Those selected are Phoebe Erickson, Joan Hunter, Nina Moses, Marjorie Perry, and Betty Smucker.

The Homecoming Queen will be chosen on the basis of "the girl you would most like to come home to" and will be presented at the three performances of the Thespian show "Don't Stop Now" next week. She will attend the alumni luncheon and be feted throughout the week.

WRA Extends Hockey Season Into November

The Women's Recreation Association has decided to extend the hockey season throughout November this year, Mabel Marple, president, has announced. The association felt that the former length of the season did not give hockey players enough time to become proficient and to expand hockey as a sport, Miss Marple said.

Hockey for women at Penn State has already been given a boost. Harold Lichtendahl, a special exchange student from Germany, has agreed to coach the WRA hockey teams this year.

Lichtendahl, who played center-half at the 1952 Olympics at Helsinki, recently conducted a special 'clinic' for women hockey players. He is not officially a part of the physical education faculty, however.

The biggest hockey event on the agenda is the annual inter-collegiate hockey Play Day, which will be held Oct. 18 at Bucknell University. Penn State will bring two teams whose members will be selected by Mimi Martin, hockey club president; Mrs. Mildred Lucey, club advisor; and representatives from each class.

Any woman student can join hockey practice sessions held from 4 to 5 p.m. daily on Holmes Field, Miss Martin said. All equipment is supplied by WRA. Approximately 20 women play on a team.

Interclass games will be played later in the season. Players will probably form two freshman teams, one sophomore team, and a combined junior-senior team, according to Miss Lucey.
