

Campus Groups Elect Officers

By AL GOODMAN

Many student organizations have elected new officers for next year. The new officers as released by the organizations are:

The Association for Childhood Education International: Terese Moslak, president; Irene Stromeyer, first vice president; Joan Dodson, second vice president; Jean Johnston, secretary; Roseann Shirey, treasurer; Nellie Spedding, finance and legislation chairman; Carol Fry, community and campus relations chairman; Jerry Cook, publications and branch exchange chairman; Charity McClellan, publicity chairman; Janet Coursey, service committee chairman; Francis Crawford, membership and UNESCO chairman; Annette Seanson, social chairman; Lois Bader, auditor, and Donna Estabrook, program.

Alpha Epsilon Delta, premedical honor society: John Fisher, president; Robert Coniff, vice president; Marilyn Buzby, secretary; Charles Wingert, treasurer; Stan Bushkoff, historian, and David Schwartz, scalpel representative.

Alpha Pi Mu, industrial engineering honor society: John A. Donnel, president; Edward F. Andrysick, vice president; Thomas Kleback, recording secretary and treasurer; Richard T. Grostefon, corresponding secretary; and Prof. Clifton A. Anderson, faculty adviser.

American Society of Mechanical Engineers: Paul Stine, chairman of student branch of ASME; Robert Watson, vice chairman; William Noyes, secretary; Charles Webb, treasurer, and Joseph Thornton, student council representative.

American Society of Metals: Jack Wernick, chairman; John Harrison, vice chairman; Walter Shovak, recording secretary; and Robert Lindsay, associate professor of metallurgy, corresponding secretary for a five-year term.

Block and Bridle Club: William Waters, president; Joe DePetro, vice president; Ernest Stahl, secretary; Edgar Fehnel, treasurer; and Henry Gruber, marshal.

Coaly Society, agricultural honorary which recognizes outstanding merit in extra-curricular activities: William Waters, president; Paul Krause, vice president; Barbara Johnson, secretary; Boyd Wolfe, treasurer; George Kemp, sergeant-at-arms, and Sabina Wallace, historian.

Electrical engineering society branch of American Institute of Electrical Engineers: Thaddeus Matylevich, chairman; George Romaine, vice chairman; Richard Santilli, recording secretary; Donald Ludwig, treasurer; Clyde Brewer, AIEE corresponding secretary; Emory Richardson, IRE corresponding secretary, and Jack Helm, student council representative.

Penn. State Greeiers Club: Tony Cronstandt, president; Carl Bond, vice president; Edward Kilroy, treasurer; Edward Fogarty, recording secretary; Alfred Strickler, corresponding secretary, and Marjorie Seymour, publicity secretary.

Penn State Riding Club: Edna Grabiak, president; Jean Lathlaen, vice president; Ruth King, treasurer, and Earl Hower, show manager.

French Club: Winfield Scott, president; Alice Doles, vice president; Gloria Schoffel, secretary, and Jean Martin, treasurer.

Petroleum Engineering Society: Dale Croasnum, president; Glenn McMaster, vice president; Ronald Gardner, recording secretary; Stewart Wright, corresponding secretary, and Charles McClintock, treasurer.

Pi Lambda Sigma, pre-legal honorary: John Hoerr, president; Richard Floun, vice president; and Yvonne Carter, secretary treasurer.

Psychology Club: Kenneth Cook, president; Walter Hutchins, vice president; Genevieve Castrodale, secretary, and Alice Lindsay, treasurer.

Radio Guild: Patricia Hathaway, president; Frank Hutchinson, vice president; Ann Jones, secretary, and Jay Murphy, treasurer.

Society of American Engineers: Lawrence Fawber, president; Harry Hadley, vice president; Albert Turchick, secretary, and Gunther Badorrek, treasurer.

Social Science Research Center: G. E. Brandow, M. A. Mook, E. W. Miller, M. N. McGeary, and R. B. Saylor elected to board of governors for three year period; Ruth R. Honey, two year period.

Society for the Advancement of Management: Raymond Lantz, president; Walter Lake, vice president in charge of program; Edward Bunker, vice president in charge of membership; William Emery, recording secretary; Louis Haefner, corresponding secretary; (Continued on page 16, column 1)

Alumni Cited for Military Service

Several alumni of the College have recently been cited for outstanding service in the armed forces.

The American Spirit Honor Medal has been awarded to Airman Third Class Leatrice Bianco, a 1946 graduate of the College, for being the outstanding member of her basic training class at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Tex.

Pvt. David Christopher of Beaver Falls, a 1951 liberal arts graduate, has received a commendation for achieving the highest grade in his graduating class at the U.S. Army Finance School.

Shea Named Chief

Maj. Walter Shea, of Copiague, N.Y., a 1938 forestry graduate, has been assigned to the First Air Reserve district headquarters at Harrisburg as chief of subordinate training units in Pennsylvania. While at the College Major Shea was a member of the track team and Alpha Zeta fraternity.

Among 550 men awarded enlistment commissions at the U.S. Naval Officer Candidate School, Newport, R.I., were Joseph Cook and Robert Kunkle. Both men graduated in 1951 with B.A. degrees. William Hild Jr., who received his B.S. degree at the College in 1951, was among the enlisted men receiving commissions in the Naval Reserve.

Master Sgt. William Pile, former student of the College, is now on tour in southern Germany with the 28th Division Glee Club.

Braun Applies for Commission

Pvt. Darwin W. Clutter, former research physicist at the College, has been assigned to the Fifth Infantry Division for 16 weeks basic training at Indiantown Gap.

William Braun, graduate student in education, has recently applied for a commission in the United States Air Force and assignment to a one-year post-graduate meteorological school.

Pvt. Harold Beringer, former student at the College, has completed processing at the Fort George Meade reception center and has been assigned for 16 weeks basic training.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 42...
THE PORCUPINE

He's listened to the weak thread of so many shallow claims he's fed-up! His point is—there's a thorough test of cigarette mildness. Millions of smokers throughout America concur.

It's the sensible test... the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke—on a day-after-day, pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camels in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste) you'll see why...

After all the Mildness Tests...

Camel leads all other brands by billions

PUBLIC SALE

JUNE 7, 1952

Furniture!

30-40 of each of the following items: Steel beds, wooden beds, single or double deck; dressers—mahogany, oak, and walnut; desks—some with space for typewriter; side chairs—oak and walnut; a few walnut arm chairs; framed mirrors.

All kinds of lamps; several easy chairs; three-cushion upholstered sofa; night stands; bookracks; tables; walnut highboy; 2 wardrobes; R.C.A. Radio Console; and many other items!

TIME: 1:30 P. M., SATURDAY, JUNE 7, 1952

PLACE: Fraternity House on the campus of the College. Known as Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity. Enter the campus at the Power Plant, corner of West College Avenue and Burrowes Road. Drive to the first stop sign. First house on right, after stop sign. Patrolman at stop sign will show you where to park.

AUCTIONEER: E. M. SMITH