

Adlai, Ike Exchange Blows in Speeches

Stevenson Hits Taft Campaign Position Again

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Sept. 19 (AP)—Gov. Adlai Stevenson today called the Republicans "grouchy old pessimists" and said they haven't been happy since the days of President McKinley.

And the Democratic presidential nominee banged away again at a favorite theme—that the signals in the campaign of his GOP opponent, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, now are being called by Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio.

Stevenson drew applause and laughter from a capacity crowd of 5400 rain-soaked persons in the Municipal Auditorium as he chided the Republicans with a barrage of witticisms.

Adlai Stevenson

He had been speaking only a minute or so, however, when rain began to fall and he joked that: "The Republicans must have interfered."

A moment later there was a cloudburst and a violent wind storm swept the area. Huddled under a protecting canopy, the Illinois governor asked the crowd to follow him into the adjacent auditorium.

The place was filled in five minutes and Stevenson picked up where he had left off.

"At least I saved you from drowning," the governor joked. "What I really want to do is to save you from drowning next January."

Moving from Connecticut into Massachusetts on this second day of a week-end Eastern campaign swing, Stevenson jabbed repeatedly in Springfield at Eisenhower's contention he (Stevenson) is being too jocular in his campaign for the presidency.

"This week my distinguished opponent has succeeded in flushing out a new issue," the governor declared.

"After long smoke-filled sessions and tense high strategy meetings the Republican high command has finally decided what the great issue of the campaign is. To my considerable surprise they are now saying that the central issue of our time is humor.

"I need not add that the Republican leadership is against it."

John L. Lewis, Operators Near Strike Accord

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 (AP)—Reports circulated today that John L. Lewis and Northern soft coal operators may be close to an agreement that would avert a strike due Monday.

None of the reports could be confirmed but they came from well qualified industry and government sources close to the situation.

The only word on the record that the threatened walkout may be averted came from Secretary of the Interior Oscar Chapman, who told a reporter:

"I am keeping informed as much as possible and I am hopeful a settlement will be worked out."

The gist of the reports from industry and government sources was that President Lewis of the United Mine Workers and Harry Moses, negotiator for the Northern mines, were now getting close on money matters.

An agreement, it was said, might be in the neighborhood of $1.80 daily wage boost for the miners, plus a 10-cents-a-ton increase in the 30-cent royalty now paid by mine owners into the miners' welfare fund.

U.S. to Decide Whether Chaplin May Return

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 (AP)—The government ordered an inquiry today to decide whether Charlie Chaplin, now on his way to Europe, should be barred from returning to the United States.

Atty. Gen. McGranery announced the action in the case of the English-born, four-times-married comedian, whose name has been associated with leftist causes and who once was investigated by the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

McGranery said he has told the Immigration and Naturalization Service to keep Chaplin out of the country, if and when he returns, until a hearing determines whether he is admissible under United States law.

The Justice Department declined to elaborate.

Under immigration laws an alien — Chaplin never has become a citizen, although he came to this country 40 years ago—can be refused entry into the country for moral turpitude or for political affiliations.

Booed Reds Ask German Plebescite

BONN, Germany, Sept. 19 (AP)—A five-man delegation from the Soviet zone, booed and jeered by anti-Communist spectators, called on West Germany today to help form an East-West German commission to investigate the possibility of nation-wide elections.

The Red emissaries also proposed that the West and East German Parliaments exchange representatives to discuss unifying this divided country.

They said that both East and West Germans should be allowed to take part in any Big Four talks on the future of Germany.

Dr. Hermann Ehlers, president of the West German Bundestag, lower house who received the group, immediately declared that their proposals "followed the lines of the well-known Eastern propaganda."

He brusquely rejected a request from the East Germans for permission to stay in West Germany until the Bonn Parliament considers their proposals.

The East Germans were headed by Deputy Premier Otto Nuschke, 69. They drove up in big, Soviet-made cars and entered the Parliament annex smiling for a strained, 30-minute conference with the heavy-set bushy-haired Ehlers.

A crowd of several hundred anti-Communists shouted and cursed at the delegation.

"Give us back our war prisoners," the crowd shouted. "Go back to Moscow. We do not deal with kidnappers."

General Says Machine Heads For Stevenson

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 19 (AP)—Dwight D. Eisenhower said tonight that Adlai Stevenson is a candidate of the "machine bosses" who will try to win the presidency for him "by whatever means" in the November election.

In the harshest indictment of the campaign the GOP presidential nominee declared "the bosses" delivered the vote and "sewed up the nomination for Stevenson."

Also, he accused the Truman administration of permitting the bosses to move "their kind" into federal jobs to "practice" on the national level the vicious morals of boss politics.

