Cabinet Approves Five Gift Publicity Proposals

Five proposals designed to help equalize publicity during senior class gift campaigns were approved with two amendments by All-College Cabinet Thursday night.

The proposals will now be presented to the senior class gift committee for their consideration.

Richard Lemyre, chairman of a cabinet committee to investigate methods of equalizing publicity for the gifts, presented the proposals. The cabinet committee was formed last semester following complaints of unequal publicity.

At that time members of the Radio Guild told cabinet that they considered treatment of publicity for the gifts in the Daily Collegian unfair. The gift fund has been divided between a student radio station and a student press.

The five proposals presented by Lemyre were (1) that a deadline be set for suggestions for the gift, (2) that publicity other than that in the Daily Collegian and by an established number of posters be outlawed, (3) that the senior class gift committee investigate any violation of these rules and subtract votes accordingly, (4) that equal publicity be given all gift suggestions in the Daily Collegian and that each sponsoring group write an article publicizing its gift suggestion to be placed in the Daily Collegian, and (5) that cabinet provide funds for publication of 100 posters which would give publicity to all suggestions.

Publicity Control Difficult
The first three of Lemyre's proposals were passed by cabinet by unanimous vote. The fourth and fifth proposals, however, were approved only after amendment.

The fourth proposal, that the Daily Collegian give equal publicity to all gift suggestions, caused considerable discussion among both cabinet members and others at the meeting. David Pellnitz, editor of the Daily Collegian and representative of the Board of Publications on cabinet, told cabinet that complete control of stories was impossible and that the articles written by the sponsoring groups would be used only after editing.

Pellnitz Proposes Change
Ross B. Lehman, assistant executive secretary of the Alumni Association, told cabinet that it was unfair to ask for control of news stories. "What if something more important than a gift story turns up on a day when the story is planned," Lehman said. "Would cabinet still ask Dave to give it the preferred space?"

Pellnitz then proposed an amendment to the proposal which would insert the words "in as far as possible" to the fourth proposal. The proposal with the amendment was then passed.

The fifth gift proposal — that cabinet provide for posters — was

West Dorm Nominations Deadline Set

Nominations for officers of student government divisions in the West Dorm area must be made before Friday, Bryson Craine, counselor for student government in the West Dorm area, announced yesterday.

The nominations, to be made by a petition signed by ten or more students living in the division, should be submitted to the student counselor before midnight Friday, Craine said. A person may be nominated for only one office.

The election of officers will be held Sept. 29 from 7 p.m. to midnight in the counselors' suites, Craine said. All full-time students, except counselors, living in the West Dorms, may cast one vote for each office. Each candidate will be allowed to express his views in a meeting to be held before the election.

After the district elections, the West Dorm Council will hold its first meeting at 7 p.m. Oct. 6 in the McKee Hall lounge. All presidents and vice-presidents from Watts Hall, Irvin Hall, and first, second, third and fourth floors of Hamilton Hall will attend the meeting.

Other districts are level A, level B, Hamilton Hall; level B, first floor, second floor, third and fourth floors McKee Hall; and Jordan Hall.

passed after an amendment presented by Joan Hutchon, president of the Women's Student Government Association, was added. The amendment delegated the expense of the poster publication to the gift fund itself.

At the meeting cabinet accepted the resignation of Douglas Shoerke from the Spring Week committee and accepted the appointments of JoAn Lee as chairman of Spring Week; Joseph Haines as Spring Week booth chairman, Howard Giles as Used Book Agency chairman, and David Pellnitz as chairman of the committee for selection of students for Who's Who in American Universities.

Nine Changes Made In College Calendar

Nine changes have been made in the calendar for the 1952-53 school year, according to the published revision of the College Senate committee on calendar.

The earliest change affecting students and faculty members concerns the Thanksgiving recess. The new starting time for the recess is 11:50 a.m. Nov. 25. Formerly the time was set for 5 p.m. Nov. 25.

The Christmas recess will end at 1:10 p.m. Jan. 6. Originally the closing time for this recess was 8 a.m. Jan. 5.

Fall semester examination starting time has been moved up from 8 a.m. Jan. 19 to 1:30 p.m. Jan. 17. The fall semester ends at 12:30 p.m. Jan. 27 instead of 5 p.m.

