

JEAN RICHARDS (left), who has been chosen valedictorian of the Class of 1952, and Louise Black, who was chosen salufatorian, will speak at the commencement exercises on June 9. Both are members of Phi Kappa Phi, scholastic honorary.

Richards, Black Are Graduation Speakers

Jean Richards, senior in elementary education, has been chosen valedictorian of the Class of 1952, and Louise Black, Liberal Arts mathematics major, was chosen salutatorian, David Olmsted, class president, announced yesterday.

Both coeds will speak at the commencement exercises on June 9 at which Hanson W. Baldwin, military editor of the New York Times, will be the guest speaker.

Recipient of Evan W. Pugh awards for the last two years, Miss Richards has a 2.93 All-Col-

Miss Richards is a member of the Education Student Council; Association for Childhood Educa-

Kappa, liberal education in arts

Education and Home Economic seniors may pick up their copies of the 1952 LaVie today and tomorrow at the Student Union desk in Old Main. At the same time they may vote for the senior class gift and '52 men and women honor stu-

Chemistry and Physics, Physical Education, and Mineral

Industries seniors may get their yearbooks and vote Friday and

LaVie Available

and science honorary.

Phys Ed lege average, plays the flute in the Blue Band, and is past presi-dent of Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's scholastic hon-Voting Ends At Noon

Balloting for members of next education society; Phi Kappa Phi, semester's Physical Education Student Council will end at noon today.

scholastic honorary; Pi Gamma Mu, social science honorary; Pi Lambda Theta, education women's honorary; and Westminster Foun-

The voting booths, the men's dation. located in Recreation Hall and Miss located in Recreation Hall and Miss Richards plans to teach the women's in White Hall, will next year in her home town of ich said, was exceptionally light.

All students of the Physical Education school are eligible to vote for the council officers. Seniors are eligible to vote for their alumni representative, while juniors, sophomores, and freshmen may vote for respective class representatives.

LaVie Availa

For 2 Schools

Education and Home

resentatives. Nominees for council president are Margaret Lamaster and Kurt Klaus; vice president, Ann Barker and Huber Kline; secretary, Margaret Powell, Joan O'Connor, and Patricia Colgan; and treasurer, Nancy White and Sally Durfee.

Named for alumni representa-tive are Donald Cook and Marilyn Williams.

Running for senior representa-tive are Barbara Benck, Betty Gleim, John Goshorn, and Robert Kreidler. Junior representative nominations are Anne Ewing, Alice Colbert, Don Bell, and Theodore Mortensen, while nominations for sophomore representative are Nedalyn Charmbury, Eleanor Gwynn, and George Sipe.

Two_Students to Give Talks on Aeronautics

Two students will give talks at a meeting of the Institute of Aero-nautical Sciences at 7:30 tonight in 208 Willard.

James Scherer will talk on jet transports, and Samuel Porter will discuss design problems in the gas-turbine combustion cham-

The Baily (Intentian

FOR A BETTER PENN STATE

VOL. 52, No. 143 STATE COLLEGE, PA., WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 14, 1952 FIVE CENTS

McCall Is He-Man; Five Win Awards

Win Costume Parade Honors

PHI KAPPA and The ta Phi Alpha's gold painted human statues (above) won the most original idea award in last night's Spring Week Costume Parade. They were one of four groups awarded parade prizes.

FMA to Make Foods Survey

DuBois.

The positions to be voted for are all officers of the council, the alumni representative, and the class representatives.

William Mihalich, council president, said that the first-day refor alumni representative, Mihalich said, was exceptionally light.

DuBois.

Salutatorian Miss Black received the John W. White award for scholarship on Honors Day and has a 2.90 All-College average. She is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority and Phi Kappa Phi, scholastic honorary, and was tapped for Phi Beta Kappa, liberal education in arts

The gold-gilted statues of Phi Kappa and Theta Phi Alpha were unanimously elected the most original idea in the parade.

All prize winning groups will fraternities, William Hafley, acting chairman of the committee, said fraternities, William Hafley, acting chairman of the committee, said no prize division deserved more points than the others.

Mimeographed forms will be sent today to each house giving points than the others.

Mimeographed forms will be sent today to each house giving points than the others.

Nancy Queer Crowns McCall information about the new FMA buying plan and asking for an approximation of the food consumed by the fraternity every month. The forms will ask for information about the brands, form, and grade of the food now being used in the houses.

as a basis for ordering food when the plan goes into action next fall.

Results of the poll will be used so a basis for ordering food Of Ag Council

Under the proposed plan, fraternities will join the association and purchase food on a large scale. Food will be ordered from dealers offering quality goods for the most reasonable prices.

Through this large-scale buying, member fraternities will make substantial savings on the food expenses, Hafley said. Because (Continued on page eight)

Richard Stanley was elected president Student Council at a meeting held last night. Other new officers are Joseph Arnold, vice president; were tapped by Skull and Bones, senior men's hat society, at 7:30 a.m. yesterday, according to Clair George, president. Seniors named were Barr Asplundth, John Baron, Wesley Blafrom the floor. Other nominees ha, Ralph Clark, Leonard Fried-

Nominations for the officers were suggested from an election committee and were also open from the floor. Other nominees for president were Arthur Stone and William Griffith, both nominated by the elections committee.

Joseph Arnold won the vice presidency over Edgar Fehnel. Kermit Krauss and Wesley Haer were the losing nominees for secretary. There was no majority in the vote for treasurer, so the nominee having the lowest votes to Clair George, president.

Seniors named were Barr Asplundh, John Baron, Wesley Blaha, Ralph Clark, Leonard Friedman, Arnold Gasche, Ralph Griffith, Robert Leyburn, Phil Lurie, Charles Naginey, and Kendall Tomlinson.

