FOR A BETTER PENN STATE

VOL. 53, No. 18

STATE COLLEGE, PA., SATURDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 4, 1952

FIVE CENTS

Seating Suggestions Heard by 3 Groups

A suggestion that 300 seats be reserved at basketball games and other indoor sports held in Recreation Hall has been presented to three campus groups. The suggestion, along with others dealing with indoor sports, was originated by Ernest B. McCoy, dean of the School of Physical Education and Athletics.

48 Schools To Perform At Band Day

Forty-eight high school bands visiting the College today for the third annual Band Day will play between the halves of the Penn State-William and Mary football game.

Plans Proposed For Motorcade

Plans for a competitive motorcade to be held at the Homecoming football game Oct. 18, will be discussed by a special subcommittee 2 p.m. Tuesday at Moffatt Cottage, Fred M. Coombs, chairman of the Pennsylvania Week committee, announced yesterday.

Arthur Rosfeld, president of Interfraternity Council, and Marlene Heyman, president of Panhellenic Council, will confer with Coombs to make final preparations for the motorcade, a part of the Pennsylvania Week observances.

The main problem to be solved is how to get the cars on and off the track around Beaver Field, Coombs said. If no solutions are found the motorcade plans may be canceled, he said.

Lions Meet W&M In Bid for 2d Win

Biology in Action

SAMUEL NOWELL, emcee, tells the crowd at last night's pep rally that he's Engle's secret weapon to be used in the clutches of football game with William and Mary at Beaver Field today.

Two Lion Squads Cheered by Rootery

Undaunted by brisk autumn weather, a fair-sized crowd assembled last night in front of Old Main to demonstrate lion-sized enthusiasm in response to an appeal by Alan McChesney, head cheerleader. "We've got two teams to cheer on. Let's do a good job of it," he urged.

The Blue Band, led by James Dunlop, gave a varied program of swing music interspersed with such school chants as "Penn State is on the march, the Nittany Lion will roar." A few students attempted to help out with cowbells. Sam Nowell was emcee.

Soccer coach Bill Jeffries compared this year's team favorably with the best State has produced since he first came here in 1926. He said, "Tomorrow, the soccer team hopes to show how to really get a kick out of living. We're going out there to win."

Kurt Klaus, soccer team captain, said the team has a rough schedule this year. "We'll play the top soccer teams in the nation, including Temple, Army, and Navy, starting with Bucknell tomorrow." Klaus asked students to "give us a good start" in today's Bucknell game to be played

Dean McCoy first presented the suggestions at a combined meeting of All-College Cabinet and the Athletic Association held last Sunday.

Dean McCoy first presented the suggestions at a combined meeting of All-College Cabinet and the Athletic Association held last Sunday.

Not Reserved in Bloc

The suggestions were brought before the Mineral Industries School Council Monday night and before the Women's Student Government Association Wednesday. Both groups tabled the discussion of the suggestions for further consideration.

The suggestion to reserve seats at sports events in Rec Hall includes the idea for using these seats for faculty, graduates, and alumni. The seats would be reserved, not in a bloc, but in scattered areas around the hall. No details on how the seats would be saved were given.

New AA Book Plan

The 300 seats would be divided in half, 150 of them being given complimentary at each game and the rest sold on a first come-first served basis, with faculty first, alumni second, and graduates third.

The second suggestion asked that the athletic books given to students be divided into two groups with each group a different color. This way individual students would attend every other game, leaving more seats at each game.

John Laubach, All-College president, pointed out that the ideas expressed in the suggestions are as yet embryonic and would not be acted upon until many more campus groups look into the ideas more fully.

Action on the suggestions in All-College Cabinet is not expected until November, Laubach said.

Malloy Extinguishes Blaze in Pond Lab

Hydrogen, escaping from a tank with a defective valve, was the cause of a slight fire in 302 Pond Laboratory at 6:15 p.m. yesterday.

F. J. Malloy, Chemistry department glassblower extinguished the fire before units of the Alpha volunteer fire department arrived.

Capt. Philip Mark of the Campus Patrol investigated.

Brooks Take Series Lead As Berra's Error Decides

NEW YORK (AP)—Yogi Berra pulled a horrendous blunder by letting two Brooklyn runs stream home on a passed ball while the dazed catcher stood by in the ninth inning yesterday. As a result the Dodgers took the World Series lead, two games to one, with a 5-3 victory over the New York Yankees on Preacher Roe's gritty six-hit pitching.

Berra's glaring error, boosting a 3-2 Dodger lead to 5-2 at the time, became an agonizing nightmare when Johnny Mize delivered a pinch-hit homer in the bottom of the ninth that would have tied the score.

