

Rush Parties, At Homes Set By Sororities

With the first week of coke dates ending today, both sororities and rushees are preparing for rushing parties, lasting from 2 to 3 p.m. Sunday, and at homes scheduled for Monday through Thursday nights.

Rushees may wear suits or afternoon dresses and hose to at homes, and may stay no longer than an hour in each of the sorority suites they visit. They may accept less, but no more than, four invitations which must be answered formally. Replies must be returned to the Panhellenic Post Office in Atherton Hall by 1 p.m. today.

Give Parties Twice

Then comes the parties with their costumes, varied refreshments, and favors for remembrances. Rushees may also accept four party invitations which automatically mean that they may visit that sorority for coke dates on days alternate to the parties. Each sorority will give four performances of the same party—two on each night. One group of sororities will entertain on Monday and Wednesday and the other half, Tuesday and Thursday.

Invitations and acceptances will be coordinated by the Panhel Post Office where the information giving the times that each rushee is to attend her particular parties will be distributed.

Sea Life Represented

The 19 parties are built around a variety of themes from Alpha Gamma Delta's "Alpha Gam Goes to Athens" to Zeta Tau Alpha's "Zeta in Your Future" gypsy party.

Life on the sea will be represented by both Delta Gamma, "The Good Ship Delta Gamma," and Alpha Xi Delta, "Wharf Party." The night club atmosphere will be emphasized in Delta Zeta by "Cafe DZ," in Theta Phi Alpha by "Club Tepa," and in Delta Delta Delta by "Delta Blue Room."

Barnum and Bailey will have competition when Beta Sigma Omicron presents its "Beta Big Top." Phi Sigma Sigma will give a "Sunshine Revue" and Sigma Delta Tau is planning a style show for its "Mademoiselle" party.

Two Plans 'Trips'

"Greenwich Village" is the theme of the Alpha Epsilon Phi party, and Kappa Alpha Theta will have a "Gay Nineties" review. A Greek theme will be followed by Chi Omega, and Alpha Chi Omega will hold a "Mexican Fiesta."

The trip from "Heaven to Hell" will be made by Gamma Phi Beta at the same time that Kappa Delta makes the trip from "Hell to Heaven."

South Sea Islanders will perform in the Phi Mu suite, but Pirates will hold their own in Alpha Omicron Pi. Kappa Kappa Gamma will present the "Mardi Gras."

Local Churches Plan Receptions For Students

Members of local Protestant churches are planning receptions for the student religious groups at 7:30 tonight.

Protestant denominations in State College are University Baptist Church, 411 South Burrows street; St. Andrews Episcopal Church, 316 S. Frazier street; Evangelical United Brethren Church, corner S. Burrows street and W. Beaver avenue; Grace Lutheran Church, corner W. College avenue and S. Atherton street.

Also St. Paul's Methodist Church, E. College avenue and S. Miles street; First Presbyterian Church, corner W. Beaver avenue and S. Frazier street; Faith Reformed Church, E. College avenue opposite Atherton Hall, and Young Friends, 318 S. Atherton street.

All receptions will be held at the churches, rather than the student foundations. They are open to any student wishing to attend.

Leading Chemists To Address Class

A series of lectures by leading chemists has been arranged for Chemistry 531. Dr. W. C. Fernelius, head of the Department of Chemistry, said recently.

Dr. D. J. Cram, of the University of California, will deliver the third of his series at 4:10 p.m. today in 119 Osmond on "The Synthesis and Properties of Paracyclophanes."

Next week, Dr. Robert W. Taft, assistant professor of chemistry, will present three lectures on "Separation of Polar and Steric Factors in Rates of Organic Reactions."

Societies Rename Four as Trustees

Delegates of agricultural and industrial societies have renamed four incumbents to the Board of Trustees.

Trustees re-elected for three-year terms are F. H. Gyger, Jr., Kimberton; John H. Light, Annville; Charles E. Oakes, Allentown; and Rodger W. Rowland, New Castle.

Three other alumni re-elected in a mail ballot were William D. Harkins, Philadelphia; George H. Deike, Pittsburgh; and James B. Long, Blue Bell.

The Santa Fe trail stretched from Independence, Mo., to Santa Fe, N.M., a distance of 780 miles.

Alumni Group Elects Henning

Dr. Harriet Harry Henning, State College, has been elected third vice president of the Penn State Alumni Association.

Others elected were George A. Doyle, Philadelphia, president; John T. Ryan, Pittsburgh, first vice president; H. I. Smith, Washington, D.C., second vice president.

Robert E. Cochrane, Pittsburgh, was elected for a three-year term on the Athletic Advisory Board, and Carl B. Seeds, Washington, D.C., was appointed to complete the remaining part of the unexpired year of J. Cooper French, Philadelphia, who resigned.

Three retiring members were also presented models of the Nittany Lion in recognition of their service. They were E. Helen Williams, Monessen; Wayne W. Weaver, Soudersburg; and Clarence G. Stoll, Gloucester, Va.

Independents May Sign For Leonides Council

Independent women interested in serving on Leonides council may put up their names for nomination in their hostesses' office.

Vivian Peterson, president of the independent women's organization, said that elections will be held following the Women's Student Government Association house meetings held next week.
