inn. He behaves much differently at the supposed inn than he would with people of quality and a number of complications arise which are finally resolved in a happy ending.

Robert D. Reifsnider, assistant professor of dramatics, will be seen as the likable, friendly country Squire Hardcastle. His mischievous, spirited daughter, Kate, is played by Kathryn Scheetz. Kate does not mind at all assuming the guise of bar-maid to capture her lover.

Kaye Vinson will appear as young Marlow, the suitor, whose split personality makes him shy and timid with the gentlefolk, but quit different with the people he believes to be inn personnel.

The part of Tony Lumpkin, a pampered, spoiled young man and brother of Kate, is played by Stephen Malin. Tony, is a lad who definitely prefers the company of rowdies.

Jeanne Risler will appear as Mrs. Hardcastle, the doting mother who strives always to be fashionable but does not quite succeed. Archie Rugh will portray Hastings, a gay blade with a rare sense of humor. Miss Nevill, Mrs. Hardcastle's ward, is played by Constance Melvin. Marcia Yoffe will play the maid, Lee Stern will appear as Diggory, and number of votes received, the five outstanding graduating men will be dubbed Spoon Man, Barrel Man, Cane Man, Pipe Man, and Class Donor.

Eight years after the male awards were instituted at the College, a committee selected to discuss titles to be given honor women decided to select names of articles always symbolic of women. The committee chose, in order of significance, Bow Girl, Fan Girl, Slipper Girl, Class Poet and Class Donor. A sixth symbolic title, Mirror Girl, has since been created.

In recent years the awards have been based on service to the College, personal honor, integrity, sincerity, versatility of activities and scholarship.

Donald Colbert will appear as Sir Charles Marlow.

Others in the cast include Dennis Shark, Aminidab; Roland Johnson, Slang; Herbert Rebhun, Muggins; and Albert Kalson, Dick. Technical director is Messop Kesdekiah. Ruth Ann Harding, manager of costumes, traveled to Philadelphia to select the costumes. She says they are some of the most unusual and elaborate yet seen on the Schwab stage.

A matinee performance will be given for high school students only at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow.

to go to the infirmary, you should take his advice.

Points to Remember

1. Unless you or your fraternity have made previous arrangements, your call will be the same as that of any other stranger. The doctor does not have to accept the patient unless he is able to do so, and wishes to do so. The emergency service in the borough is designed to be helpful to those students who cannot reach a doctor of their choice. It is not a "demand" service, and other doctors may have to be called.
2. If you call a town doctor, you are responsible for paying his bill. This will be higher at night than in the daytime, and higher after midnight.
3. You will be responsible for the house call even if he sends you to the infirmary.
4. Do not call late at night if it can be avoided.
5. Have someone meet the doctor at the door to guide him to the room where the patient is located.
6. Irresponsibility in the payment of bills prejudices the cases of other students.

Military Honorary Initiates Twelve

Twelve pledges of Scabbard and Blade are undergoing initiation this week, according to Cadet Captain John Carney.

The pledge training consists of drill every morning from 7 to 8 a.m., making of a pledge book, wearing a shield of the Scabbard and Blade emblem, and painting a local school house Saturday morning and afternoon.

Saturday night the 12 pledges will take an overnight hike. Sunday morning breakfast at the Autoport will follow the formal initiation.

College shepherd.

The professor's milking contest will take place at 4 p.m. A challenger and winners of the last three contests will compete. Contestants are Dr. Donald V. Josephson, head of the Dairy Department and '49 winner; Vice-dean Russell B. Dickerson, '50 winner; Glenn L. Kean, instructor in animal husbandry and '51 winner; and this year's challenger, Dr. Frank Cohen, professor of dairy bacteriology.

Ann Wylie, '52 dairy queen, will preside over the exposition. Miss Wylie is a freshman in secondary education. Manager of the show is Charles Brosius, assisted by Arthur Stone.

A banquet will be held Saturday evening at which leaders in the dairy industry and members of commercial firms will present over $200 in prizes to the winners of the show.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 41...THE MAGPIE

He's a chatterbox himself — outclassed by no one! But the fancy double-talk of cigarette tests was too fast for him! He knew — before the garbled gobbledygook started — a true test of cigarette mildness is steady smoking. Millions of smokers agree — there's a thorough test of cigarette mildness.

It's the sensible test...the 30-day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke — on a day-after-day, pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments. Once you've tried Camels in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why...

After all the Mildness Tests...
