

Lions to Close Home Season

Six Penn State baseball regulars, Captain Bill Hopper, Carmen Troisi, Bill Mihalich, Chris Toner and Bill Everson, will play their final game before Nittany fans when the Lions meet Colgate this afternoon. State's home season closing game starts at 2:30 p.m. on Beaver Field.

Uncle Sam Grigger

Corporal Fran Rogel, former Penn State fullback who played professionally for the Pittsburgh Steelers, may cavort for Uncle Sam in 1952. Assigned to Fort Eustis, Va., which annually fields a strong football team, Rogel is almost certain to be drafted for the service eleven.

Coach Joe Bedenk was undecided on his starting hurler for today's game, but named Ace Everson (5-1), Keith Vesling (4-2) or John Moore (0-0) as his choices to get the mound assignment against the Red Raiders.

A victory today will keep the Nittanians in contention for an NCAA bid when that body's committee meets Monday in Scranton.

The Lions' current record of 12-4 is as good as most District 2 teams in the lost column and better than most of the other teams in the important win column.

Bedenk's lineup will be the same as all season if centerfielder Sil Cerchie's torn knee ligament has mended. If not, Ron Weidenhammer will cover the spot.

In rightfield the slugging Nittany Captain Bill Hopper will be making his last appearance in three heavy-hitting seasons for the Lions. Currently hitting .304, Hopper leads the club in total bases with four home runs, three triples, a double and nine singles. His 16 RBI's are second only to leftfielder Toner with 17. Senior Toner leads the club in most hits with 21.

Senior shortstop Troisi leads the club in assists, 48, but also has made the most errors, 12. Another senior, Mihalich, follows with 41 assists.

Utility infielder and senior Paul Mowry is batting 1.000 with one hit and one official trip to the plate.

Tennis Lions Meet Colgate

By GEORGE BAIREY

Tennis Coach Sherm Fogg, pulling all the strings in order to surprise mighty Colgate and extend the tennis Lions' four-game win streak, has installed freshman Bill Ziegler in the number two singles position against the Raiders today. Match time on the varsity courts is 1:30 p.m.

Ziegler, Fogg said, has been performing very well since he returned to the squad for the Duquesne match. Working in the number four spot against the Dukes, Ziegler turned out a steady two-set win. He had been sidelined for two weeks previously with a bad right wrist.

The unexpected move will strengthen the middle two singles positions, with sophomore Bruz Ray and Captain Ed Davis each dropping down a slot. Ray will go in the number three spot while Davis will work in number four. Dick Robinson will be in the top spot for the Lions today for the return Raider match. Colgate thumped State on Colgate courts earlier in the season, 8-1. Holding down the fifth and sixth singles jobs will probably be reliables Dick Gross and Gus Bigott. Both Gross and Bigott have turned in consistent wins this season. Fogg will probably hold fast with his three doubles combinations. They include Robinson-Davis at number one, Bruz Ray-Dez Long at number two, and Bill Forrey-Bigott in number three. Forrey-Bigott hauled in the lone point against the Raiders in their first meeting.

All-Stars Cop Soccer Title

Although the All-Stars, defending champs, were idle in the intramural soccer tourney Thursday night, they captured the 1952 crown when Joe's Boys and Dorm 23 were handed setbacks by the Iron Men and Beaver House.

The All-Stars own an unblemished record over a period of two years. Last year the All-Stars were highest in the scoring department.

Carrying only one player from last year's roster, the All-Stars have had only one goal scored against them in three games.