The speech was prepared for delivery at a Municipal Auditorium rally. The general arrived here to be greeted by 4000 persons at the railway station, and another crowd estimated at 35,000 to 40,000 along a parade route to his hotel.

The blistering Eisenhower attack on the Democratic leadership came after he had voiced a faith in the honesty of Sen. Richard M. Nixon of California, who is under fire from the Democrats for having accepted expense money from wealthy California business men.

But in his defense of Nixon, Eisenhower also made it clear he wants to hear a full explanation from Nixon of the situation which threatens to become perhaps a critical issue in the campaign.

Eisenhower suggested that Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee was "blocked" out of the Democratic nomination by "the city bosses," whom he named as "the heirs and joint heirs of the Kelly machine in Chicago, the Tammany machine in New York, the Hague machine in New Jersey and the Pendergast machine in Kansas City."

Eisenhower said that what the "bosses" really fear is a Republican victory, which he said "will mean honesty, not only out in front but honesty both front and back."

'Twentieth Century' Tryouts Tomorrow

Tryouts for the Players production, "Twentieth Century," will be held tomorrow night for persons previously connected with Players who have not read the part. Newcomers to the organization attended the readings Thursday night and last night.

The play, to be presented Nov. 6, 7, and 8 in Schwab Auditorium, is under the direction of Kelly Yeaton.

Police Set Traps For Three Convicts

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 19 (AP)—Hundreds of policemen threw up road blocks late today after a report that three men answering the description of the prisoners who escaped from the Lewisburg Federal Penitentiary took a car from an off-duty taxi-driver.

Police reported a man jumped into a car in the Squirrel Hill district and forced the driver to take him downtown where he leaped out of the auto and got into a 1952 two-tone green Oldsmobile in which two men were waiting for him.

Earlier in the day, a storekeeper identified a pair of his customers as two of the prisoners. Storekeeper Bruce Murphy said he was positive one of the wanted Nolan brothers was in his men's wear store before noon and was almost sure of the other customer.

Police officials called in all available men but found no trace of the men in the Golden Triangle. Last night a motorist reported he thought he saw the trio on Route 22 near the city.

U. S. Commissioner Edward W. McDonald issued bench warrants for the arrest of the three—Joseph Wayne Nolan, 26, his brother, Ballard, 20, both of Whitely County, Ky., and Elmer Schuer, 21, of Chicago.

The three escapees terrorized the Pennsylvania countryside after they broke from Lewisburg Federal Penitentiary, holding the James J. Hill family captive in their home near Philadelphia for hours Sept. 11.

Roadblocks failed to halt the fugitives.

Last Tuesday, two armed bandits robbed a Bronx branch of the Manufacturers Trust Co. of $12,600. They fled in a convertible car. Witnesses thought a third man was at the wheel.

Police said the bank bandits acted like "strictly amateurs who took a chance and got away with it."

However all three fugitives have records as bank robbers.

Bank employes identified the convicts from FBI circulars bearing their pictures.

Motor Training Course to Open

Discussion of highway improvements and driving attitudes is scheduled for the opening sessions of the 14th annual motor fleet supervisor training course of the Institute of Public Safety Monday in the Nittany Lion Inn.

The course will be a presentation of practical problems for accident prevention, conservation of manpower and equipment, and efficient and economical use of motor fleets.

Edward L. Keeler, assistant director of general extension, and Amos E. Neyhart, institute administrative head and course director, will welcome the delegates.

Superforts Bomb Red Army Center

SEOUL, Saturday, Sept. 19 (AP)—Thirty-three Superforts in the first mass daylight raid in 11 months dropped 300 tons of fire bombs Friday on a Communist military center near the East Korean industrial city of Hamburg.

A spokesman said all the Superforts, personally led by Brig. Gen. Wiley D. Ganey, chief of the Far East Air Forces Bomber Command, returned safely.

Swift Sabre jets flew protective cover for the big bombers, but Red fighters failed to challenge the raiders. The Russian-built MIGs rarely appear on the Korean East Coast, remaining closer to their Manchurian bases, some 180 miles to the west.

Other Sabres sighted about 50 MIGs on the Yalu River frontier during the day but no contacts were made.

While the heaviest air blow fell in the East, Allied troops fought on grimly for control of Old Baldy on the Western Korean Front.

The battle there raged for more than 24 hours. Chinese and Allied soldiers hugged the scarred slopes just a few yards from each other Friday night.

Two Allied columns, both supported by tanks, were bogged down to the east and west of the contested hill. Other Allied tanks were perched on the southern slopes, raking the crest with fire.

Infantrymen hugged shallow holes and wrecked bunkers as U.N. artillery and fighter-bombers poured explosives on the approaches to prevent Red reinforcements.
