Parties, Picnics, Dinner Dances To End Spring Week Activities

By BETTY ALLEN

Scrapbooks and diaries soon will be filled with souvenirs from the festivities of Spring Week, and among the memories will be those from tonight's houseparties that are the final feature of the week.

Science and fiction will lend their hand at the Acacia house where monsters alive and otherwise will greet the guests. Windows will lead into a space ship where the bandstand of Dick Marsh, who will play for the affair, will resemble a porthole in the ship.

Costumes typical of old Germany will set the atmosphere for the German beer garden party at Alpha Chi Rho where Jimmy Spaniel will play.

A semi-formal dinner dance will be held at Alpha Epsilon Pi. Music will be furnished by Abba Cohle and his orchestra. The party will be open at 8:30 p.m.

The calendar month of May will be erected outside Alpha Gamma Rho where party goes will enter through the memorable date of the 17th. Costumes depicting holidays and seasons of the year will be worn by the guests. The party will be open at 10 p.m.

A realistic waterfall will tumble down the stairs and into the living room of Alpha Phi Delta and set the mood for the annual "South Sea Island" party. Keys Williamson and his orchestra will be on hand to play for the costume affair which will be closed 'til 10 p.m.

Tramps will find a warm welcome at the Tau Tramp party at Alpha Tau Omega. Music will be provided by records and the dance will be closed 'til 10 p.m.

A formal spring dance will conclude Spring Week at Alpha Zeta where pastel shades of spring flowers will set the stage for the occasion. It will be open at 10 p.m.

Famous pirates of olden days would receive a warm welcome at the annual "Pirate Dance" where lanterns, fishnets, and seashells will complete the motif at the Beaver House. Guests will climb the gangplank to the party, which is open.

Lynn Christy and his orchestra will furnish music for the dinner dance which will be held amidst a tropical island atmosphere at Beta Sigma Rho. The party will be open at 9 p.m.

A sweetheart will be chosen at the annual "Carnation Ball" at the Delta Sigma Phi party. She will be given a cup and a bouquet of roses. Music for the occasion will be provided by the Sherwood quintet.

Delta Tau Delta and Chi Phi will hold a combined party on the Delta Tau Delta tennis courts. Japanese lanterns and ming trees will transform the court into an oriental garden. A large backdrop behind Lee Vincent and his orchestra will complete the setting. The pledges of Delta Theta Sigma will show their appreciation that "Hell Week" is over by presenting a show for the partygoers there. The party will be informal and open.

In keeping the Wharf Rat Collusion theme, Kappa Delta Rho will have a New Orleans Dock setting. Bill Clemmons and his orchestra will play for the open party.

The public is invited to a "Come as You Are" party at the Kappa Sigma house where music will be played by the Melody Men.

"Spring Is Here," the theme for the Omega Phi Psi lawn houseparty, will have an unusual touch as tape recordings will provide the music.

Figurines will decorate the lawn at Phi Delta Theta and outside music will set the mood for the annual Bowery Ball. Typical 1890 Bowery Day decorations will be used.

Phi Gamma Delta will hold their annual clam bake at Greenwood Furnace tomorrow.

Conrad Buht and his orchestra will furnish music for the informal pledge dance at Phi Kappa. The party is open.

Spring flowers will also be featured at the Phi Kappa Sigma house where dancing will be held on the terrace patio.

In contrast, Phi Sigma Delta will carry out a carnival theme. The affair will be a semi-formal dinner dance which will be open at 9 p.m.

Another garden party will be held at Phi Sigma Kappa in honor of the pledges. Al Glou and his orchestra will play for the formal affair.

If you can "parlez vous francais" you will be welcome at the "Cafe Marsailles," a French costume party at Pi Kappa Alpha. Ralph Patt will play.

A grand re-opening of the "Hotel Sig Alpha" will be held at Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Two orchestras and a pianist will play. The first floor will feature the sapphire room and on the third floor, guests will visit the starlight roof. A large sign "Grand Re-opening of Hotel Sig Alpha" will be erected across the driveway.

Roller skates, bicycles and wagons will be parked outside Sigma Alpha Mu where "Tum as a Tot" will feature a juvenile atmosphere. Park your bubble gum outside and drop in!

A white cross symbolizing the cross of Sigma Chi will be presented to the sweetheart of Sigma Chi at the annual Sweetheart Dance. Jack Huber and his orchestra will play for the formal dinner dance which will be closed 'til 9 p.m. Unusual decorations will include a large yellow parachute over the ceiling and blue satin walls with a backdrop of white roses and fern trimming.

The annual White Star Formal will be held at Sigma Nu and the Sigma Nu girl will be chosen. John Leister and his orchestra will play for the dance, which is closed.

A Lilac Queen will be chosen at the Sigma Phi Alpha Lilac Dance. She will be presented with a bouquet of flowers.

Hermits from far and wide will come to annual Moonshiners Ball at Sigma Phi Epsilon. An old cabin theme will be used. An unusual doorway effect will greet the costumed guests, and music will be provided by the Indians.

Sigma Phi Sigma and Theta Xi will hold an informal party following their picnic at Greenwood Furnace. Music will be furnished by Charlie Masters.

A realistic waterfall and fountain will be featured at the annual "Orchid Dinner Dance" at Sigma Pi where the guests will be enveloped in a garden atmosphere. An Orchid Lady will be chosen and presented with a bouquet of flowers and a cup. Don Troastle and his orchestra will play. The party is closed 'til 11 p.m.
