the seating in Recreation Hall be rearranged to include 300 reserve seats for faculty, alumni and graduates, was tabled until next week's meeting. The reason for postponement was to give Senate members a chance to consider the suggestion.

Hilda Hogeland and Barbara Werts were appointed by Senate to represent WSGA on the All-College Cabinet leadership project committee. This committee will serve as an informative-instructive group to help acquaint interested students with the workings of student government.

Glud Appointed
A proposal that the WSGA publicity committee handle the Pennsylvania Week advertising on campus was passed by Senate. The committee, headed by Nancy White, will make posters pointing out interesting displays and collections on campus and construct a display in West Dorm lounge show case depicting Pennsylvania's past and present achievements.

Senate appointed Louise Glud chairman of the freshman senatorial elections committee, Rose Monack, Eleanor Horvitz, and Patricia Bauer were chosen as her committee members.

Tea Date Changed
A Mardi Gras theme was chosen for the All-College Sing to be held November 9. This decision ties together under a common theme activities planned for this weekend making November 7, 8, and 9 a women's weekend.

The date for the Junior-Senior Faculty reception was changed from Wednesday, Nov. 5 to Wednesday, Dec. 10 because of the time necessary to prepare for the affair.

WRA to Sponsor Weekly Play Night

2d Forum Program To Feature Music

When Elsa Lanchester appears in the second Community Forum program Dec. 8 in Schwab Auditorium it will be the first time that a forum schedule has veered from the traditional lecture pattern to include music and comedy.

It is hoped that the inclusion of a lighter number in the 1952-53 program will attract a greater variety of persons to the entire series, according to Mrs. J. W. Hunt, publicity chairman.

Miss Lanchester will appear in a program entitled "Private Music Hall." The Music Hall is a combination of comedy supplied by Miss Lanchester and music provided by a musical comedy quartet, the Madhatters. The entire program is backed by the piano stylings of Ray Henderson, who arranged the music for the show. The Madhatters have appeared at the Las Vegas Flamingo and the Los Angeles Ambassador's Coconut Grove.

"Private Music Hall" is presented by Paul Gregory, who doubles as director and producer for the act. Gregory presented the First Drama Quartette on Broadway last season in George Bernard Shaw's "Don Juan in Hell."

Miss Lanchester has appeared as a night club entertainer in New York's Blue Angel and London's Cafe de Paris. The wife of actor Charles Laughton, she has appeared in character roles in numerous films. Her current movie is "Les Miserables."

In addition to singing specialty numbers, Miss Lanchester mimics, dances, and recites.

The Community Forum series will also include Marquis Childs, Washington columnist, who will open the season Nov. 10; Walter H. Judd, Republican congressman from Minnesota, Jan. 9; Hodding Carter, Southern newspaper editor and author, Feb. 23; and Begum Ikrumullah, Pakistan stateswoman, March 4.

Season tickets to the forum series are now on sale, priced at $3, at the Student Union desk in Old Main and through faculty, student, and town representatives. The drive continues through Oct. 10.

Members of Chimes, junior women's hat society, are selling tickets in the lobbies of five women's dormitories. Sales will be made from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 5 to 7 p.m. in McElwain, Simmons, Atherton, Thompson, and McAllister Halls.
