

Badminton Champ Gets 4th Victory

Bob Goodell, TKE, two time intramural badminton champ, easily defeated Bob Wilkens, Tau Phi Delta, 15-2, 15-1, Tuesday night to gain his fourth victory of the tourney and the right to enter the quarter finals.

Goodell's opponents have scored no more than three points in any one game. A total of nine points have been scored against him.

Dave Girard, Sigma Nu, who is Goodell's rival in the quarter finals, felled Lynn Boyer, Alpha Chi Sigma, 15-12, 15-4. The victory was Girard's fourth.

Basketballer Herm Sledzik, Phi Kappa Alpha, downed Dick Colodi, Delta Upsilon, 15-5, 15-12, while another basketball player, Joe Piorowski, Theta Xi, won from Ed Hoover, Phi Delta Theta, 15-4, 15-12. Both Sledzik and Piorowski will be quarter-final opponents.

Dick Phillips, Sigma Phi Alpha, upset Jim Pickett, Phi Delta Theta, 15-13, 15-4. Pickett was after his fourth win, while Phillips scored his third victory.

Dick Robinson, Theta Xi, who has been downing his adversaries with ease, scored an impressive victory over Joe Ruyak, Pi Kappa Phi, 15-6, 15-5.

Dave Bischoff, Sigma Nu, felled Dan Loucks, Tau Phi Delta, 15-5, 15-8, while Bill Wallis, Sigma Pi, qualified for the quarter finals by gaining a forfeit victory over Bill Ziegler, Phi Kappa Psi.

Golfers Upset Pitt, 5-2 For 2d Straight Victory

By TED SOENS

The Penn State golfers did the "improbable" yesterday by defeating their age-old rivals, the Pitt Panthers, by a score of 5-2.

First year men, Joe Webb and Rod Eaken, led the Lions to their second win of the season with the low scores of 71 and 72. Webb was the medalist.

Navy whitewashed the Penn State tennis team yesterday, 9-0, in a match played at Annapolis, Md.

3 Teams Post Handball Wins

Three fraternity teams posted victories Tuesday night to move into the quarter finals in the intramural handball tournament.

Lou Riggs-Joe Lemyre, Sigma Chi, downed Joe Policastro-Bob Goodell, TKE, 21-6, 21-14, while John McCall-Louis Gomlick, Alpha Tau Omega, felled Burt Cushman-Jerry Weisman, Sigma Alpha Mu, 21-3, 21-7.

Jim Pickett-Ken Minchin, Phi Delta Theta, entered the quarter finals by gaining a forfeit victory over Emerson Knyrim-Ed True, Delta Chi.

The summary for yesterday's match is as follows: Rod Eaken defeated Bob Riley, 1 up; Hud Samson lost on the 19th hole to Norm Figura of Pitt; Gordon Stroup defeated McCarthy, 5 and 3, Joe Webb won over Docmanovich, 9 and 8; Bill Albert lost to Straub, 5 and 4; and George Kreidler and Warren Gittlen defeated both of their men, 1 up.

Pitt Rated Favorites

The Lions weren't expected to win as they had only one game to practice in before the match. That meet was against the Big Red of Cornell last Saturday. The Lions won the match 5-2.

On the other hand, the Panthers sported a 5 and 0 record going into yesterday's match and were rated the favorites. They had beaten such future State rivals as West Virginia (2), Navy, Georgetown, and Juniata.

Not only did they have the advantage of more seasoning, but Pitt had two exceptionally fine golfers in Bob Riley and Norm Figura. Both of these boys had below par scores in last year's match with State.

Haven't Won Since '41

With the exception of Hud Samson, the other members of the "green" squad are all first year men. This match was only the second one in College competition for them. Most of these men will be back next year and this much needed experience will prove handy in the coming seasons.

Yesterday's win means that the Panthers haven't defeated the Lions in golf since 1941. Now that the golfers have passed their "toughest test" of the season they'll begin preparations for the Eastern Intercollegiate golf tourney that begins this Saturday at Annapolis, Md.