There were men on second and third, as the result of a double steal following back-to-back singles by Peeewe Reese and Jackie Robinson, when relief pitcher Tom Gorman threw an inside 2-2 pitch to Andy Pafko.

The ball glanced off Berra's left hand and rolled to the screen near the Brooklyn dugout, about 75 feet from the plate.

Berra whirled around and then stopped as the ball rolled to the screen. Reese already was winging across the plate. When the dazed Yogi failed to rush after the ball, Robinson also steamed home.

Yogi, who nicked Roe for three hits including an eighth-inning home run, also dropped a high foul pop by Duke Snider in the eighth when Brooklyn scored its third run.

The Preacher Man from Arkansas, was a magnificent figure on the mound. Time and again he skirted disaster with the skill of a human fly scaling a skyscraper—and just as dangerously.

While Roe fiddled and the Yanks burned, Brooklyn ripped

Tribe Expected To Give State Tough Contest

By JAKE HIGHTON

Penn State's unbeaten but once-tied football team goes after its second win of the season this afternoon against a definitely upset-minded William and Mary eleven. Kickoff for State's third straight Beaver Field contest is 1:30 p.m. Clear skies are predicted for W&M's first visit to Beaver Field since 1922 when the Lions won, 27-7, in the only previous meeting of the two schools.

Tough Game

The Indians own a 1-1 record on the season having dropped Virginia Military Institute 34-12 and losing last week to Wake Forest, 28-21. However, the Indians outplayed, out first-downed, out rushed and out passed the Deacons—a team which ranked first in the nation defensively last year.

Coach Rip Engle expects a "tough game" from a W&M team which will be led by one of the nation's outstanding backfield performers, Ed "Meadows" Miodusowski. Engle said yesterday that his Lions are in "excellent spirits" and "not overconfident" because they tied Purdue, 20-20, last week. The 1952 Lions are not the Prima Donna type ballclub.

High-Powered Offensive

The last time W&M ventured into the Keystone State—last year to play Penn—it stunningly upset the Red and Blue, 20-12, to enhance its excellent 7-3 record. This year the Indians have the same kind of goods to administer another upset. The high-powered Indian offense has rolled up 329 yards in two games this season—412 against VMI and 417 against Wake Forest.

Heading a crew of some of the hardest hitting backs in the South is brilliant All-Southern Meadows who is currently third in the nation in total offense. No wonder! Against Wake Forest last week he personally picked up 285 yards on the ground and through the air—40 more yards than the entire Deacon team.

Meadows, quarterback behind the tricky W&M split T, can be expected to give Nittany fans the same choked feeling they got every time Purdue's Dale Samuels held the ball last week. The W&M bellwether operates the split-T optional to perfection with handoffs, passes or "keeps."

Helping Meadows out is a crack backfield tabbed as the "Lonesome Foursome." Four tough runners have run every W&M play except one this season. Righthalf Bruce Sturgess owns a 7.4 average per try, fullback Roger Bowman owns a 8.3 average, and left-half Tom Koller is the "worst" of the four quartet with a 2.7 average.

Students May Sign For Dance Class

Starting Monday, students may sign up at the Student Union desk in Old Main for the beginners' dance class to be conducted at the TUB by members of Mortar Board, senior women's honorary. Class will be held from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Monday through Friday for seven weeks starting late this month. Elaine Russell, secretary to Louis Bell, director of public information, will teach straight ballroom dancing. According to George Donovan, director of Student Union, only the first 200 enrolling will be accepted.

Lytle Provides Music Tonight At 'Apple Jump'

Ross Lytle and his orchestra will provide music for the "Apple Jack Jump" from 8:30 to midnight tonight in Recreation Hall.

Co-sponsored by the Agriculture and Home Economics student councils, the proceeds will be used to establish a scholarship fund.

"Old Mother Hubbard" and "Old MacDonald" will be chosen from the audience. The dance will feature square, round and polka dancing.

Apple cider and pretzels will be sold by members of Omicron Nu and Coaley Society, honor societies of the two schools.

Tickets, which are 50 cents, will be available at the door, Jane Mason, co-chairman of the dance said.

Working on the dance committee with her and co-chairman Richard Stanley are Dawn Anthony, Helen Davis, Kermit Knauss, Conrad Kresage, Mary Lynch, Peggy Mayberry, and Morris Schoreder.

Speedier Display Is Flashcard Goal

A more rapid display of flashcards will be attempted by participants in the flashcard system at today's game, Alan McChesney, head cheerleader, said yesterday.

McChesney added that hatmen will again protect the EH sections of the stands from 12:30 p.m. until game time. He requested that participants arrive at the section early.

Jam Session at TUB

The first of this year's jam sessions will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday in the TUB. The sessions will be open to all and no admission will be charged. Weekly sessions were held last year.
