Course

Women students who are interested in taking a short refresher course for the Red Cross water safety instructor's certificate, or who have jobs as camp counselors this summer and are interested in a short session on canoeing, boating and sailing principles, may contact Miss Frances A. Bleick in the pool office of White Hall before Monday.

Phi Kappa

Phi Kappa entertained Alpha Gamma Delta Sunday afternoon. The program included refreshments and dancing.

Entertainment, planned by Donald Colbert and Kathryn Schueetz, included a skit and interpretations from "Cyrano de Bergerac." John Kelly sang Irish songs.

YOU CAN'T BUY FINER VANILLA ICE CREAM THAN BREYERS WHY?

Because only costly Mexican Vanilla beans—ground into tiny specks—are good enough for Breyers. No vanilla extracts could ever match the delicate flavor you enjoy in Breyers Real Vanilla Ice Cream. Prove it for yourself.
