

Coming Down!

THE GOAL POSTS bend like rubber as they are torn down prematurely at Saturday's game with Temple. Jubilant College students led by cheering freshmen swarmed onto the field late in fourth period to bring the posts crashing to the ground. —Photo by Schroeder

Players' to Open Season With Wilde Comedy

"The Importance of Being Earnest," a comedy by Oscar Wilde, will be the first production of Players' 1952-53 season. The play, directed by Robert Reifsnider, associate professor of dramatics, will open Oct. 10 at Center Stage, and will play seven weekends.

Admission prices will be $1 for both Friday and Saturday night performances, Frances Dektor, advertising manager, has announced. Food will no longer be served on Saturday night at Center Stage, as in the past.

Debate Team To Lay Plans For Tryouts

Members of the men's debate team and those interested in joining will meet at 7 tonight in 316 Sparks.

The preliminary meeting will be for the purpose of scheduling tryouts for the team. This year's national intercollegiate debate topic will be analyzed at the meeting.

Both freshmen and upperclassmen are eligible to try out for the squad, and no previous debate experience is necessary. Candidates must deliver a five-minute speech on either side of the national topic, Resolved: That the Congress of the U.S. should enact a compulsory fair employment practices law.

Tryouts will begin at 7 p.m. tomorrow in 316 Sparks.

IRC to Meet For Orientation

The International Relations Club will meet at 7:30 tonight in 208 Willard Hall to acquaint new students and members with the purposes and activities of the club and to introduce the club's co-advisers, Dr. Elton Atwater and Dr. Vernon Aspaturian, both of the Political Science department.

The local IRC is one of many similar organizations existing in colleges and universities throughout the country. It is organized by students who wish to be better informed on vital current issues relating to international affairs and affecting the general welfare of the peoples of the world.

The first public meeting, with a speaker to be announced, will be held on September 30.

'Farmer' Will Hold Staff Meeting Tonight

The Renn State Farmer, Agriculture school magazine, will hold a staff meeting at 8 tonight in 109 Agriculture Building. A. H. Imhof, agriculture journalist, will lecture on various communications techniques. All old members and other students who wish to join may attend.

The cast for "The Importance of Being Earnest," as announced by Reifsnider, includes Connie Melvin as Cecily Cardew, Lois Lehman as Gwendoline, Don Colbert as Jack, and Gordon Greer as Algernon.

Yvonne Voight will portray Lady Bracknell, Pat Farber will be seen as Miss Prism, Myron Cole as Dr. Chasuble, and Albert Kalson as Lane. Ed Grove will play the part of Merriman.

Russell Whaley has been added to the dramatics staff as a designer, and Muriel Stein is being employed as a full-time wardrobe mistress. This is the first semester that the positions have been filled on a full-time basis.

Other major Players' productions which have been scheduled for the season include "Major Barbara," "Children of Darkness," and "Right You Are if You Think So," at Center Stage; "Twentieth Century," "Amphitryon," "Lute Song," and "Merry Wives of Windsor," at Schwab Auditorium.

Post-Grads Plan Meeting Tomorrow

A convocation for students of the Graduate School will be held at 7 p.m. tomorrow in Schwab Auditorium. After the general session, representatives in the Graduate School student council will be elected. Students will then assemble into discussion groups according to schools.

Luther Harshbarger, College chaplain, will give the benediction. Harold K. Schilling, dean, will explain the functions of the Graduate School. Provost Adrian O. Morse and Woods Thomas, chairman of the Graduate Student Association, will also speak.

Freshman Class Meets Tonight in Sparks

The freshman class will meet at 7 tonight in 121 Sparks. Robert Smoot, freshman class president, announced that class colors will be discussed and a tentative date will be set for a freshman dance.

A discussion will also be held concerning women wearing dinks instead of green bows during freshman customs.

Cold Heralds Fall's Entrance

Summer sang its swan song last night at 10:24 p.m. as autumn tripped the light fantastic onto the College stage. Jack Frost may get into the act by making his debut Thursday.

This fall will be accompanied by cool temperatures, according to Dr. Charles Hosler, College meteorologist. In fact a cold front is due through this area tonight.

FMA to Report On Progress At Meeting

The Interfraternity Council, governing body of the fraternities, will meet at 7:30 tonight in 219 Electrical Engineering, Arthur Rosfeld, IFC president, announced yesterday.

William Hafley, chairman of the Fraternity Marketing Association, will give a committee report on the progress of the association thus far this year. FMA is a large-scale buying plan for fraternities which offers members savings on food budgets by purchasing food wholesale in quantity. The association is now serving 15 members.

Appointments to the IFC board of control will be announced and committee reports will be made for the safety committee by Richard Rostmeyer, for the Workshop committee by Robert Frame, and a report of the rushing program for new freshman men.

Ernest B. McCoy, dean of the School of Physical Education and Athletics, may speak if available, about student action and reaction at football games, according to Rosfeld.

6856 Attend Summer School

The College has reported a total of 6856 students enrolled in the 1952 Summer Sessions. The roll of students who already had received bachelor degrees numbered 4157. The enrollment also included 1793 veterans.

Degrees conferred at the close of the Main Summer Session and the Post Session totaled 707. Of this number, 432 were advanced degrees.

