

Rushing Will End With Coffee Hours

By LIX NEWELL

With the end of sorority rushing parties varying in settings from Athens to the high seas, rushees are looking forward to formal Coffee Hours to be held from 6:30 to 8 and 8:30 to 10 tonight. Rushees may accept only two invitations, which must be answered formally. Rushees will be called for in their rooms by members of the sororities and should wear formal evening dress.

PSC to Hear Wettstone Talk

Eugene Wettstone, gymnastics coach, will speak at a smoker sponsored by the Penn State Club at 7 tonight in the Hamilton Hall recreation room. His topic will be "The Olympic Tryouts at Penn State."

All independent men are invited to attend. The Penn State Club is a social organization for independent men. The club meets on the first and third Tuesday of each month. Its activities include the annual All-College talent show, theater parties, mixers, dances, and participation in intramural sports.

WRA Intramural Plans Announced

Women's Recreation Association intramurals will begin at the end of October with basketball, volleyball, ping pong, and bridge featured in the winter program.

Dormitory groups recently elected intramural representatives who will be in charge of organizing teams. In addition to the dorm units, sororities and town women will form teams.

The program of sports is under the direction of Virginia Hinner, intramural chairman. Miss Hinner will be assisted by Mimi Wagner.

Coffee Hours are the only rushing activity which may be held outside the sorority suite and for which cars may be used.

Invitations will be picked up at the Panhellenic Post Office, the only means of communication between sororities and rushees. Replies must be returned to the post office by 1 p.m. today.

The same system will be used for dividing rushees for the two coffee hours as was used for parties. Information on times that rushees will attend their particular parties will be available at 4:30 p.m. today at the post office.

Coffee Hours are the final activity in this year's only formal rushing period. Informal rushing will start Oct. 12 and last until the end of the year.

Preferential bids may be signed in Atherton Hall lounge from 10 to 11 tonight. Those rushees who do not sign their preferential bids tonight may do so from 8 to 12 a.m. tomorrow in 105 Old Main.

According to the system of preferential bidding, names of rushees and sororities appearing on bid lists and preferential cards remain confidential. The Dean of Women's office makes up the lists of acceptances for each sorority.

Strict silence will be observed between sorority members and rushees from the time of coffee hours until formal bidding at 5 p.m. tomorrow. Ribboning will be held at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow in the sorority suites.

Coeds Unprepared For First Fire Drill

By MIMI UNGAR

Nothing like a fire drill at 11:20 p.m. This was a popular statement Wednesday night as women students had their first practice this year at a fire drill.

This isn't exactly the activity that women students look forward to! However, it is the only way they can get out of the dormitory after hours—and they don't even have a chance to prepare for it.

The system this year is quite unique. Names such as fire marshal, trailer, and checker are given to women who contribute various services during the drill. The fire marshal makes sure that the "giddy females" keep their voices down, and she also helps the checker in seeing that all who leave for the fire drill return to their lovely abodes.

The time spent outdoors Wednesday night at this unusually late hour evidenced all types of apparel. Pajamas and robes were common. Party outfits and evening gowns indicated that some were still reliving their early evening activities. And the night hawks, who study in their school clothes, were scattered few and far between.

While women were pouring from all exits of each dorm and the marshalls and checkers were performing their duties, the trailer was busy inspecting each room under her supervision. It was her duty to see that shades were up, overhead lights were on, closets were closed, bureau drawers and windows were closed, and doors, with the locks snapped out, were closed.

Religion

Groups Plan Social, Worship Programs

By LaVONNE ALTHOUSE

Two student religious organizations plan worship services and four are arranging social events for tonight.

Dr. Robert E. Dengler, professor and head of the Department of Classical Languages, will be guest speaker at Sabbath Eve services at 8 tonight at the Hillel Foundation, 224 S. Miles street, Aron

Hoffman, chairman of the religious committee, will conduct the services, assisted by members of Alpha Epsilon Pi, who will also serve as hosts at a reception to follow the service.

The Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship will hear the Rev. Jack Murray from the Church of the Open Door in Philadelphia at 7:30 tonight in 405 Old Main. The meeting is open to all students. The group plans a social hour after the worship service.

Among the social plans, both Westminster Foundation and Roger Williams Fellowship are planning roller skating parties. Students will meet at Westminster Foundation, corner W. Beaver avenue and S. Frazier street or at the University Baptist Church, corner W. Nittany avenue and S. Burrowes street before 7:30 p.m.

Wesley Foundation has a "Pigskin Frolic" scheduled to begin at 7:30 tonight in the Wesley gymnasium. The foundation is on the corner of E. College avenue and S. Miles street.

A game night is planned by the Lutheran Student Association, 412 W. College avenue.

Tryouts Set For Debaters

The first meeting of freshman women who signed to join the women's debate squad earlier this week will be 7 p.m. Wednesday in 2 Sparks.

Upperclass women who signed to try out for the team will try out at 7 p.m. Thursday in 2 Sparks. Each candidate is required to deliver a five-minute speech on either side of the national intercollegiate debate topic, Resolved: That the Congress of the U.S. should enact a compulsory fair employment practices law.

Freshman women need not try out to be placed on the squad, but upperclass women not on the team last semester must try out.

About six out of 100 people are left-handed, with men outnumbering women two to one.

Co-Edits

Alpha Gamma Delta

Ruth Lyne, president, and Mildred McCleary, rushing chairman, attended the Alpha Gamma Delta district workshop held at the Alpha chapter house, Syracuse, New York, during the summer. Along with representatives of 11 other chapters, they discussed future policies of the sorority. International officers supervised the workshop.

Sigma Phi Alpha

New pledges of Sigma Phi Alpha not included in the Student Union register are Joseph Barna, Richard Brandt, Walter Campbell, James Ellis, Wilbur Evans, Ronald Francis, John Harhigh, Herbert Horikawa, Clayton McFarland, Donald Mitchell, George Mountain, Lawrence Thaller, Robert Toepfer, and Herman Weiskopf.

3 Beta Theta Pi's In Armed Services

Three Beta Theta Pi members of the June graduating class were inducted into the armed services recently.

Donald Carlson and Jack A. Brown reported to Fort Meade, Md. After receiving his commission in June, Lt. Donald Craul was stationed at Fort Benning, Ga.

Brown was treasurer of Beta Theta Pi and a member of Parni Nous, senior men's hat society. Carlson, president of Beta Theta Pi, was a member of Skull and Bones, senior men's hat society, and appeared in Who's in the News at Penn State.

Theta Kappa Phi Is 3d

Theta Kappa Phi was third in the number of men pledged this year with a total of 21. Yesterday's Daily Collegian stated Phi Kappa Sigma and Pi Kappa Alpha were third with 20 each.

You're All SET...

for that party this weekend IF you get your hair styled and cut by the right people. Let Alice and Don solve all your beauty needs. Come in today!

ALICE & DON'S hairdressers

107 S. ALLEN STREET

OPEN HOUSE TO DAY

Above, Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Moore are drying, sorting and inspecting finished prints. Come in today to watch this and the many other processes in developing and printing your pictures.

Bring in your favorite negative today and watch as it is printed free of charge.

Centre County Film Laboratory

122 W. Beaver Ave.

Look your BEST...

this, and every other weekend in smart shoes from SIMON'S — where you'll find style and quality that's "extra Special." Come in today and see the large selection of dress shoes at SIMON'S — the store where smart girls shop!

Simon's

109 S. Allen