FOR A BETTER PENN STATE

VOL. 53, No. 15

STATE COLLEGE, PA., WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 1, 1952

FIVE CENTS

Black vs. Reynolds In Series' Opener

NEW YORK (AP)—It will be Brooklyn's Joe Black against New York's Allie Reynolds on the pitching mound today as the 1952 World Series of baseball opens in Ebbets Field.

Games start at 1:00 p.m., EST, except for Sunday when the starting time is 2:05 p.m.

The games will be televised nationally via NBC and will also be broadcast via Mutual.

Banking on Black

Because of superior pitching and their past record in World Series play, the Yankees ruled an 8-5 favorite to win the series. They were also 6-5 to capture the first game.

Manager Charlie Dressen is banking heavily on Black, his sensational rookie righthander, who hurled 56 games during the regular season, 54 in relief. The willowy 28-year-old Negro won 15, lost four and saved 14 other games. Dressen plans to use Black in relief as well as a starter in the series.

Casey Stengel, who managed the Yankees to four pennants in his first four years with the club, said he would open with Reynolds (20-8), to start Vic Raschi (16-6) in the second game, and follow with Ed Lopat (10-5) in the third contest, which will be played at Yankee Stadium.

Athletes Are Ready

Dressen's current plans are for Carl Erskine (14-6) to pitch the second game, at Ebbets Field, and Preacher Roe (11-2) to oppose Lopat in an all-southpaw duel in the third game.

Both managers said their athletes were in fine shape with the exception of Carl Furillo of Brooklyn and Gene Woodling of New York. Both are outfielders. Furillo is nursing a sore left hand and Woodling is recovering from a groin injury. Both said they would be ready.

Batting Order in Doubt

Stengel is still mulling over his 100th batting order of the season.

Doubt about the condition of Woodling is the reason for Stengel's reluctance to give out a batting order. Stengel wants to be sure Gene can run before he makes a move.

Unless Dressen has to replace Furillo with lefthanded hitting George Shuba at the last minute, he will have only one lefty swinger in the order against the righthanded Reynolds. That would be Duke Snider, his power-hitting center fielder.

WD Vote Results To Be Announced

Results from all division elections in the West Dorm area will be announced today, Bryson Craine, student government counselor for the area, announced yesterday.

Voting in the elections was completed last night when first floor Hamilton residents finished their polling.

Dean of Men Will Hold 1st Coffee Hour Today

The first Dean of Men's Coffee Hour will be held from 4 to 5:30 p.m. today in the Dean of Men's office, 106 Old Main.

Coffee hours will be held every Wednesday to discuss student interests and problems, Lincoln Warrell, chairman of the coffee hour committee, said yesterday.

The purpose of the gatherings is "to bring the students closer to the Dean of Men's office in a friendly atmosphere," Warrell added.

Four On Committee

Thirty students are invited to each coffee hour. Ten men and five women are selected from various living quarters. The remainder of the students represents campus organizations including All-College Cabinet, Interfraternity Council, the Association of Independent Men, Leonides, Panhel-

Penn Ticket Setup Clarified by Gilbert

Student Fees Payable Tomorrow and Friday

Student fees for the fall semester will be collected from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. tomorrow and Friday in the basement of Willard Hall.

Students can determine the amount of their fees by checking the board on which bills will be posted according to matriculation numbers tomorrow in the basement of Willard Hall, David C. Hogan, bursar, announced: To save time for students and administration, Hogan requests that students write their checks before entering one of the seven alphabetical lines. Hogan said the system will be speeded up considerably if students do not wait until they get up to the window to write their checks. Checks are to be made payable to the Pennsylvania State College.

Printed sheets giving an estimated summary of undergraduate fees have been distributed to campus living units. Copies are available in the Bursar's office for those students who have not obtained them. From this sheet students should be able to get a fairly accurate estimate as to the exact amount of their fees, Hogan said.

To eliminate complications, students should pay their fees tomorrow or Friday during the prescribed hours, Hogan said. Students with questions pertaining to fees, he said, should stop at 6 Willard and speak to the officials.

Fifty Parking Permit Requests Received

Approximately 50 applications for campus parking permits have been received, it was reported yesterday by Capt. Philip Mark of the Campus Patrol.

One-hundred seventy new parking permits were made available yesterday after a survey of student parking areas revealed that there was room for more cars.

To enable more students to obtain parking permits, the commuting area set up at the beginning of the semester was reduced in size. The revised area is bounded on the north by Mitchell avenue, on the east by Holmes and Pine streets, on the south by a line midway between Prospect and Hamilton avenues, and on the west by a line midway between S. Patterson and S. Sparks streets to the south of the College golf course, and midway between Franklin street and Fairway road to the north of the golf course.

Mark reported that if the total number of available permits is not given out by tomorrow, those students living outside the revised commuting area who have not registered their cars with the College may obtain the new permits by filling out a registration form at the Campus Patrol office, 320 Old Main.

