

Jackson Cites 148 Ag Honor Students

One hundred forty-eight students in the School of Agriculture were cited for outstanding scholarship during the spring semester, Dr. Lyman E. Jackson, dean, has announced.

Of these, 13 had perfect 3 averages for the semester. An average of 2.5 or higher is required for the dean's list. Those on the dean's list are

48 Bands Plan Parade, Drill On Saturday

Forty-eight visiting high school bands, a total of more than 3000 bandmen, majorettes, and baton twirlers will participate in the third annual "Band Day" on Beaver Field Saturday.

The visitors, representing 15 neighboring counties, will join Penn State's 96-man Blue Band in a colorful demonstration between halves of the William and Mary football game.

Led by the State College High School band, the 48 units will march through the campus and downtown streets in a pre-game parade starting at 11 a.m. Beginning on Burrows road, the parade will move south to College avenue, east to Shortlidge road, up Shortlidge to Pollock road and back to Burrows. From there the bandmen will proceed to Beaver Field where box lunches prepared by the College Food Service will be served.

Four of the visiting directors were Blue Band presidents during their undergraduate days and 14 were members of the Blue Band. More than half of the 47 participants received degrees from the College.

Ramsey to Head Research Project

The industrial reference division of the School of Engineering is working with the Office of Technical Services of the U.S. Department of Commerce in answering technical questions received from industries in Marshall Plan countries.

Robert Ramsey, professor of engineering research, is in charge of the project.

Other participating agencies are Armour Research, Babson Institute of Business Administration, Crerar Library, and Georgia Institute of Technology.

tonight, Laubach said. Cabinet will also hear a summary report on Student Government Day, which will be presented by committee chairman Robert Smoot. Laubach will explain to the group that a radio committee will soon be appointed, but because of the technical nature of the subject, interviews will be given to place members on the committee.

Martin Cites Reasons For Government Change

TOWANDA, Pa., Oct. 1 (AP)—U.S. Sen. Edward Martin tonight cited what he termed the failure of the present administration to "serve the people with decency and integrity" as the reason why he said a change is needed in Washington.

"A political party too long in power loses its strength and power," he told Republicans of Bradford County at a dinner. "It loses its ability to resist favoritism and corruption. It loses the confidence of the people."

Brunner to Run Nat'l FFA Band

Dr. Henry S. Brunner, head of the department of agricultural education at the College, will again direct the national Future Farmers of America Band for the FFA convention at Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 13-17. Dr. Brunner, who formerly directed the Pennsylvania State FFA Band, has directed the national band since its formation.

Five students from Pennsylvania high schools will participate in the national FFA Band along with players from all parts of the nation. They are Arthur Frey, flute, of Sterling; Don Kapner, trumpet, Port Royal; Eugene Smith, horn, Hegins; George Carey, trombone, Biglerville; and Fred Faust, drums, Thompsonstown.

Five vocalists from Pennsylvania in the national FFA chorus to sing at the convention under direction of Dr. James W. Hatch, of New York, are Donald Monk, Myerstown; Ronald Henderson, St. Clairsville; John H. Ramsey, Jr., Oxford; Ray Matter, Millersburg; and Jay Guyer, Woodbury.

and nobody on in the eighth, lined his home run into the left field seats off relief pitcher Ray Scarborough. He was the first Dodger ever to hit two homers in series competition. Pee Wee's first came in the 1949 series against the Yanks.

Both managers have announced their pitchers for today's game at Ebbets Field. It will be two right-handers—Carl Erskine 14-6 for the Brooks and Vic Raschi 16-6 for the Yanks.

Dairy Club to Meet

The Dairy Science Club will meet for the first time this year at 7 tonight in 117 Dairy. Freshmen may attend the meeting.

Poultry Club to Meet

The Poultry Club will meet at 7 tonight in 108 Plant Industries. Hubert W. Frings, associate professor of entomology, will speak.

Spelunkers Meet In Frear Tonight

The Nittany Grotto, spelunking club, will meet at 7:30 tonight in 318 Frear.

Spelunking is cave exploring. Members of the club usually go on a caving trip every weekend. Activities of the society include finding and exploring new caves, exploring new sections of known caves, mapping them, making paths for safety in a new cave, and taking pictures to be used at the national speleological convention.

Interested persons may attend the meeting tonight and get full details on the weekend trips.
