

X-Country Runners Fast In First Time Trials

Coach Chick Werner's cross country corps raced through its first time trials yesterday afternoon on the golf course in remarkably fast time for so early in the season.

Werner was very much satisfied with the pre-season time workout, which should give him a general idea of how his squad will withstand opposing competition in the future.

Five Future Grid Foes Make Debuts

Four Penn State foes, Penn, Pitt, Michigan State, and Syracuse, made impressive debuts Saturday, while future opponent West Virginia was upset in its opening encounter. Rutgers, another foe, battled Muhlenberg to a 19-19 tie.

Nebraska, once again headed by Bobby Reynolds, captured its second victory by defeating Oregon, 28-13. William and Mary, who played the Cornhuskers the previous Saturday, lost to Wake Forest, 28-21.

Penn. in its tied affair with Notre Dame, 7-7, did everything but actually defeat the highly touted fighting Irish. A third quarter pass engineered by Glenn Adams to Ed Bell, covering 65 yards, and Carl Sempier's extra point were the damaging blows to the fighting Irish. Penn had many opportunities throughout the game, but could not capitalize on them.

Carl Sempier just managed to get the ball over the crossbar. In fact most fans thought the attempt was missed. When the officials held a conference, everyone began to wonder if the point was good. However, the officials were talking to the Penn captain to find out whether or not he wanted to try again because Notre Dame was offside.

Michigan State is once again spotting its adversaries points before it shows its real passing and running attack. Quarterback Tom Yewick and halfbacks Billy Wells and Don McAuliffe led the Sparrows. Michigan State's 16th straight, longest winning streak in its history.

Sonny George scored in the final three minutes of play for Wake Forest to defeat William and Mary, 28-21, the Lions' next opponent.

Pitt Wins, 26-14

Syracuse, avenging last week's stunning upset by Bolling Field, produced a great ground offensive against Boston U. to win, 34-21. The 348 yards rolled up by rushing was too much for Harry Agganis' attack.

In Pittsburgh, sophomore quarterback Rudy Mattioli passed for two touchdowns and scored one himself to spark Pitt to a 26-14 victory over Iowa. Pitt's defensive play in the final quarter clinched the victory.

Two fourth-quarter touchdown passes from Jim Skidmore to George Mills aided Muhlenberg in a deadlock with Rutgers. Rutgers, leading 12 to 6 after the third quarter, couldn't stop the passing of Skidmore.

Ancient Rivalry

Penn State's Nov. 1 date with Penn at Franklin Field in Philadelphia will be the 41st in an ancient football rivalry.

Assembling midway between holes number 1 and 2 on the course, the varsity and frosh hill-and-dalers assumed their starting position when assistant Coach Norm Gordon yelled, "Runners ready," and were off upon hearing him conclude, "Go."

The assemblage of athletes was running the PIAA x-country course. The set distance for the varsity was 4 miles, while the yearlings ran 2½ miles.

At the mile and one half mark, sophomores Lamont Smith, Jim Hamill, and co-captain Jackson Horner, a junior, were running in a bunch.

Continuing their grueling pace, the returning lettermen passed the 2½ mile site at 11:05. They were still running grouped in this order: Smith, Hamill, Horner, John Chillrud and Red Hollen.

About 20 seconds later the frosh came romping towards the finish line which is alongside of the 18th green. Leading the pack was Henry Ford, who posted a fast 11:24 first place time. Finishing behind him were Jim Pastorius, Mike McKelvey, and Phil Steel.

After the frosh cleared the finishing line site and were trying to get their wind back, the varsity harriers could be seen coming down the backstretch.

Smitty and Horner were running neck and neck. Hollen was pressing the two leaders. In the final thirty yards, Smitty and Horner ran side by side and crossed the line in a dead heat. Their winning time was 20:52.

Hollen finished some ten yards behind to cop third place with a 20:57 clocking. Hamill and Chillrud finished in a tie for third with a 21:10 time. Stan Lindner, Jim Cressman, and Bob Gehman finished in that order to round out the first eight placers.