If the available permits are not distributed by the end of the week, the commuting area will be still further reduced in size, Mark said.

UBA Closes Today; Asks Cooperation

Today is the deadline for students who sold books through the Used Book Agency to collect money or unsold books at the TUB.

The UBA will be open 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the TUB ballroom where the book receipts will be honored. Approximately 200 unsold texts remain to be collected, according to Howard Giles, UBA chairman. He stressed the necessity of picking up these books, as they will become the property of the UBA after today.

Because of the new system of selling books in the TUB ballroom, rather than in the small room adjoining it, congestion and lines were avoided in this year's UBA sales. Twice as many students dealt this year with the UBA, according to Giles, who attributes the greater number to the new system.

Counselors Collect Orientation Checks

Checks for men Orientation Week counselors who live off campus are now being distributed at the Bursar's office, basement of Willard Hall.

Approximately half of the counselors picked up their compensation yesterday. The amount, $9.25, is equal to dormitory room and board charges for Orientation Week.

Counselors who are dormitory residents will have their charges for the week canceled.

Froth on Sale at SU

The remaining copies of the September Froth will be on sale for 25 cents each today at the Student Union desk in Old Main, Myron Enelow, circulation manager, has announced.

Application, AA Signatures Must Match

The signatures on the application for a student ticket to the Penn State-University of Pennsylvania football game must match that on the Athletic Association book when the book is shown at the time of ticket distribution, according to Harold R. Gilbert, graduate manager of athletics.

Saturday's Daily Collegian stated that the signature on the check or money order for the tickets must match that on the Athletic Association book. Gilbert said this is not necessary, and added that one check or money order can pay for more than one ticket.

Ticket sales to non-students, who are not alumni or members of the Alumni Association, will be considered after orders of the students and alumni are filled.

Lists Procedure

Applications for the tickets will be available tomorrow at the Student Union office in 102 Old Main and the Student Union desk in the West Dormitory main lobby.

The procedure for obtaining tickets is as follows:

1. Pick up an application blank in either the Old Main or the West Dormitory location.

2. Fill it out. Keep in mind that the signature on the application must coincide with that on the Athletic Association book. The books are used for verification when tickets are distributed. Students who wish to be seated together should pin applications together.

Tickets at AA Office

3. Place the application with the accompanying money order in the mail so that the envelope is postmarked no earlier than 6:30 a.m. Oct. 8. The mailing period extends until 5 p.m. Oct. 9. Applications that are postmarked earlier than 6:30 a.m. Oct. 8 will not be accepted. Special delivery orders will not be accepted.

Tickets are priced at $3.90 and $2.60. Money orders or checks must be drawn for the exact amount. If the demand for tickets for a particular price exceeds the supply, the Athletic Association reserves the right to substitute tickets in the available price

Town Council Election Today

Election of representatives to the Association of Independent Men Town Council will be held at 7 p.m. today and tomorrow in 105 Willard, Franklin Reese, elections committee chairman, said yesterday.

The first 15 wards will elect their representatives tonight and the remaining wards tomorrow night, Reese said. Representatives and alternates will be elected in 30 wards at the rate of about four wards every half hour, Reese said.

More than 2500 off campus students have received post cards from the elections committees informing them of the elections procedure. Each ward will elect a representative to the council and an alternate to take his place when necessary.

Football Movies Set

Movies of the Penn State-Purdue football game will be shown at 7 tonight in 119 Osmond. Assistant football coach James O'Hara will act as commentator.

Form 109 To Be Sent To Boards

Male students who wish to have Form 109 mailed to their local draft boards should stop in the Assistant Registrar's office in the basement of Willard Hall, A. W. Stewart, assistant registrar, announced yesterday. The form reports on last year's grades.

The 109 forms filled out by male students at registration this fall do not cover last year's grades and will not be sent to the local boards until June, Stewart said. They will report each student's record for the 1952-53 academic year.

This is the first year that all men were required to fill the forms out. Last year only a small portion of the male students filled them out at registration, and many have been requesting that scholastic information be sent to their local boards pertaining to last year's academic records. The Assistant Registrar's office will send these to the boards if students stop in the office and fill another form out, Stewart said.

Debate Squads To Hold Trials For Candidates

Candidates for placement on the men's debate squad will try out at 7 tonight in 316 Sparks. Five freshmen and 16 upperclassmen have signed to try for the team.

The women's debate squad will hold tryouts at 7 p.m. tomorrow in 2 Sparks. Approximately 20 women are expected to try out.

Those trying out for both the men's and women's squads will be required to present a five-minute speech on either side of the national intercollegiate debate topic, Resolved: That the Congress of the U.S. should enact a compulsory fair employment practices' law.

All upperclass women not on the squad last semester must try out to be placed on the women's team. Freshman women need not try out but may join the squad if they are interested in debating the national topic.

Those freshman women who have already signed for women's debate and others interested will meet at 7 tonight in 2 Sparks.

Students who do not have their pictures taken at the scheduled time will not have their pictures in the yearbook.
