tration through the Dean of Men's office.

The facts at the meeting were presented "as is," Bushman said. He would not comment as to whether he thought the house had received a "square deal." He added that the members in the house would show a sincere interest in the activities on campus next year and had hopes of rejoining the Pi Lambda Phi national organization.

The suspension will mean that members must move out of the house before June 10, and will not be allowed to live there next year.

Omega Gamma chapter of Pi Lambda Phi had its origin in 1941 when 16 men students petitioned the Senate for recognition as Phi Alpha Phi. The group became affiliated with the national organization of Pi Lambda Phi in May 1943.

Anthem: How Lovely Is Thy Dwelling Place — by Brahms

Plutarch, a Greek biographer and moralist, once observed, "Traversing the world, you may find towns without coin, without schools, without theatres; but a town without a temple of prayer no one ever saw." The thirst of the soul is satisfied through worship and the Creator is honored by our praise. Here is an ancient practice that time has purified because of its continuing values to the health of mankind.
