

Religious Groups Open --

(Continued from page Sixteen)

terbury Club ran a concession stand near Beaver Field.

Hillel Foundation, a national organization devoted to cultural, religious, and counseling service for Jewish students, will open its activities during Orientation Week. Having abandoned the former building on 133 W. Beaver avenue, the Foundation will begin its activities in its new building at 240 S. Miles street. The building contains a synagogue, an auditorium, a library, recreation room, classrooms, and offices.

A welcome service will be held at 8 p.m. Friday, a mixer will be held at 8 p.m. Saturday, and a film program will be held Sunday night. High holy days services will begin at Hillel Sept. 19. Events are continuous the whole week throughout the school year. These include observance of holy days, religious or cultural discussion groups, committee activities, business meetings, and social events.

Hillel Hilites, the weekly newspaper, will be sent to members through the mail. Names of all Jewish students registering are listed for this. Registration cards, listing choices of student activities, will be distributed at the foundation. A weekly radio program, The Hillel Hour, will be broadcast over WMAJ. The first issue of Hillel Hilites will give the hour for the broadcasts.

Christian Science Organization looks after the spiritual needs of its student members on campus. Its meetings are held at 6:45 p.m. Thursday in 304 Old Main. The meetings are religious, consisting of Bible lessons and faith testimonials by members of the group. Social activities are in the hands of the Christian Science Monitor Youth Forum, which sponsors such activities as parties at the PSCA cabin, skating parties, and skiing and tobogganing trips.

Evangelical United Brethren Fellowship, dedicated to leading its members into close fellowship to God, plans to have weekly meetings at St. John's Evangelical United Brethren church, Burrows and Beaver avenue, 6 p.m. Sunday. A monthly business meeting is planned, and every month a special speaker will be invited to talk to the group. At the first meeting Sunday, a definite schedule will be outlined for this and for planned social events, which will include cabin parties, discussion groups, and open houses.

Young Friends presents an opportunity for both Quaker and other interested students to meet and discuss the applications of principles of Quakerism to the solution of community and world problems. Meetings are held at the Meeting House, 318 S. Atherton street. Informal discussion groups are sponsored at 9:30 a.m. Sunday; morning worship is at 10:45 p.m., and a meeting is held at 7 p.m. Sunday. Unscheduled Friday evenings are open for suppers, square dancing, open house, or hikes.

Lutheran Student's Association will present Lutheran students a five-point objective program, emphasizing worship, Bible study, evangelism, service, and recreation. The new Lutheran Student Center is located at 412 W. College avenue. The center is open 8 p.m. to midnight Friday for recreation. A student bible class is held weekly in the Grace Lutheran Church at 9:30 a.m. Sunday; the service is conducted at 10:45 a.m.

The first weekly meeting of the Lutheran Student Association will be held at the Center at 6:30 p.m. Sunday. Bible studies will be conducted throughout the week. A business meeting will be held twice a month. Friday night is the usual night for social activities, including bowling, picnics, game nights, and wiener roasts. The Penn State Lutheran is a monthly publication.

United Student Fellowship unites the spiritual interests of the Evangelical and Reformed students and the Congregational Christian Church students. Organization meetings are held at 6:30 p.m. Sunday at the Faith Evangelical and Reformed Church on College avenue and Miles street, with a 5:30 p.m. supper program every other week. The meetings consist of discussions and activities concerning family relations, world religions, problems, and seasonal religious topics.

A social event, party, bowling or skating party is held at 7:30 p.m. every other Friday. Tatler, the fellowship newsletter, is published twice a semester.

Orthodox Church Student Group was established to provide for the religious needs of the various nationality groups belonging to the Orthodox Rite church. This religious group includes those of the Greek, Russian, Ukrainian, Syrian, Armenian, Romanian, Albanian, Bulgarian, and Serbian Orthodox churches.

Services will probably be held at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Foster avenue and Frazier street. They will be conducted at least once a month by priests from these church groups from cities near the College. The group is planning to organize a choir to sing the responses at mass.

Notices concerning meetings and services will be printed in the Daily Collegian and the Centre Daily Times. Interested students may check for time and place of the first meeting at the PSCA office, 304 Old Main.

