

Tennis Team Routs Hoyas; Golfers Post 1st Win, 5-2

By GEORGE BAIREY

Tennis Coach Sherm Fogg's inexperienced youngsters donned a becoming cloak of "old pro-ism" on Saturday as they routed an even younger Georgetown tennis crew, 7-2, for their first 1952 court triumph.

The win set the Lions on an even 500 keel at 1-1 for the season and preserved their unblemished series with the Hilltoppers. It was the fourth victory without loss over the Hoyas since Fogg took over the Nittany reins in 1947.

The State squad will now embark on a rough week on the road, meeting Navy, Colgate, and Cornell, in that order tomorrow, Friday, and Saturday.

Bruz Ray Takes 2d

The Lions swept five of the six singles matches and two of three doubles. Only Capt. Ed Davis lost in singles play. Davis had the misfortune of running into lefty Herb Von Erff, ninth-ranking junior in the country and a freshman at Georgetown. The eccentric southpaw's big American twist and crisp volleying were too much for Davis. The scores were 6-3, 6-4.

The other five singles matches were won by the Lions, including Bruz Ray's second court triumph without a loss. Ray became the first Lion to win two this season by decisively trimming Mike Foster, number two Hoya, 6-0, 6-2.

Hard slamming Bill Ziegler turned in a sparkling two-set performance, 6-4, 6-3, over third-seeded John Frisby, for his first State victory.

Gross Wins, 6-2, 6-1

Bill Forrey, Dick Gross, and Gus Bigott all broke into the winner's singles column for the first time this season. Forrey, dropping first set to Bill Baker, 3-6, outstayed the Hoya number four man in the two remaining sets and put him away with clocklike precision, 6-3, 6-4.

Dick Gross took just 28 minutes to dispose of Hoya Capt. John McFadden, 6-2, 6-1.

In a battle of two Spanish-speaking "senors" with identical tennis games, ageless Gus Bigott outchopped Hoya Lee Marin, former Nicauragian junior singles champ, 7-5, 6-3.

The doubles positions still remain as a minor problem for future matches to solve. A brand-new duo of Dez Long and Bill Ray teamed in the number three position and won handily from Foster-Marin, 6-1, 7-5.

Nittany losers in the doubles were the number-two outfit of Ziegler-Bigott, who dropped a three-setter, 3-6, 6-3, 6-3, to Frisby-McFadden. The number-one doubles team of Davis-Bruz Ray venturing into its second straight three-set affair, won this one from Von Erff-Baker, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4.

Hud Samson shot a par 72 Saturday afternoon to lead the Nittany Lion golfers to a 5-2 victory over Cornell. Samson was also the medalist, low scorer, for the afternoon. His par 72 included two penalty strokes, for a ball out of bounds.

The summary for the match:

Rod Eaken, No. 1 man, lost to Tony Giruc, 1 up; No. 2 man, Gordon Stroup defeated Dave Higgins, 1 up; Samson beat Bill Smithers, 6 and 5; Joe Webb, No. 5, lost to George Tall, 1 up; Bill Albert defeated John Hoppel, 3 and 2; George Kreidler defeated Marvin Shapiro, 3 and 2; and Captain Bob Bowers defeated Tom Peterson 4 and 3.

This was the first match of the season for the Lions. The opening match against Gettysburg last Wednesday was canceled.

Should Improve

"Team play was just about normal considering the conditions," Coach Bob Rutherford commented. "The course itself was in good shape but the weather was cold and windy. We didn't play over our heads nor did we play bad."

"I still can't tell much about the team, but it should improve as the season moves along. You must remember that this was the first match for five of the starters!" Rutherford said.

The team captain, Bob Bowers, had to quit the team yesterday because of school work. This leaves the team with only one letterman from last year's squad, Hud Samson.

Meet Pitt Tomorrow

An acting captain hasn't been appointed yet to take his place, but a possible selection could be Samson. Rutherford will also have to replace Bowers in the lineup for tomorrow's match with Pittsburgh.

