

Classes Canceled for Spring Carnival Holiday

Committee OK's Lee Proposal

May 15 has been designated Spring Carnival Day and classes have been canceled, according to Richard C. Maloney, secretary of the council on administration.

The holiday recommendation was passed by All-College Cabinet Thursday and was sent to the council, which passed it yesterday morning.

JoAn Lee, recently defeated candidate for All-College vice president, presented the proposal to Cabinet. She pointed out that since pre-registration had been canceled, there were two extra days on the College calendar, which was already complete without the two days.

Miss Lee first suggested the one day holiday during a radio broadcast when she was campaigning for the post of All-College vice president.

George Backs Proposal

At the Cabinet meeting Thursday, Clair George, chairman of the Board of Dramatics and Forensics, said that May 15 would be the best time for the holiday since this is when the spring carnival will be held, and a holiday would give organizations sufficient time to set up their booths. He pointed out that in the past, because of the short amount of time to set up booths, the carnival has been opened with some booths incomplete.

The council on administration includes the deans of the various schools and the President of the College.

The spring carnival is scheduled from 1 to 11 p.m. May 15 on the west parking lot, directly behind Sigma Chi and Sigma Nu.

Pre-registration Eliminated
Yesterday and today were originally scheduled for pre-registration, but changes in the College's registration system brought about the cancellation of pre-registration. Classes were to have been suspended for pre-registration.

A new system of centralized registration is being put into effect. The new system eliminates first phase registration. Control of section size will be accomplished at Recreation Hall during the fall registration period, Sept. 10 to 13.

Advisers to Approve Schedules
Under the new plan, only section cards for the number of persons the section can accommodate will be handed out during the registration.

When arriving on campus next fall, the student will secure approval of his schedule from his adviser and then proceed to Recreation Hall, where the alphabetical schedule will be enforced. If any changes are necessary, they can be made with department representatives during the registration procedure.

AROTC Postpones Meteorology Exam

Due to the dismissal of classes May 15, the meteorology exam to be given to air science 2 students has been postponed, Col. Jack Dieterle said today. The make-up date has not been announced yet.

Today will be the last day of regular pre-registration for air science 1, 2, and 3 students, Col. Dieterle added.

Students will be allowed to register after today but the sections they want may be closed. Col. Dieterle added that pre-registration at this time makes it simpler for the student and the staff to plan next semester's scheduling.

Seniors Start Balloting For Class Gift Today

By MARSHALL O. DONLEY

Penn State seniors will begin voting to determine the use of approximately $5000 set aside for class gifts today when Liberal Arts seniors pick up their copies of the 1952 LaVie at the Student Union desk in Old Main.

The seniors will also vote for six women and five men who will be selected as honor students for the class of '52.

The gift donation is made up of the damage fees which are paid during fee collections in the four years of the graduates' College life. Although this sum has recently been near $8000, the dormitory raids and other damages may chop this year's figure down to as low as $5000.

Gift suggestions to be voted on are a 1952 Scholarship Fund; an entranceway for the west end of Pollock Road; a sculpture work, "The Linesman," by the modern artist Zorach; a campus press; and a campus radio station.

Women to Be Selected

Last year the graduating class voted to give $6000 to the campus radio fund and $2000 for a scholarship fund named in honor of Donald MacIntyre, a student who was killed in an automobile accident. The graduating classes of 1948, 49, and 50 all donated money to the fund for the student press.

That fund now totals $22,475. "The Linesman" was also a suggestion last year but lost in the balloting.

Six women will be selected from 16 to be named as outstanding campus leaders. The top woman is designated Bow Girl; the second, Slipper Girl; and the third, Fan Girl.

The 16 women from whom the six will be chosen are Mary Jane Woodrow, Marilyn Williams, Shirley Vernon, Jane Stieber, Sally Shoemaker Worth, Virginia Miller, Nancy McClain, Marilyn Levitt, Helen Jaskol, Barbara Klopp, Rosemary Delahanty, Robin Brunner, Janet Bleutge, Jeanine Bell, Carolyn Barrett, and Betty Anders Macauley.

14 Men Are Candidates

Only senior women may vote for the women candidates. Fourteen men are candidates for the honors awards. Five will be selected by the voting. As with the women, only men will vote for male candidates.

Crews for 'She Stoops' Announced

Production crews for the Players' production "She Stoops to Conquer," to be presented Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights in Schwab Auditorium, have been announced by Jolly Oswalt, stage manager.

Advertising co-managers are Sally Diehl and Jewel Girod. Members of the advertising crew are Nancy Dahl, Thomas Farrell, Dorian Heins, Sally Johnson, Cathy Keister, Mary Ann Kitzmiller, Elizabeth Lacock, Ruth McSparran, Terese Moslak, Thomas Owens, William Raymond, and Nancy Ward.

John Price is house manager for the production. Light manager is Harry Culbertson with Francis Angeloni as assistant manager. The light crew includes George Jason, Harold Wells, Frank Baxter, and Joseph Wirs.

Handling costumes will be Patricia Jenkins, Eleanor Pupo, Dolores McHugh, Gertrude Malpezzi, Carol Wilson, Barbara Cotter, Helen Baylog, Mary Loubris, Doris Yerg, Agnes Funk, Susanna Wescott, Gretchen Robb, Lucille Dorsey, and Carolyn Baer.

Co-managers for the make-up crew are Betty Lou Morgan and Marcia Yoffe. Working on the make-up crew are Marilyn White, Virginia Moore, Ross Bannard, Patricia Marsteller, and Jane Osman.