The new registration system eliminated the old system of board of controls. This extended the spring semester registration and orientation period to include Jan. 28 to 31. Formerly, Jan. 28 was reserved for board of control.

Spring semester classes will end at 11:50 a.m. May 23, instead of 5 p.m. May 26. The resulting change has caused the Spring semester examinations starting date to be changed to 1:30 p.m. May 23 from 8 a.m. May 27. The spring semester ends at 12:30 p.m. June 3 instead of 5 p.m. June 5.

Commencement Day is set for June 4. Originally it had been scheduled June 8.

Ernest W. Callenbach, professor of poultry husbandry, is the chairman of the College Senate committee on calendar.

Judging Team Takes Second At Exposition

Penn State's judging teams fared well in intercollegiate competition at the annual Eastern States Livestock Exposition at Springfield, Mass., this week.

The livestock judging team took second place among eight other college and university teams. State was posed out of the championship by Ohio State University.

Ernest E. Stahl, fifth semester student in animal husbandry, was the highest-scoring individual in the competition, taking first place in swine judging and tying for third in horse judging. Guy Temple of the College team tied for ninth place in individual scoring.

In other competition, the dairy cattle judging team placed fourth out of 13 other teams. Maryland, Ohio State, and Cornell ranked in that order ahead of State's entry.

William Crawford was eighth among individual rating, while Boyd Wolf placed as second highest individual in Guernsey judging.

Chem-Phys Appoints 9 Committees

The Chemistry-Physics Student Council appointed nine committees for the fall semester at its first meeting of the term Wednesday night.

With Lincoln Warrell presiding, the council discussed such topics as the suggestion box, school tours, and coke concessions.

Edward Storms was selected chairman of the course evaluation group. Lloyd Hartsough, Gil Unangst, and George Wright were selected as assistants.

Chosen for the election committee were Gerald Loughran, chairman, and Marilyn Buzby, Raymond Ferguson, and Kenneth Kresge, assistants.

The Newsletter committee will be headed by William Deppe, Janet Herd, James Ritter, Justine Strolis, John Mallick, and Unangst will aid him.

Frank Pramuk will be at the helm of the student faculty mixer committee. Assisting him will be Edward Walden, Strolis, James Dillon, and John Merges.

Irwin Gelb was named to attend to the student council-executive committee business, while Neal Yocum will be responsible for the constitution duplication.

Richard Brown will head the blue book file committee, and will be aided by Samuel Engle, Douglas Ayer, David Swanson, and George Tice.

Appointed to attend to the council membership replacement committee and the open house committee were Dillon and Ferguson.

After the appointments had been made, Ayer reported on the suggestion box. Ayer said that the box has already been made and will be put near a bulletin board in one of the school's buildings.

Two Graduates Receive Physiatrics Scholarships

Norma Curcio and Ruth Hoffer, Class of '52, have been granted scholarships to the D. T. Watson School of Physiatrics in Leetsdale by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Anyone interested in preparing for physical therapy work may contact Arthur L. Harnett, 203 Moffatt Cottage.

Debate Squad To Organize Tuesday Night

A preliminary meeting of the men's debate squad will be held at 7 p.m. Tuesday in 316 Sparks. The meeting is open to all members of the team and those upperclassmen and freshmen interested in debating.

A schedule for tryouts for the squad will be set up at the meeting.

To try out, candidates must deliver a five-minute speech on this year's national intercollegiate debate topic. Resolved: That the Congress of the U.S. should enact a compulsory fair employment practices law. Tryouts will begin 7 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 1, in 316 Sparks. No previous debate experience is necessary to try out.

The debate season will open with the international debate in October. For the debate a two-man team from Great Britain, one of several such teams touring universities and colleges throughout the U.S., comes to the College to debate with two members of the men's squad. No winner is recognized in the competition.

Young Republicans To Hear Stuart

H. L. Stuart, Centre County Republican chairman, will speak to the Young Republicans Club on its part in the fall campaign at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in 202 Willard. Anyone interested in club activities may attend, according to Vincent Yakowicz, president.

The group will also set up committees for the coming campaign and will discuss plans for club social activities.

Freshmen to Discuss Class Colors, Dance

The freshman class will meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday in 121 Sparks, according to Robert Smoot, freshman class president. Class colors will be discussed and a tentative date will be set for the annual freshman dance. Smoot said a discussion will also be held concerning women wearing dinks instead of green bows during freshman customs.