After the trials, Werner said he was impressed with the workout. His major complaint was that there was a definite lack of balance. Chick was referring to the time gap which separated the fifth and sixth place finishers.

"That's our big problem," Chick retorted. "We have to get the other fellows up closer to them. We're not discouraged, however, since this is only the second week of practice," he concluded.

College Grid Scene Upset In Openers

NEW YORK (AP)—The college football picture, which has been hazy since the campaign got under way two weeks ago, should come into sharper focus when the smoke of battle clears Saturday.

Many of the teams that the experts picked to cut a swath through their schedules instead barely staggered along.

Michigan State, for example, was accorded the No. 1 spot in the pre-season Associated Press poll to finish operations as the top-ranked team in the country. But the Spartans had to come from behind to whip Michigan, a have-not of the Big Ten these days, 27-13, Saturday.

State in its second game at Portland, Ore., and should experience no such difficulty.

Then whoever would have thought that mighty Maryland, the stepchild of the Southern Conference, would be battered and bruised two weeks in a row and emerge with hairline decisions.

After barely squeaking by Missouri in its opener, the Terps took a narrow 13-7 decision from Auburn Saturday.

Now they play Clemson, which also is in the process of atoning for its sins by not being permitted to play Southern Conference teams. Maryland also should win this handily.

The Pacific Coast Conference is running pretty much according to form with California the team to beat—just as it always is.

Flowers was pushed out of bounds by the defensive halfback of the Lions, Keith Vesling (17). In the background are Al Bowden (73), Bob Smith (55), and Jesse Arnelle (89). State, an underdog in the contest, tied the score in the final period 20-20.

Baseball Parade

Betting soothsayers are picking the Yankees to trim the Dodgers in the 1952 World Series which gets underway tomorrow at 1 p.m.

Betting men, however, aren't always right—as the 1948 presidential elections will demonstrate. The whole affair seems to boil down to Brooklyn power against Yankee pitching. The fielding of both teams is excellent, with the Brooks getting the edge.

In case you haven't already found out, Harry Steinfeldt was the third baseman with the Tinker-to-Evers-to-Chance group . . . White Sox outfielder Jim Rivera is currently facing a charge of rape . . . He was previously in prison on the same charge . . .

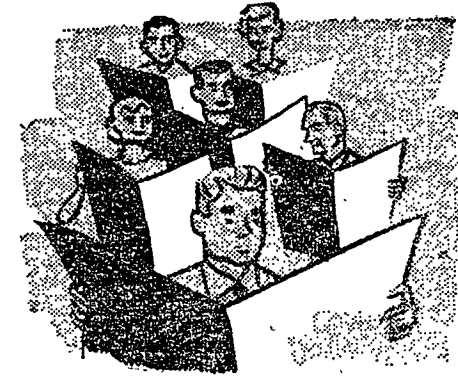

Pirate manager Billy Meyer joined coach Milt Stock as the latest victim of cellar air . . . Perhaps the two will grow mushrooms or join ex-Dodger boss Burt Shotton fishing . . . According to Brave prexy Lou Perini, Branch Rickey has stated that Ralph Kiner has played his last year for the Pirates.

Over 12,000 Collegian readers . . .

. . . but only 10,000 "subscribers"

How do the other 1300 non-students read The Collegian? It's quite simple. They just help themselves to the paper the students are paying for. And it's not fair to the students!

You may ask, why do these non-students take Collegians? Why don't they subscribe? They'll tell you that the Collegian never gets delivered to their office on time; (the only excuse they can think of at the moment). Well, this year the Collegian will be delivered to all campus buildings . . . and on time. There's no valid excuse for the non-students' pilfering.

Subscriptions are only $2.00 a semester or $3.75 for a full year of accurate, up-to-date, campus and national news. If more non-students would subscribe, then more Collegians could be printed . . . and at no extra cost to the students.

So, if you can't get a Collegian in the morning, ask a non-student . . . he has YOUR Collegian.