Heading the properties crew are co-managers Joyce Lupton and Mary Kormanik. Betty Locke, Cathy Keister, and Barbara Benning are members of the crew.

Members of the technical crew are Richard Speiser, Barbara Estep, Catherine Stark, Nani Ku, Richard Kirschner, Arlen Bergeson, Russ Dalton, Doris Scheck, Sally Lesslig, Polly Moore, Elizabeth Lacock, and Herman Golomb.

There will be a meeting for those wishing to become members of the house crew for the production at 7 p.m. tomorrow in the lobby of Schwab Auditorium.

Spring Pivot Will Be Sold On Street Today

The spring issue of Pivot, campus poetry magazine, goes on sale today for 25 cents at the Corner, on the Mall, and at the Student Union desk in Old Main. It is the first time that Pivot is being sold on the street.

Alice Doles, a sixth semester arts and letters student, has been awarded the $25 Fred Lewis Pattee poetry award for her group of poems which appears in this issue of Pivot.

Also included in the magazine are "Portrait of a Lady Dying," by Helen Jaskol; "Fear That Swallows," by Kenneth Doverspike; "Job," by Albert Montes; "Mugwump," by Barbara Silberman; and "Five Poems" by Anne Bullock.

Because many students felt that the material in the fall issue of Pivot was above the level of the average reader, an effort was made to produce an issue that would appeal more to students, Renee Kluger, business manager said.

Patricia Chandler is editor of the spring issue of the magazine. Associate editors are Margot Grossman and Sally Johnson.

Seniors' Coats To Be Judged

Seniors' decorated Lion coats will be judged at Spring Carnival, Robert Koons, chairman of the Lion coat committee, said yesterday.

Prizes will be awarded for outstanding coats, Koons reported. Sales of the traditional Lion coats have increased "tremendously," Koons added. The coats will be on sale from 1 to 5 p.m. today and Friday and from 8:30 a.m. until noon tomorrow.

Coats will be sold at the Student Union desk in Old Main for $1.90 each to seniors only, Koons said.

Committee Will Discuss Use of Chapel Offering

The Chapel committee will meet at 3:30 p.m. today in 201 Old Main to discuss the future use of the Chapel offering and a possible student referendum of the question.

The offering for 40 years was sent by the Penn-State-in-China committee to support the work of C. Weidman ("Daddy") Groff at Lingnan University in Canton, China. Since the Communists took over China and Groff returned to America, the committee suggested that this be discontinued.

No action can be taken on deciding how the funds will be used until a referendum is taken among those who attend Chapel.

Six projects have been suggested for the use of the offering, which now amounts to about $4500 each year.

One of the three international projects would contribute the offering toward Allahabad Agricultural Institute, the Christian college of rural life for India. Another would send it to Silliman University in the Philippine Islands, while a third suggestion would contribute the offering to the World Student Service Fund. Student members of the committee are William Klisanin, Kirk Garber, Allen Marshall, Carrol Chapman, Frederic Black, James Worth, and Thomas Jurcak.

Faculty and staff members are Wilmer E. Kenworthy, director of student affairs; Luther H. Harshbarger, College chaplain; John Henry Frizzell, chaplain emeritus; Henry S. Brunner, head of the Department of Agricultural Education; C. Emory Myers, professor emeritus of plant breeding; Roy D. Anthony, professor emeritus of pomology; Hummel Fishburn, professor of music education; Mrs. Willa C. Taylor, associate professor of music education; H. K. Wilson, Dean of Men; and Pearl O. Weston, Dean of Women.

Reorganized Fraternity Approved

The Senate committee on student affairs has approved a petition for the Phi Mu Delta association to charter a house at the College, according to H. K. Wilson, Dean of Men and secretary of the committee.

Phi Mu Delta, a national fraternity, had a chapter at the College until shortly after the start of World War II. It was disbanded and was not reorganized, as were many of the other fraternities, after the close of the war.

The newly approved organization must serve two years as a local chapter before petitioning affiliation to the College and to the national organization of Phi Mu Delta.

The new officers of the organization through the efforts of the Penn State Phi Mu Delta alumni association, the Susquehanna chapter, and the national offices of that fraternity. The new adviser is J. W. Hunt, associate professor in charge of mining extension.

The chapter alumni association is currently seeking available real estate for a permanent chapter house. Meanwhile, the members hold meetings in Old Main.

The new officers of the organization are Renato Rodriguez, president; Jay Schultz, vice president; Albert Bertani, secretary; and Vernon Moyer, treasurer.

Honor Society Council To Mark Anniversary

The Honor Society Council will celebrate its 30th anniversary at a meeting at 4:10 p.m. today.

Dr. S. W. Fletcher, dean emeritus of the School of Agriculture, will receive a scroll in recognition of his work in founding the council.

Dr. F. J. Tschan, professor emeritus of European history, will present the history of the organization from its beginning on May 9, 1922. Dr. M. W. White, chairman of the committee on eligibility and admissions of the Association of College Honor Societies, will talk on "The Honor Societies and the College."

Greeters Club to Meet

The Greeters Club will meet at 7:30 tonight in the Home Economics cafeteria, Edward Eroles, president, said yesterday. New officers will be elected for next year. Plans for the Belle Hop Ball and the fund for foreign students will be discussed.

Orientation Counselor Forms Due Monday

Monday at 5 p.m. has been set as the deadline for accepting Orientation Week counseling applications. Applications received by yesterday afternoon totaled 160.

The committee will meet at 7 p.m. Monday to discuss and choose orientation counselors for the fall semester.
