FRIDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1952

Lions Host Tribe Tomorrow 'Homecoming' Game for Eight IM Dope Sheet W&M Football Players, Coach

Briefs Sports

HARRISBURG (P)-Pennsylvania's schoolboy football powers, plagued by upsets so far, head into another rugged weekend schedule as they open the second month of the season.

Bellwood-Antis, unbeaten in regularly-scheduled games since

1949 and Lewistown, with a string invaders, b o th unbeaten since 1950, have tougher assignments in the huge Eastern Conference. The Sollors and West Beranton's University of North Carolina yes-terday canceled its football games The Sailers are only slight favo-rites over. Hanover Township cause four students have been afwhile the Invaders are on similar shakey ground against the best One is fullback Harold Bull Da-Hazleton team in years.

Nine Pennsylvania footballers, including William and Mary Coach Jackie Freeman, will celebrate "homecoming" tomorrow afternoon on Beaver Field when the W&M In-dians tangle with Penn State. The meets will again be held at Glennland Pool between 5:15 and Five of the Indians making 6:15 p.m. and meets will be held W&M's annual football pilgrim-mage to the Keystone state will Friday. Competition will begin be in the starting defensive and Oct. 13.

ily favored Pennsylvania 20-12. W&M then knocked off powerful Duke, as it had Wake Forest and Boston U. earlier, to wind up the season with an excellent 7-3 rec. was under the basis, with basis, with basis, with basis eminiate ing a squad. • 5-3-1 Point A meet consists of five events: A 60 yard free style, 60 yard back broke down unsuppediate • 5-3-1 Point A meet consists of five events: Duke, as it had Wake Forest and Boston U. earlier, to wind up the season with an excellent 7-3 rec. was up the stroke, 100 yard breast stroke, 120 was up the stroke of the basis of t Boston U. earlier, to wind up the season with an excellent 7-3 record.

Kickoff at 1:30 p.m.

Kick off time tomorrow is 1:30 p.m. instead of 2 p.m. as was the case during Daylight Saving Time.

was me case during Daylight Saving Time. With his Pennsylvania players certain to be "up" for the game, Coach Freeman is bound to be working on the rest of his squad which is heavily dotted with out-of-Virginians. Freeman, a star player for the Indians in 1942, is a native of Windber, and formerly coached n e ar b y Williamsport High School. He too will be want-ing to "show off." Freeman has plenty with which coached n e ar by Williamsport High School. He too will be want-ing to "show off." Freeman has plenty with which to show off. Although his Indians lost 28-21 last week to Wake For-est, the score hides the fact that W&M is a powerful offensive club which has piled up 829 yards in Biggest cog in W&M's scoring wheel is quarterback Ed Miodus-reavski (Medda-Cheski) State of the season. Biggest cog in W&M's scoring wheel is quarterback Ed Miodus-to state of the season. Biggest cog in W&M's scoring wheel is quarterback Ed Miodus-state of the season. Biggest cog in W&M's scoring wheel is quarterback Ed Miodus-to state of the season. Biggest cog in W&M's scoring wheel is quarterback Ed Miodus-to state of the season. Biggest cog in W&M's scoring wheel is quarterback Ed Miodus-state of the season. Biggest cog in W&M's scoring wheel is quarterback Ed Miodus-to the season should try to have biggest cog in W&M's scoring wheel is quarterback Ed Miodus-to the season should try to have biggest cog in W&M's scoring wheel is quarterback Ed Miodus-to the season should try to have biggest cog in W&M's scoring wheel is quarterback Ed Miodus-to the season should try to have biggest cog in W&M's scoring the power the season should try to have biggest cog in W&M's scoring the power the season should try to have biggest cog in W&M's scoring the power the season the the season the season the season the season the the season the the season the season the season the the season the season the season the season the the season the Biggest cog in W&M's scoring wheel is quarterback Ed Miodus-zewski (Medda-Cheski).

Deadly Passer

Meadows, from Cliffside, N.J., is curently third in the nation in total offense which means he is a deadly passer in addition to his topflight ballcarrying feats. Last year Meadows picked up 6.8 yards per try to rank eighth in the nation in rushing as a halfback. But the astute Coach Freeman saw his tremendous Meadows' po-tentialities as an operator of the W&M split-T. The switch has done wonders for W&M gridders. Working the split-T optionals, Meadows is a dangerous faker when he "gives," keeps or throws —neither of which the defense

Swimming

All entries for swimming intramurals must be filed at the Intramural office, Recrea-tion Hall, by 4:30 p.m., Wed-nesday, the IM office has an-nounced.

be in the starting defensive and Oct. 10. offensive lineups—and quite ea-ger to show off before the home folks who don't get South to see team consisting of five men. Com-netition is carried on by dual them often. Just last year the Tribe boldly meets and on the single elimin-crossed the Mason-Dixon and ation basis, with one loss eliminatyard free style relay (four men), and diving. An individual may compete in only two events, but he may also compete in diving. This event consist of a front dive, back dive and one optional. The meets will be run on the organizations should try to have at least eight men. Teams also should be sure that they can compete any day of the week before filing an entry. The complete rule sheets are available at the Intramural office.

12 Win Town Council Seats

Twelve ward - representatives were elected to Town Council last night, winding up the council elections.

Football

Play in the intramural touchlootball tournament was inter-upted yesterday because of in-clement weather. The tournament, however, will resume ac-tivities tonight with three inde-pendents and one fraternity game scheduled.

Tonight's schedule reported by Dutch Sykes, assistant d'rec-tor of intramurals, is: 7 p.m. Joe's Boys vs Dorm 13: 7:45 n.m. Beaver House vs C.A.'s: 2:20 p.m. Dorm 26 vs Lumber arks; and 9:15 p.m. Sigma Alpha Ep-silon vs Phi Gamma Delta. The only change mode by Sykes The only change made by Sykes is in the fraternity tourney. Sig-ima Pi vs Alpha Phi Delta was previously scheduled at 9:15 p.m. 19 Teams Eliminated

The Daily Collegian yesterday erronecusly stated that KDR edged Alpha Sigma Phi, 1-0. Alpha Sigma Phi won from KDR, 1-9, in an overtime match.

Since the opening of the 1952, touch-football season 19 teams have been eliminated in inde-have been eliminated in inde-pendent and fraternity play. Independents who have been', eliminated are the Iron Men, Gil-mores, Fenn State Club, Dorm 34, Eight Balls, Nincompoops, Gray-men, and Polecats. Fraternity te a m s eliminated thus far, are Phi Mu Delta, Phi Sigma Delta Zeta Beta Tau Beta

Alpha Tau Omega, who upset Alpha Tau Omega, who upset Alpha Tau Omega, who upset Alpha Sigma Nu in the finals last year, exhibited some fine defensive play in beating Tau Phi Delta, Alpha Tau Phi De

Tennis

Two fraternity and one independent man posted victories yes-terday in IM tennis-singles. Doug-las Zuker forfeited to Richard Wetzel in the only independent match. In flight one of fraternity play, Daryl Heasly, Delta Theta Sig-ma, lost to Don McCormick, TKE, 6-4, 6-3, in a nip and tuck affair, while Melvin Shira, Delta Chi, in flight four bested Richard Lin-fors, Phi Kappa Sigma, 6-4, 8-6.

Dutch Sykes, assistant director of intramurals, said that first round matches not played by Monday will be dropped from the tournament.

Swoyersville's defending cham-pion sailers and West Scranton's invaders, both unbeaten since 1950, have tougher assistance of 13 straight victories, are expected to have little trouble with Western Conference opponents Osceola Mills and Mt. Union.