Juniors named were Gifford Albright, Joseph Arnold, John Baron, Wesley Blaha, Ralph Clark, Leonard Friedman, Arnold Gasche, Ralph Griffith, Robert Leyburn, Phil Lurie, Charles Naginey, and Kendall Tomlinson.

Juniors named were Barr Asplundh, John Baron, Wesley Blaha, Ralph Clark, Leonard Friedman, Arnold Gasche, Ralph Griffith, Robert Leyburn, Phil Lurie, Charles Naginey, and Kendall Tomlinson.

Juniors named were Gifford Albright, Joseph Arnold, John Donnal, William Hirsch, Ernell Rander Barr Asplundh, John Baron, Wesley Blaha, Ralph Clark, Leonard Friedman, Arnold Gasche, Ralph Griffith, Robert Leyburn, Phil Lurie, Charles Naginey, and Kendall Tomlinson.

Juniors named Were Barr Asplundh, John Baron, Wesley Blaha, Ralph Clark, Leonard Friedman, Arnold Gasche, Ralph Griffith, Robert Leyburn, Phil Lurie, Charles Naginey, and Kendall Tomlinson.

Juniors named Were Grifford Albright, Joseph Arnold, John Baron, Wesley Blaha, Ralph Clark, Leonard Friedman, Arnold Gasche, Ralph Griffith, Robert Leyburn, Phil Lurie, Charles Naginey, and Kendall Tomlinson.

Juniors named Were Grifford Albright, Joseph Arnold, John Baron, Wesley Blaha, Ralph Clark, Leonard Friedman, Arnold Gasche, Ralph Griffith, Robert Leyburn, Phil Lurie, Charles Naginey, and Kendall Tomlinson.

Juniors named Were Grifford Albright, Joseph Arnold, John Baron, Wesley Blaha, Ralph Clark, Leonard Friedman, Arno

Clark Sell, Fehnel, and Krauss.
David Stabler, present president of the Ag Council, presided over the meeting after the election. He anounced that the interest of the second selection of the second selection of the second selection. stallation of officers would take place on May 27.

Griffith stated plans made for the coming Ag Open House. Areas were assigned to the Ag Hill

Fraternities, sororities, clubs, colorful, (2) unique and modern, and (3) hats depicting the spring theme. Trophies in the form of victory figures will be awarded to the winners in each of the three classes. Second place winners in each class will be given to each marcher's organization, if ners in each class will be given (Continued on page two)

Fraternities, sororities, clubs, and other organizations may now purchase copies of the 1952 La-Vie at the Student Union desk, George Donovan, Student Union director, announced yesterday. The price is $12 per copy.

Commence of the second

8000 Brave Cold to See Festivities

By BILL JOST

Four costume parade entries, the Spring Mills High School Band, and John McCall won honors in last night's Spring Week costume parade and He-Man contest as 8000 participants and spectators braved the cold to continue Spring Week activities.

Triangle fraternity and Phi Mu sorority were judged the best costumed group in the parade. Their South Sea Islanders advertised their carnival booth which will be a South Sea show. The group was dressed as natives, including a king and his sarong-dressed har-

Beta Theta Pi and Alpha Chi Omega won the best comic group title with their Dogpatch theme. The group included Daisy Mae. Li'l Abner, Mammy and Pappy, and a squealing pig, Salome. The Dogpatchers sang "Where Can Li'l Abner Be?" as they passed Dogpatchers sang "Where Can Li'l Abner Be?" as they passed the judges stand.

Gold Statues Win

The bakers of Delta Chi and Gamma Phi Beta were judged the most talented group. The lead baker mixed dough while the others carried pans of dough, sacks of flour and implements

sacks of flour, and implements needed to bake a cake.

The gold-gilted statues of Phi Kappa and Theta Phi Alpha were unanimously elected the most original idea in the parade.

All prize winning groups will Spring Mills High School Band was awarded the first place tro-phy as the best band in the par-ade. Lewistown High School band was second. The Spring Carnival string band did not march be-nominee having the lowest votes naird, Kurt Klaus, Leonard Kriewas eliminated. Boodley won this ger, John Laubach, Joseph Lemposition over Theodore DuBois, Clark Sell, Fehnel, and Krauss.

(Continued on page three)

Skull and Bones

David Stabler, present presi-William O'Malley, Arthur Rosfeld, Richard Rostmeyer, Walter Sachs, Douglas Schoerke, William Shomberg, Richard Smith, Ronald Thorpe, John Walsh, Lincoln Warrell, Robert Watson, Boyd Wolff, and Howard Wright and Howard Wright.

Parmi Nous to Meet To Discuss Elections

The Parmi Nous meeting originally scheduled for last night will be held at 7 tonight in 209 Willard, James Whar-ton, president, announced. Wharton said the meeting will concern tapping members for 1952-53 and the election of officers.

'Hatters' Parade Slated for Today

Spring Carnival Map on Page 4

With Miss Penn State and the All-College He-Man announced, it is now the mad-hatters' turn to win acclaim.

Finalists in the Mad-Hat contest will show their head-gear at 7:30 tonight on the patio of Old Main. Preliminaries will be held at 12:30 p.m. along Pollock road.

A dogpatch drag will be held following the Mad-Hat finals.

The committee has asked that students wear dungarees and old Penn State cigarette lighters. clothes to the affair. Music will be provided by Jim Erbe's orchestra.

Hats will be judged in three catagories: (1) biggest and most colorful, (2) unique and modern,

A parade of all mad-hatters will clubs, and a meeting place for be held for the preliminary judg-the guides was selected.

ing. Paraders will form on Pollock road at McElwain Hall and Groups May Buy LaVie will march to the Mall. Registra-t . . .