

New Mineral Science Addition

ARTIST'S CONCEPTION OF NEW MINERAL SCIENCE BUILDING. PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE. MAY 1, 1952.

ARTIST'S CONCEPTION of how the Mineral Science building will look by the spring semester of next year is shown above. Construction on a new wing will be started before June 1, and bids are now being accepted. The proposed addition will be built across from Phi Delta Theta fraternity parallel to Burrowes road. It will house a laboratory to be used for cleaning and preparing materials, including stones and gems. Utilization of submarginal mineral materials will also be one of its chief purposes. The new laboratory is expected to be one of the finest anywhere.

Stratocruiser Found In Northern Brazil

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, May 1 (AP)—The burned, broken wreckage of a Pan American luxury Stratocruiser that vanished Tuesday was found in northern Brazil today with no evidence that any of the 50 persons aboard, including 19 Americans, lived through the crash.

A vast air hunt over 320,000 square miles of jungles, river basins and plateau land finally located the ruins of the one and a quarter million dollar double-decked liner in the Indian country between the towns of Barreiras and Carolina—on course to the end.

Airline officials said the find was made by a C-46 Pan American cargo clipper, piloted by Capt. Jim Kowing of Miami, 287 miles southwest of Carolina, a Tocantins River town itself 1100 miles northwest of Rio de Janeiro.

The Stratocruiser, lost on one of the line's El Presidente flights from Buenos Aires to New York, was reported to have broken in two and scattered its charred wreckage on both sides of a 300-foot high hill.

U.S. Air Force paramedics—doctors and medical attendants equipped with parachutes—were dispatched to the scene from the port of Belem, 400 miles north of Carolina. They planned to drop as close as possible to the site of the crash, in a forested area where the Indians are regarded as semi-friendly.

The Stratocruiser was on a non-stop schedule for the 2600 miles from Rio de Janeiro to Port of Spain, Trinidad, when its last radio call was heard at 1:30 a.m. (EST) Tuesday by a station at Barreiras, in Bahia State. It was 240 miles beyond Barreiras at the time and reported all well. It went down only about 400 miles northwest of Barreiras.

Several well-known United States business executives, as well as Latin American officials and business men, were among the 41 passengers.

Worst Riots Since '45 Hit Peaceful Japan

By The Associated Press

May Day riots and disorders, bristling military parades and East-West word battles broke out all over the map yesterday. There was more violence and more words spilled than in years.

Japan, turned loose on her own from the occupation yoke only this week, had her worst riot since the war when 20,000 Communist-led anti-American marchers fought police with clubs and stones in front of the Imperial palace. Hundreds were injured, including some Americans, and one person was reported killed.

There were cracked heads in split Berlin, clashes in Tunisia and Algeria where several were injured, brawls in Israel, and cordons of alert police on hand in nearly every big city of Western Europe.

The Soviet Union and her Communist antagonist, Yugoslavia, led the field in displays of military preparedness.

Tokyo's Communists, swinging clubs, charged 1000 steel-helmeted police, knocked 218 of them to the ground and seriously injured 51. The Communists carried away their own moaning and bleeding comrades.

Alumni Institute To Open Today

The second annual Alumni Institute will open at the College today. More than 1500 alumni are expected to attend the two-day program.

Dr. Herbert E. Longenecker, dean of the Graduate school at the University of Pittsburgh and a graduate and former member of the College faculty, will open the session. The program will also include a panel discussion by six faculty members on "Living in an Age of Tension" and a series of 13 faculty lectures on popular topics.

President Milton S. Eisenhower will close the institute tomorrow with a report to the alumni. Ten classes will hold reunion dinners tomorrow night.

Prexy to Be Grand Marshal During Parade

President Milton S. Eisenhower will be the grand marshal at the third Armed Forces Day parade to be held May 17, according to Capt. J. L. Woodbury, coordinator for the three Reserve Officers Training Corps branches.

The Army and Navy ROTC branches will be represented by 1300 students and the Air ROTC by advanced students and band members only, Captain Woodbury said.

President Eisenhower and his staff, which will be composed of Col. Jack W. Dieterle, Col. Lucien E. Bolduc, and Captain Woodbury, will begin marching with the parade at Shortlidge road and E. College avenue and will lead the parade as far as the reviewing stand which will be set up at Co-op Corner.

At the reviewing stand, the grand marshal and his staff will join city officials and "take salutes," Captain Woodbury said, as ROTC members and community organizations pass in review.

The parade will continue past the reviewing stand to Burrowes road, where it will turn right. Marchers will be dismissed in front of Recreation Hall. The parade is expected to last for 30 minutes and will be viewed by some 4000 spectators.

The Armory will be open to visitors all day May 17. Army and Navy weapon exhibits and Air Force engine exhibits will be on display. Officials will be present to explain the exhibits, Captain Woodbury added.

AROTC Summer Assignments Made

Summer camp assignments for 161 advanced Air Reserve Officers Training Corps students have been released by the Department of Air Science and Tactics.

Tactical air command camps will be run from June 23 to July 19. These include Donaldson Air Force Base and Shaw Air Force Base, both in South Carolina, and Memphis Airport in Tennessee. Sixty students will report to Donaldson, 50 to Shaw, and 10 seniors to Memphis.

Air defense command bases will run from July 21 to August 16. These bases include Otis Air Force Base in Cape Cod, Mass., and McGuire Air Force Base in New Jersey. Fifteen students will report to Otis and 36 students to McGuire.

sub-committees would be decided by the committee on student affairs.

The Senate committee on student affairs would supervise the sub-committees, with the exception of the committee on discipline, whose actions in the disposal of specific cases would not be reviewed by the main committee.

Nittany Dorms Filled; Withdrawals Expected

Nittany dormitories have been filled and half of Pollock has been assigned for next year, Russell E. Clark, director of housing, announced yesterday.

There is, however, a waiting list and substitutions are expected because of withdrawals, Clark said.

Applications are still being accepted in 108 Old Main between 7 and 9 p.m.