The team will leave at 5 p.m. today for Pittsburgh. Pitt will be a tough test for the Lion golfers. So far this year Pitt is undefeated, having beaten Navy, Georgetown, West Virginia and Juniata.

"We've beaten Pitt a lot of times in the past years but they're now coming up and this year have a powerful team," Rutherford said. "It's going to be a tough game tomorrow!"

Long Ball Hitter

Bill Hopper, baseball captain and clean-up batsman, is Penn State's long ball hitter.

He's Pass-Catcher

Jesse Arnelle, of New Rochelle, N.Y., Penn State's basketball star, also is an end on the football team.

Athlete of Week

JIM HERB has been named Athlete of the Week by the sports staff for his outstanding performance in Saturday's dual meet against Michigan State. Jim set a new meet record for the high jump with a leap of 6' 5 1/4". Herb's winning jump was only a quarter of an inch from a Penn State record.

Soccer Coaches Favor Unlimited Substitution

In a nation-wide vote, high school and college soccer coaches have expressed themselves as favorable to unlimited substitutions.

Coach Bill Jeffrey, chairman of the NCAA rules committee which conducted the poll, said the vote was 66 to 44 in favor of relaxing the present rule.

An advocate of limited substitutions, Jeffrey explained that the vote was neither conclusive nor binding on the committee.

No team may use more than five substitutes under the present rule, and only three of the original 11 starters may re-enter the game. Originally, the figures had been three and one.

10 Games Carded

For the first time in 21 years, Penn State will play a ten game football schedule in 1952.

Syracuse Coach Roy Simmons' boast of "We'll score ten goals against any team" failed to stand up on Saturday, as the New Yorkers scored only nine, but that was enough to hand Penn State's lacrosse team its third setback in five games, 9-3, at Syracuse.

Hench Scores Ace

One of those rarities in golf — the hole-in-one — was achieved Saturday when Dick Hench, an eighth semester student in pre-med, turned the trick with a five iron on the par three, third hole. Hench was playing with Bill Mihalich, second baseman for State's baseball team.

Syracuse pulled steadily away after a 1-1 first period stalemate, possessing a 4-2 lead at the half.

Penn State demonstrated once again that it was sore in need of a prolific scorer. The Lions could muster but three goals, usually not enough to win a lacrosse game, the stress on the offense being what it is.

State Scores 1st

The game marked the fifth straight time State has lost to Syracuse. The last time the Lions came out victorious was in 1947. Syracuse won here last year, 13-10.

It was 12:45 before either team scored and when that time came, it was State that broke ice. Midfielder Bud Wolfram tallied for State, but after that it was to be a dark, dreary day for both Wolfram and State.

Wolfram added himself to a long list of State injuries when he fell after a body check and pulled a tendon in his right knee during the first period. Coach Nick Thiel used freshman John Steinmuller in the first midfield after that, but it just wasn't the same midfield with Wolfram's steady play missing.

Hockersmith Scores

After Wolfram's goal, Syracuse came back 35 seconds later on a goal by footballer Bruce Yancey.

Wayne Hockersmith's tally at 18:10 regained the lead for State, but then the Orange really poured it on. Freshman Ed Smith, Carl Lawrence, and Yancey all scored within five minutes to send Syracuse into a 4-2 margin.

The margin soared to 6-2 after Smith and another freshman, Jimmy Burns, scored. Smith's goal came at 35:53 while Burns' came at 41:24.

Syracuse Ices Game

State crept up to 6-3 on attackman Bob Koons' tally at 45:29.

Syracuse, however, iced the game for keeps on Warren Hyde's first goal at 49:12. Then came tallies by Lawrence at 54:50 and Hyde 28 seconds before the final horn.

Trackmen --

Roland also duplicated the feat in the 220, as he edged Polito in the final yards with a 23.6 clocking.

One of the most heart-breaking races for a runner in Saturday's meet was the two-mile race which inexperienced frosh Lamont Smith gave to Wayne Scutt of MSC, whose winning time was 9:37.1.