The enrollment figures included Inter-Session 1904; Main Summer Session 3584; Post-Session 1231; First Six Weeks Science Session 69; and second Six Weeks Science Session 68.

Froth Circulation Candidates to Meet

Freshman candidates for the Froth circulation staff will meet at 6:30 tonight in 2 Carnegie, Myron Enelow, circulation manager, announced yesterday.

Subscriptions for Froth may be purchased from members of the circulation staff. A subscription entitles the holder to seven issues for $1.75.

Blue Band Players Selected for 1952

Regular players and alternates recently selected for this year's Marching Blue Band, started the new season Saturday at the Temple game.

Those in the band include Arthur Bates, Robert Gill, Kenneth Goodman, and William Wohlheiser playing the piccolo; Harry Blansett, William Boyles, John Bubeck, Wilson Cramer, Richard Crosby, Warren Davis, William Durburow, William Frederick, Thomas Garbrick, William Giannetta, Robert Grimmer, Thomas Hahn, Mitchell Haller, Wilbur Kerstetter, George Luse, Donald Nevel, Robert Schlegel, Sidney Shade, Kenneth Shaffer, Fred Siefert, Glenn Stumpf, Ralph Turley, James Valone, and Merrill Yohe playing the clarinet.

At the bass clarinet are Daniel LeVan and Joseph Stremer; alto saxophone, George Anetakis, Russell DiMarco, John Jenkins, John McCabe, Randall Stephens, and Richard Stevens.

Tenor saxophonists are Edward Austin, Philip Bower, and Tyson Brown; Baritone saxophonists include, Duane Beals, and Richard Kartlick; and french horn, Neil Andree, Paul Aucker, John Haer, Lloyd Luffer, William Mills, Fred Orkiseski, James Paterson, and Eugene Thomas.

Playing cornet and trumpet are John Apgar, Clyde Ashbaugh, Ronald Beason, Joseph Beere, Donald Farmelo, Edward Graham, William Hess, Robert Jones, Carl Keim, John Leister, Kenneth Leight, William Lysinger, Tony Marco, Robert Marsh, Allan May, Richard Meek, Gene Phillips, Charles Springman, Roger Staub, Larry Stetler, Francis Taylor, Arch Wallace, James Williams, and Alan Wyand.

Donald Bagshaw, Bernard Carson, Evans Goodling, Lee Hampe, Robert Hartmann, Donald Lambert, John Swartz, Kenneth Titus, and Dwight Tothere play the baritone; Lyle Barnard, Richard Brown, Dave Caldwell, David Fishburn, Allan Hill, Wesley Kriebel, William Mitchell, Robert Potter, William Stackhouse, and Fred Wilder play the trombone.

At the basses are Frank Chiappetta, Dale Crawford, George Georgieff, Hubert Haugh, Stanley Michalski, John Moore, John Ritchey, Stephen Sentt, Harold Thompson, and Alexander Zerbani.

Young Republicans To Hear Address

H. L. Stuart, chairman of the Centre County Republicans, will address the local Young Republicans Club at 7:30 tonight in 202 Willard, Vincent Yakowicz, president, has announced.

Stuart will speak to the group on its part in the fall campaign. Yakowicz has urged anyone interested to attend. The club will also set up committees for the fall elections and discuss plans for social activities.

UBA to Return Money, Books To Students

Students who sold books through the UBA will be able to receive their money or collect unsold books during a three day period at the TUB.

Monday, September 29, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Tuesday, September 30, 8:30 a.m. to 9 p.m.; and Wednesday, October 1, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., will be the only days owners may retrieve unsold books, and have their book receipts honored.

Books not collected at this time become the property of the BX to be placed on sale at a later date.

Howard Giles, chairman of the UBA, stressed the necessity of collecting texts at this time, as this is a deviation of last semester's policy of storing unsold books. Approximately 400 unsold books were stored for the owners pending resale.

Nearly 1500 texts had been bought and sold as the UBA closed Friday after ten days of operation.

Students volunteered their services without compensation so that the 40 cent per book handling charge might go into a working capital for the BX.

Psych Results Now Available

Women who took psychology tests during Orientation Week may now have the results interpreted, Dr. Robert G. Bernreuter, director of the student advisory service, announced yesterday.

Appointments for the interpretation of the tests can be made at the Psychology Clinic Annex, located in the basement of the Women's Building. Results of the men's psychology tests have not yet been computed, and will be announced upon completion.

Bernreuter also requested that any freshmen who did not take the psychology tests given during Orientation Week should complete it tonight and at 7 tomorrow in 10 Sparks. Those who missed Part I of the exam should report tonight, while those freshmen who did not take Part II should report tomorrow night.

Refreshments

At the end of your straw.
For taste-tempting snacks
at purse-worthy prices

Rea & Dericks

S. Allen St. • State College

Today WARNER theatres

---

Cathlam

MICHAEL RENNIE
DEBRA PAGET
"LES MISERABLES"

---

State

GARY COOPER
THOMAS MITCHELL
"HIGH NOON"

---

Nittany

OPEN 6:00
VIVIEN LEIGH
"CAESAR AND CLEOPATRA"