Channing Foundation brings together Unitarian students. As yet there is no time planned for the meetings. The first meeting will be arranged by Howard Hosmer. Students interested in membership may phone Dr. Gerald Moser, College extension 2422 or State College 2861, or Dr. Oscar A. Haac, College extension 2422 or State College 7257.

Last term topical discussions and discussions on different religions were conducted. The publication is in the hands of the national organization, which publishes American Unitarian Youth.

Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, a non-denominational religious group, meets at 7:30 p.m. Friday evenings in 405 Old Main. The meeting is followed by a general social activity, discussion, party with refreshments, and an invited speaker, representing any denomination. Fall and Spring conferences are planned.

The spring conference is held at Camp Hate-To-Leave-It, five miles outside of Bellefonte. There, a visiting clergyman usually conducts a Saturday night fireside talk. On the second Sunday of every month, the fellowship conducts services at Rockview Penitentiary.

Inter-Church Student Fellowship is a combined action group of every denominational student organization on campus. The fellowship meeting, made up of two appointed representatives from each church group, is held the first Sunday of every month. Plans are outlined at the meeting; the delegates then present the plan of activity to their respective church groups for these church groups from cities

(Continued on Page Twenty)

East Dorms --

(Continued from page Seventeen) colleges to house only two students in a double room and only one student in a single. With the increased enrollments in the colleges throughout the country, many have found it necessary to double up in the dormitory rooms. It is not, however, the policy of the College to take this action.

In addition to the men living in the dormitories, there are a number of students living in town who are classified as resident students, and about 2000 fraternity men living in the fraternity houses.

The individual capacities of the dormitories are Hamilton, 601; McKee, 275; Watts, 101; Irvin, 73; Jordan, 113; Nittany, 1028; and Pollock, 769.

Any housing problems should be taken to Russell E. Clark, director of housing, Old Main.

College Receives Marine Collection

Two former State College residents have presented a large collection of marine mollusk and animal life to the College. They are Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Norris, now of Marathon, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris began the collection as a hobby three years ago and it now numbers more than 200 variety of shells. Norris says most of the specimens were taken from the Atlantic and Gulf coasts of Florida, but there are also species from Mexico, California, China, Japan, Iran, Ireland, Africa, and Sweden.

Part of the collection will be displayed in the Pattee Library later this month.

Four varieties of trout inhabit streams and lakes of New Mexico.

WELCOME STUDENTS

from

Woodring Floral Gardens

"Everything in Flowers"

117 E. BEAVER AVENUE

"Across From Post Office"

Give yourself this

Beginning-of-the-Term Quiz

... to help you get better grades

on your end-of-the-term quizzes

Sharpen your pencil and scratch your head for a few moments. This "quickie" quiz will save you a lot of head-scratching, hair-pulling and sleepless nights when those all-important finals come up at the end of the term.

True False

- The New York Times brings you more news than any other newspaper. True False
- The New York Times has the biggest staff of reporters and correspondents of any newspaper. True False
- The New York Times has 100 correspondents overseas in all important world capitals. True False
- The New York Times has the biggest Washington staff of any newspaper. True False
- The New York Times has the biggest staff of sports writers of any newspaper. True False
- The New York Times prints more of the news you need to help you in your courses. True False
- Faculty members in colleges all over the U.S. read The New York Times and recommend it to their students. True False
- Reading The New York Times every day can help you get better grades, and keep you interestingly informed. True False

Answers: If you answered "true" to all the questions, you get 100%. And you'll get a lot closer to 100% on the exams that really count, if you read The New York Times every day to keep up with the news that will help you in your class work. You'll enjoy reading The Times, too... its colorful sports pages, the movie, stage and book reviews, the food and fashion page, the daily crossword puzzle. To get The Times delivered right to your room every day, get in touch with your Times campus representative:

Kermit Knauss

600 N. Allen

Welcome Freshmen

We want you to feel at home at the hang-out of all Penn Staters... The Corner Room. Come in any time... morning, afternoon or evening... you'll always find "the gang"... and you'll always find delicious food at...

THE CORNER UNUSAL

WARNER BROTHERS

CATHAUM

JOHN WAYNE
NANCY OLSON
"BIG JIM McLAIN"

WARNER BROTHERS

STATE

CLIFTON WEBB
GINGER ROGERS
"DREAMBOAT"

WARNER BROTHERS

NITTANY

JACK WARNER
NADIA GRAY
"VALLEY OF THE EAGLES"