

Eisenhower Will Speak At Government Program

President Milton S. Eisenhower will speak at 8 p.m. Thursday in Schwab Auditorium as part of the Student Government Day program, according to Robert Smoot, chairman of the Student Government Day committee.

Immediately following the President's speech, All-College Cabinet will hold a meeting on the stage of Schwab. The meeting will be open to all students as part of the program to better acquaint them with student government.

Concert Group To Campaign For Members

The Community Concert Association will begin its annual membership campaign for new members Oct. 6 and continue through Oct. 11. Renewals will be accepted during the week of Sept. 29.

New students on campus and those unable to obtain memberships last year will have the opportunity to join, due to vacant memberships held last fall by seniors and others no longer on campus, according to F. R. Matson, president of the association.

Dr. Matson pointed out that memberships are limited by the seating capacity of Schwab Auditorium, and during the past two years all available memberships were sold. No tickets will be sold for individual concerts and memberships are not available after the close of the campaign.

At the conclusion of the campaign, artists for the program will be booked in accordance with the budget made possible by the number of memberships sold.

A native of Lincoln, Nebr., Dr. Silva completed her undergraduate and graduate work at the University of Michigan. She has been serving on the Penn State faculty since 1948. Dr. Silva was granted a one year leave of absence and sailed late last month for Egypt.

UBA Will Close Early for Parade

The Used Book Agency in the TUB will close at 5 p.m. today instead of the regularly scheduled 9 p.m. because of the parade and dance tonight, Howard Giles, UBA chairman, announced yesterday.

The UBA operated in the ballroom of the TUB this fall for the first time. This great increase of space, Giles said, has eliminated lines for which the UBA was once famous.

A greater number of books has been handled this fall than any other time in UBA history, Giles added. He again thanked the Student Union for eliminating the great space problem by allowing the use of the TUB ballroom.

The Community Forum drive for the purpose of selling season tickets will be held Sept. 29 to Oct. 4. Tickets may be purchased from committee members or at the Student Union, desk in Old Main and at the Commerce Club.

The season will open on Nov. 10 with Marquis Childs, whose syndicated column "Washington Calling" is printed in more than 150 newspapers daily.

Others on this year's program are Walter H. Judd, Republican congressman from Minnesota; Hodding Carter, newspaper editor and author; Begum Ikramullah, Pakistan stateswoman; and Elsa Lanchester, character actress and nightclub entertainer, presented by Paul Gregory.

Considering Customs

The purpose of the entire day is to better acquaint the students with Penn State student government and show them their place in it. An extensive program to orient freshmen toward student government is also scheduled for the day, Smoot said.

The committee is considering the possibility of instituting a custom for the freshman. This custom would consist of the frosh knowing facts about student government such as the name of the All-College president, number of members on Cabinet, and who fills the positions on Cabinet.

Serving on the Student Government Day committee are Smoot, Arthur Rosfeld, Donald Herbein, Janet Herd, Charles Obertance, Richard Neuweiler, and George Greer.
