

Religion

Local Church Groups To Climax Activities

By LA VONNE ALTHOUSE

Picnics, senior banquets and a Communion service will climax the semester's activities of local student Christian foundations this weekend.

United Student Fellowship and Roger Williams Fellowship will hold banquets in honor of their senior members. USF's dinner will be held at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow in the basement of the Faith Reformed Church, while RWI will hold its banquet at 5 p.m. tomorrow in the basement of the University Baptist Church.

RWF will also hold a picnic this afternoon at the Allen Seegar Memorial, near Boalsburg.

Wesley Foundation and the Lutheran Student Association have planned picnics and outdoor worship services for tomorrow. LSAers will leave the Lutheran student center at 2 p.m. for Penn's Cave. Wesley members will meet at 4 p.m. in Hort Woods for recreation, supper, and worship.

A Communion service closing the semester's activities will be held at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow at Westminster Foundation.

Evangelical United Brethren Student Fellowship will meet at 6 p.m. tomorrow to plan the program and to organize activities for next year.

West Dorm Dance

Jack Huber and his orchestra will play for the final West Dorm dance, a semi-formal affair to be held from 9 to 12 tonight in the West Dorm main lounge.

In Aztec days the capital of Mexico, Tenochtitlan, was a city of canals much like Venice.

Delt Queen

Pictured is: Mary Towson, who was recently chosen "Sweetheart of Delta Tau Delta."

Co-Edits

Sigma Phi Alpha

Sigma Phi Alpha held a banquet in honor of its graduating seniors Thursday night.

Those who will graduate are Dean Davidson, Andrew Mills, Thaddeus Yarosh, Harold Kreiser, Charles Pollock, Kenneth Webster, Edwin Montgomery, Fred Reinhold, Charles Brosius, Wilbur Kephart, and Lloyd Murray.

Chi Omega

Marjorie Lohse has been presented the Barbara Haller Award, given annually by Chi Omega to the outstanding senior woman majoring in social sciences.

The award is presented in memory of Miss Haller, a former member of Chi Omega. Miss Lohse received the $25 award in recognition of her work in sociology.

James to Talk On 'Trouble'

The Rev. Robert L. James will speak on "In This World You Have Trouble" at the Chapel service at 10:55 a.m. tomorrow in Schwab Auditorium.

Rev. James is the regional secretary of the Middle Atlantic region of the Student Christian Movement.

Members of the old and new cabinets and graduating seniors of the Penn State Christian Association are holding an all-day retreat with the Rev. James and the Rev. Luther H. Harshbarger beginning at 10 a.m. today.

The Chapel Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Willa C. Taylor, will sing "Light of Light Enlighten Me" (Ahel-Bach), "Open Thou Our Lips" (Rachmanioff), and "How Lovely Is Thy Dwelling Place" (Brahms).

George Ceiga, organist, will play "Herzlich tut mich verlangen" "Es ist ein Ros' entsprungen" and "Fugue in A Minor", all by Brahms.

Men and boys in Yemen, small kingdom at the southern tip of the Arabian peninsula, wear wide belts holding curved daggers.

Phi Mu

Phi Mu initiated eight women last night. They are Jane Bianco, Nancy Brandreth, Donna Carlson, Julia Ibbotson, Barbara Newquist, Ann Skapik, Marilyn White, and Rhea White.

Thursday the sorority entertained Triangle at a picnic at Whipple's Dam. Recently Phi Mu held a banquet in honor of its seniors at the Eutaw House.

Jobs --

(Continued from page four)

Graduate study may be substituted for two years of experience. Applications must be filed with the Executive Secretary, Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners, Bureau of Public Roads, Department of Commerce, Washington 25, D.C.

Foreign Service Exams

Civil engineering seniors may file applications with the California State Personnel Board for junior civil engineering positions available immediately on graduation. Complete information and examination application forms may be obtained from the board, 1015 L Street, Sacramento.

The Board of Examiners for the foreign service will give examinations for 200 to 300 appointments to the service officers, Class 6, at Philadelphia, Sept. 8-11. Applications and additional information are available from the board, Department of State, Washington 25, D.C. Applications must be received before July 1.

Fifty air travel scholarships, totaling approximately $3000, will be awarded next year to 25 college students attending Latin American universities by Braniff International Airways. To be eligible, a student must meet scholastic qualifications set by the Institute of International Education, and must be unable to provide for his transportation and a year of foreign study. Applications should be addressed to the institute, 1 E. 67th street, New York 21, attention Eleanor Middleditch.

Institute Course Listed

Five leading British universities are offering seniors, graduate students, and teachers grants to cover part of the expenses for summer school courses in England this year. Free trans-Atlantic passages will be awarded to students showing a genuine need of such aid. By arrangement with the College, the courses can be credit-earning. Applications should be made to the Institute of International Education, 2 W. 45th street, New York 19.

Barnard College and the National Broadcasting Co. will present a summer institute of radio and television June 30 to Aug. 8 for college graduates, teachers, and non-degree holders with some professional experience. The institute offers four professional courses taught in the NBC studios by NBC department heads.

No academic credit will be given for the work. Applications for admission to the institute, the fee for which is $140, should be addressed to Barnard-NBC Summer Radio and Television Institute, 401 Barnard Hall, Barnard College, New York 27.

Morse to Speak

A. O. Morse, provost, will speak at noon Monday before the Faculty Luncheon Club at the State College Hotel. His topic will be "The Penn State of the Future."

The TAVERN
MENU
Saturday, May 24

FRENCH FRIED SHRIMP
AND SCALLOPS
LOBSTER TAILS
STUFFED PEPPERS

DINNER 5 - 7:30 p.m.
Reservations after 6:30

This Young Man Knows a BARGAIN!

It's finals time again . . . which means you'll be needing plenty of bluebooks. Which leads up to why our young man is grinning so happily . . . he bought his bluebooks at MURPHY'S where the prices are so-o low! Just cast a glance at this.

8 TO 12 PAGE 2 for 5c 16 TO 24 PAGE 3 for 10c

G. C. Murphy Co.

Cottons!
Sleeveless Blouses!
Skirts!

The best dressed girls on campus buy their cottons at the Smart Shop! Sheers, gingham, broadcloths, linens, in styles and colors to suit any taste. $8.98 up

SLEEVELESS BLOUSES: in plaids, stripes and solid colors. By the way, the Smart Shop is the headquarters for your beloved Ship and Shore blouses. $2.98 up
SKIRTS: quilted, plain cotton and denim, in prints, stripes and solid colors. $3.98 up

SMART SHOP
123 S. Allen St.

ROOMS
ONLY FOR Summer Session
$4 per week
Phi Kappa
Phone 3907
for information

SHORT CUT
TO A SMART SUMMER

Feel cool, look charming on the hotter days with one of our skillfully styled short hair-do's.

Dial 2201

Alice and Don, Hairdresser's

FREE

CONVENIENT

SOUVENIR

What? Why the folders in which we enclose your prints and reprints. It's a handy way to keep your snapshots together and a wonderful way to remember your college days. Not only do you get the free folder but also you get 24-hour service!

CENTRE COUNTY FILM LAB
122 W. Beaver Ave.