MS Swim Star

Michigan State swimming star Clarke Scholes took first place in the 100 yard free style this year in the Big Ten, NCAA and the NAAU.

Lacrossemen Play Rutgers Saturday

Under the assumption that any change in its record must be for the better, Penn State's lacrosse team will tackle the first of its two successive home tilts with Rutgers at 2 p.m. Saturday.

State will enter the match with a mediocre 2-3 record, mostly because of a deficient scoring punch. The Lions have scored only 22 goals in five matches, compared to their opponents' 47.

The game will help highlight Mother's Day weekend and will be the lone varsity encounter on campus. The baseball, track, tennis, and golf teams will be on the road.

The baseball team will go to Pittsburgh, the track team to Army, the tennis team to Syracuse, and the golf team to Annapolis, Md., for the Eastern golf championships.

In Rutgers, State will face a team that is paced by Wally Beneville, third team All-American, who spearheaded Rutgers' defense in holding its opponents to 66 goals in ten contests last year. Offensively, Rutgers scored 116 goals last year in winning nine of ten games.

The games should be a tossup with State's chances depending on the physical fitness of attackmen Doak Walker, Tom Goldsworthy, and Dick Rostmeyer, and defenseman John Amber.

All were on the injured list prior to the Syracuse game, except Wolfgram. Rostmeyer and Goldsworthy, however, were well enough to play.

Wolfgram is the latest casualty, pulling a tendon in his right knee against Syracuse in the first quarter.

Another midfielder who will be back in the starting lineup is John Yohman, absent from the Syracuse match because of an engineering field trip.

IM Volleyball Season Closes; Playoffs Begin

Twenty-six fraternity A and B division teams clashed Tuesday night to bring the intramural volleyball league games to a close. These thirteen games plus the contests played Monday complete the list of league champions slated to enter the playoffs.

Alpha Tau Omega-A, Beta Theta Pi-A, Phi Delta Theta-A, Pi Kappa Alpha-A, Delta Tau Delta-A, Delta Sigma Phi-A, Delta Upsilon-A, Phi Kappa Tau-B, Alpha Tau Omega-B, Delta Tau Delta-B, and Sigma Phi Alpha-B all captured their respective league crowns. Alpha Tau Omega-A whipped Alpha Chi Sigma-A Tuesday night in a playoff game in league B to capture that crown.

In Monday night's action, four forfeits were recorded. Delta Chi-A, Pi Kappa Phi-A, Delta Tau Delta-A, and Tau Phi Delta-B all picked up forfeit wins.

In the A division, Beta Theta Pi downed Theta Chi, 15-8, 15-4. Phi Delta Theta tripped Sigma Phi Alpha, 15-3, 15-3. Phi Sigma Kappa nipped Phi Gamma Delta, 15-10, 15-13. Pi Kappa Alpha defeated Delta Sigma Phi, 15-7, 15-13. Phi Epsilon Pi went three games to beat Alpha Phi Delta-B, 15-8, 9-15, 15-0.

Action in the B division showed Delta Upsilon downing Sigma Alpha Mu, 15-3, 15-12. Phi Delta Theta defeated Phi Kappa Psi in three contests, 7-15, 15-10, 15-12, and Phi Kappa Sigma squeezed by Lambda Chi Alpha, also in three games, 11-15, 15-11, 15-9.

The first round of the playoffs were scheduled for last night but results were not available before the Collegian deadline. Leading off in the independent playoffs, Beaver House-A was slated to meet the Pirates, and the Early Risers were scheduled to tangle with the Foresters. In the fraternity section, Pi Kappa Phi-B was scheduled to play Beta Sigma Rho-B, while Beta Theta Pi-A went against Lambda Chi Alpha-A.

Grid Rivalry

The Michigan State Notre Dame football rivalry is recognized by an alumni-donated megaphone which each year goes to the winner.
