

Penn Ticket Applications Still Available

Applications for student tickets for the Penn State-University of Pennsylvania football game Nov. 1 at Philadelphia are still available at the Student Union desk in Old Main and the Student Union desk in the West Dormitory lobby, according to John Laubach, member of the committee on seating arrangements.

Student Union office workers said that ticket applications moved rapidly yesterday.

Applications are to be mailed so that envelopes are postmarked no earlier than 6:30 a.m. Oct. 8. Envelopes postmarked before 6:30 a.m. Oct. 8 or after 5 p.m. Oct. 9, as well as special delivery orders, will not be accepted.

Students wishing to sit together should pin applications together. Checks or money orders, bearing the student's address, must be drawn for the exact amount.

Tickets will be distributed between 8:30 a.m. and noon and 1:30 and 4:30 p.m. Oct. 23 and 24.

Raschi Wins --

Loes made Joe Collins rap a double play bouncer to Jackie Robinson who tagged Berra in the baseline. But Hodges let Robinson's easy throw squirm out of his glove for a costly error, Mantle scoring.

Up stepped Martin, playing his first series as a regular since Gerry Coleman marched off to war. After looking at a ball, he pickled Loes' second pitch into the seats about 360 feet away to break the game wide open with three more big runs.

8 ZBT Pledges To Protect Lion

Eight pledges of Zeta Beta Tau will be on hand tonight to guard the Nittany Lion Shrine near Recreation Hall, Arthur Rosfeld, Interfraternity Council president, has announced.

The pledges will report to the shrine at 8 tonight and work in shifts until 7 a.m. tomorrow. They will be armed with weapons, including baseball bats. The guards will discourage any attempts by rivals to paint the Lion. The statue has been disfigured several times in the past.

Pledges from ZBT have been serving as guards for the past two years and will continue to do so for the remainder of this season, Rosfeld said.

Meeting Slated By State Party

Discussion of appointments of All-College Clique secretary and treasurer of State Party will be presented at a party meeting at 2 p.m. Sunday at Phi Kappa.

The meeting, open to all interested students, will be attended by last semester's steering committee.

Other subjects on the agenda are a report of the State Party committee on the joint Lion-State Party fund raising plan, and the reformation of the steering committee.

The group will also decide upon a time and place for the first clique meeting of the semester.

Chloroform was first developed in 1831.

Cabinet --

The All-College Elections committee will meet with the party groups to discuss all funds used during the campaign. The committee has the power to detract as many as 100 votes from a party's candidates if violations are uncovered. A violation of the election code by a single member of a party or a single candidate will entail subtraction of votes from all members of the ticket.

Penalties may also be imposed by the committee if any of the code rules are broken. Violations include any campaigning in Old Main, buying votes directly or by promises, the placing of posters in Old Main, illegal fund-raising, defacing property during campaigning, false listing of activities for campaign purposes, use of cars and public address systems on campus for election purposes, and failure to read the entire election code to clique members on Oct. 26.

Some Parking Permits Available for Students

A limited number of student parking permits are available, Lt. H. F. Lewis of the Campus Patrol reported yesterday. Students who are eligible and who have not yet picked up their permits may do so by filing applications between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. today in 320 Old Main.

NO LETTERS FROM PENN STATE...

... but I'm well informed on campus news. My son bought a subscription for me.

YOUR FOLKS at home are interested in you ... and your college. They read every word of the few letters you do write, but there's much to be desired in news.

You are so busy studying, rushing around, and getting things done, there just is no time to write.
